Other NFL Experience: 1984-85 Memphis Showboats (USFL), 1993-98 Green Bay Packers

(NFL). 2000 Carolina Panthers (NFL)

One of the most dominating players of his era, Reggie White set the NFL standard for defensive ends. His size, strength, and speed left offensive linemen helpless while he devoured ballcarriers and quarterbacks alike. He was the most prolific pass rusher of his time, ranking second in NFL history with 198 career sacks.

Career Highlights:

- Earned 13 consecutive Pro Bowl berths (1986-98)
- Holds the sack record for the Eagles (124.0) and the Packers (68.5), the only player to hold the mark for multiple clubs
- By the conclusion of 1992, had become the NFL's all-time leading sacker with 124.0 surpassing Lawrence Taylor's 121.5.
- Twice led the NFL in sacks, sharing the NFL record for number of seasons leading the league. In 1987 (while playing just 12 games due to the player's strike) set the NFC mark with 21 sacks that stood until NYG's DE Michael Strahan eclipsed the mark with 22.5 in 2001. His nine consecutive seasons with 10-or-more sacks remain an NFL record and his 12 seasons with 10-or-more sacks is surpassed by only Bruce Smith's 13
- Played six seasons in Green Bay and capped the 1996 campaign with a victory in Super Bowl 31

Upon purchasing the Eagles in 1994, Jeffrey Lurie stated, unequivocally, that building a new, state-of-the-art stadium would be a key component in the effort to build the Eagles into an elite NFL franchise.

"Winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal," said Lurie, the team's Chairman/CEO. "Stadiums and training facilities, however, are a vital element in the success and stability of franchises on both a present and long-term basis. As an organization, you want to assemble the best staff and players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve success.

"That's what we want to do with Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex. With regard to each venue, we have made a dramatic leap. Both are striking in terms of their architecture and amenities, and can be seen as icons for the Eagles and for Philadelphia."

In grand fashion, the Eagles opened their NovaCare Complex practice facility in 2001. The spectacular 108,000-square-foot facility offers the very best in terms of space, amenities and care and effort put forth for the players, coaches and staff of the Eagles.

"The NovaCare Complex allowed us to go from having one of the worst facilities in the National Football League to the very best of facilities," said team Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie. "It means so much for everyone in this organization to go to work each day and be proud of where they are working, from the executives, to the assistants, to the trainers, and, of course, to the players. Everyone in the organization, I think, is very proud of where they are working. It provides the whole organization with a great atmosphere and enhances the degree of camaraderie because there are all sorts of rooms people can actually spend time with each other as opposed to the setup we had to endure whereby people were so compartmentalized."

Eagles Book Mobile

The Eagles Book Mobile visits underserved children in schools, shelters, libraries, recreation centers, after-school/summer programs and parks. At each stop, the "Storybook Man" reads aloud to the children and invites them aboard to select their very own books to keep. Since 2000, the Eagles Book Mobile program has distributed more than 275,000 books to children, most of whom had never owned a book. Partners include: Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Sovereign Bank, AMETEK Foundation, Target, First Book and the United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Eagles Chess Tournament

Eagles Eye Mobile

For the past three years, Eagles Youth Partnership has supported chess clubs in the schools and has hosted the Annual Eagles Chess Tournament, where hundreds of Philadelphia public school children compete in a full day tournament at Lincoln Financial Field.

DEFENSE

Tackling HEALTH problems that block children from achieving their maximum potential

In 10 successful seasons on the road, the Eagles Eye Mobile program has provided free eye exams for more than 16,000 children in the Philadelphia and Chester-Upland public schools. During the 2005-2006 school year, the Eye Mobile provided comprehensive eye exams to more than 3,000 elementary and middle school children. Of those examined, 80% needed and received free prescription eyeglasses through the program. Former Eagles Pro Bowl Offensive Lineman Jermane Mayberry helped to establish the Eagles Eye Mobile in 1996. This innovative partnership of St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Independence Blue Cross, Merck, Inc. and the School Districts of Philadelphia and Chester Upland was the centerpiece of both a regional and national award in 2005. (see EYP's Recognition above).

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP GAME PLAN

SPECIAL TEAMS

Leveraging the Philadelphia Eagles to INSPIRE youth and communities toward a better "field position" in their lives

Eagles Playground Bullds

Each year, Eagles Youth Partnership and the Eagles organization devote a full day to transforming a neighborhood or school in a blighted community. Eagles players, staff, coaches and management work together with neighborhood adults and children to landscape, paint murals, inlay tile mosaic and build play structures. A grant from Eagles Youth Partnership supports the cost of each transformation.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

EYP created the Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among area high school football players. Varsity football players from Allentown, Camden, Chester, Coatesville, Philadelphia, and Reading who maintain a 3.0 GPA are invited to an awards reception and are treated like MVPs at the Eagles Summer Training Camp. Since 1997, 837 scholar athletes have won this award. Eagles Reggie Brown, Sheldon Brown, Dhani Jones and Darwin Walker have joined Andy Reid, Jeffrey Lurie and Tom Heckert in honoring Top Achievers.

500 Gallons of Paint and 250 Gallons of Hope

Across the street from Lincoln Financial Field, Eagles Youth Partnership commissioned a mural entitled "Moving Toward Your Dreams." Mural artist, Don Gensler, spent nine months on the project and included 250 Philadelphia children in the design and painting of it. One section of the mural shows a boy, jumping into the clouds -- into his future. Where he lands is up to all of us.

EAGLES CARNIVAL & AUCTION

The 12th Annual Eagles Carnival & Auction will be held on Sunday August 27, 2006 from 3:00-8:00 PM at Lincoln Financial Field - Rain or Shine.

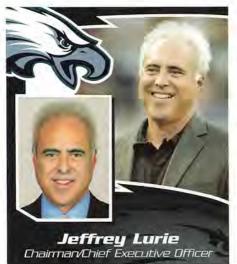

This is the fans' chance to join every Philadelphia Eagles player, coach and cheerleader for a day of excitement including autographs, carnival games, locker room tours, a silent auction and plenty of food, fun & prizes.

All Eagles Carnival proceeds fund EYP's charitable programs, serving approximately 50,000 kids/year through the Eagles Eye Mobile, the Eagles Book Mobile, and other programs listed in this section.

Jeffrey Lurie has shaped the Eagles into one of the most competitive organizations in professional sports on and off the field. During his tenure, Lurie has fueled energy, optimism, and pride throughout the entire organization, and has surrounded this team with state-of-the-art working facilities along with a family atmosphere. The results have been dramatic.

Since 1995, Lurie's first full season owning the Eagles, Philadelphia has been in the playoffs seven times, appeared in four NFC Championship games and in one Super Bowl. Only Green Bay (8) has been in the postseason more. With 107 combined wins in the regular season and playoffs, the Eagles are ranked 5th among all NFL franchises in that category during that span.

In the last six seasons, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 65 regular season games. Under Lurie, the Eagles have a greater overall winning percentage (.566) and appeared in more playoff games (15) and won more (8) than any other ownership group in team history.

The Eagles streak of double-digit wins in five straight seasons from 2000-04 was the 11th such occurrence in NFL history and the first since San Francisco (16 times from 1983-1998) did so in the previous decade. With three 12-plus wins from 2002-04, Philadelphia joined six other teams in league history to accomplish that feat.

"I'm pleased with the direction of the organization from top to bottom," said Lurie. "It takes a real commitment doing what we believe in, and we're all together in our focus to be the best sports franchise possible on and off the field."

Armed with team president Joe Banner, one of the league's sharpest minds and top salary cap experts, two-time NFL coach of the year Andy Reid, who was boldly hired in 1999 after a two-year stint as Green Bay's quarterback coach, and a franchise quarterback in Donovan McNabb, the Eagles are prime contenders each year for a Super Bowl championship.

"I'm very confident in our strategies and the excellent people we have working for the Eagles," said Lurie. "Our strategies never related to what was meant to be popular. I always felt that the decisions had to be best for the franchise and they often were very unpopular. If you want to succeed in the NFL with the salary cap, you have to make unpopular decisions."

The Eagles play at Lincoln Financial Field, the cutting edge NFL stadium featuring unparalleled fan amenities, are housed in the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex, their day-to-day workplace since 2001, and have founded and nurtured one of professional sports most dynamic charitable foundations, Eagles Youth Partnership.

"Stadiums and training facilities are a vital element in the success and stability of sports franchises," said Lurie. "As an organization, you want to assemble the best coaching staff and best players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve that success."

Lurie is well respected among the NFL's top hierarchy as he serves on the NFL's Finance Committee, Broadcast Committee, Diversity in the Workplace Committee, Super Bowl Policy Committee, Business Ventures Committee, Los Angeles Working Group Committee, New Orleans Advisory Committee and is on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities.

Since becoming owner of the Eagles, Lurie, who was named NFL owner of the year by The Sporting News in 1995 and by Pro Football Insider in 2000, has gone about the business of and away from the playing venue, a venue packed with the most rabid fan base in the NFL. "These fans are extremely deserving of having terrific football played here in Philadelphia," says Lurie. "We appreciate them. On the road, they are there by the thousands. At home, they are always a 12th man. You just so badly want to deliver winning football and championship football to them. This is an amazing football city. I have said so many times, winning the Super

shaping the football team and the franchise on

Describing his philosophy of ownership as a "partnership between the city, the fans and the team," one of Lurie's primary objectives early in his time in Philadelphia was the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the team's non-profit, charitable wing. Now in its 12th year, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and in the entire world of sports philanthropy.

In 1996, Lurie was the recipient of the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia and a year later was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, an acclaimed group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities.

In addition, Lurie is a director of the Autism Research Foundation and the NLM Family Foundation. NLM co-funded a short documentary film entitled, "Autism is a World," that received a nomination for a 2005 Academy Award.

"Autism is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," said Lurie. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done."

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University.

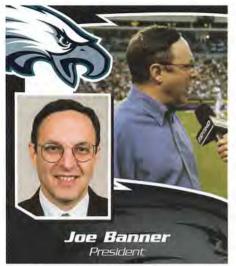

He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's degree in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. Lurie also served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985.

Born on Sept. 8, 1951 in Boston, MA, Lurie now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their 2 children.

Long known as one of the NFL's top executives, Joe Banner has played an integral role in transforming the Eagles into one of the most successful and progressive organizations in professional sports, both on and off the field.

"Joe plays a crucial role in most everything we accomplish. His determination, intelligence and desire for success are invaluable assets to the Philadelphia Eagles," said Jeffrey Lurie, chairman/chief executive officer of the Eagles. "He's a great team player, unselfish and wants what's best for the franchise, our fans and our players."

The results on the field are very tangible. Since 1995, Lurie and Banner's first full year with the Eagles, only one team has appeared in the postseason more than Philadelphia (seven out of 11 seasons). In addition, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 65 regular season games since 2000.

One of the league's brightest football minds, Banner is lauded not only for his salary cap expertise, but for his negotiation skills and compatibility with head coach Andy Reid and the player personnel department in managing the Eagles roster on a long-term basis.

Esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin stated, "The Eagles [under Banner] have developed a strategy for the salary cap. And now it's the blueprint for financial success in the NFL: Draft well, play them young, extend them early." The New York Times hailed him as "the Joe Montana of the salary cap. He's simply the best." ESPN.com's Len Pasquarelli says he "should be the poster child for crafty and responsible salary cap management."

Banner does not go unnoticed within the Eagles organization. "With all the recent success of the team, most of the credit usually goes to the players and coaches," said Reid. "But without the support and hard work of the front office, we would not have that success. Joe Banner is a big part of that support. As I've said many times before, Joe is the best as far as managing the salary cap."

With Banner leading the charge, the results have been dramatic off the field, as well. His tireless efforts to forge a partnership with the City of Philadelphia to build a football-based stadium in Philadelphia came to fruition when Lincoln Financial Field opened in 2003.

Banner, who has been overseeing the day-today operations of the franchise since May 6, 1994, was also key in the Eagles successful efforts to secure a partnership with NovaCare, which resulted in the building of the spectacular NovaCare Complex, the 108,000-square foot training facility, the largest and most state-ofthe-art such facility in sports.

"As I've told Jeff Lurie many times," said Philadelphia Mayor John Street, "deals of this nature wouldn't get done without having someone who demonstrates the tenacity and diligence of Joe Banner."

Banner, who was named to his current post of team president on August 1, 2001, has also been involved in the creation and execution of every department in the organization. Whether it was the restructuring of the football operation and of those decisions.

bold hiring of Andy Reid, the creation of the league's most respected marketing operation, or the formation of the nationally-acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership, he was at the center

Over the last two years, Banner has been a driving force behind the Eagles Tackling Breast Cancer campaign. By selling pink hats and ties adorned with the Eagles logo, the team has raised over $400,000 for breast cancer and research in the Philadelphia area.

The Eagles have earned several awards over the past few years, including twice being selected the best overall web site amongst NFL teams, securing 26 sports Emmys and 29 Tellys for the Eagles Television Network, and earning 11 Philadelphia ADDY awards for the "You Can't Script This Stuff" campaign in 2005. In addition, the Eagles media relations department has twice earned the Pete Rozelle Award for the league's top public relations operation since 2002.

Under Banner's leadership, the Eagles popularity has soared in recent years. The waiting list for season tickets is over 60,000 people, merchandise sales and internet hits have increased yearly, and media attention is at an all-time high.

While football is a huge focus in his life, Banner also has time for being a devoted husband to his wife, Helaine, and a loving father to daughter Jill (17) and sons Jason (11) and Jonathan (9). The Banner family resides in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Banner also devotes a lot of time and energy to community service and is active in non-profit groups. He is the co-chair of the Philadelphia City Year Board. Banner also joined City Year's national Board of Trustees and is also the chair of its National Leadership Committee. Of City Year, Banner says: "City Year is extremely important to me because I believe we live in a community and we each have an obligation to try to make our communities better places. For me, City Year epitomizes the values and beliefs by which I have tried to live my life."

For his efforts, he was named Citizen of the Year by the American Red Cross in 2004 for outstanding corporate leadership and commitment to Southeastern Pennsylvania's civic and charitable organizations. In 2006, he is being honored with the Distinguished Community Leadership Award by Operation Understanding.

In 2001, Banner also received a prestigious leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS Program, a charitable organization that aims to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia region.

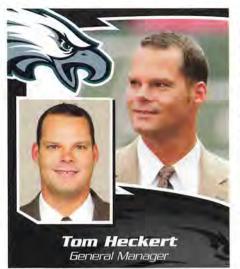

Said Lurie of Banner's community involvement: "Joe is invaluable not only to the Philadelphia Eagles organization but to the Philadelphia community as a whole. On the professional side, Joe has been the point person on the most crucial issues facing our organization. Joe's impact on the community, however, is of equal importance."

Banner's expertise has led to a great deal of respect within the field of higher education. In 2004, he lectured at a class on creating a corporate culture at the Harvard Business School and a class on leadership at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

In 1995, President Bill Clinton appointed Banner to a panel of 10 judges nationwide, which selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. He is also on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Banner (born 2/13/53) is a graduate of Denison University and was a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU 1210 AM.

One of the league's top executives, Tom Heckert is in his 6th season in Philadelphia after being promoted to his current role of general manager on January 2, 2006. He had served as the club's vice president of player personnel since 2003. In this role, he works closely with Andy Reid in all player personnel matters while managing the player personnel department, which includes both college and pro scouting.

"We're happy to keep someone of Tom's caliber in Philadelphia," said Reid upon his promotion in January. "Tom has done an excellent job and it was important for this organization to have him continue in this general manager role for the foreseeable future. He's a hard worker and an outstanding evaluator of talent."

Said team president Joe Banner, "The lifeblood of building a successful NFL team is having a strong player personnel department, specifically their success in the draft. Tom has been a tremendous asset in that area. He's bright and is very diligent in his work."

His first draft with the Eagles produced Lito Sheppard, Michael Lewis, Brian Westbrook and Sheldon Brown, the first three earning Pro Bowl selections. Prior to the 2004 draft, he also engineered the trade of 3rd-string QB A.J. Feeley to the Dolphins for their 2nd round pick in the 2005 draft, which was used to select WR Reggie Brown.

Heckert has also shown a knack for finding key rookie free agents (CB Roderick Hood, S Quintin Mikell, DT Sam Rayburn, and WR Greg Lewis among others) who not only earned roster spots, but have been solid contributors to the Eagles recent success.

Heckert, 39, joined the Eagles as the club's director of player personnel on May 21, 2001, after a 10-year stint as a member of the Miami Dolphins player personnel department.

"In the interview, I just felt comfortable with him," Reid said, "felt comfortable with what he knew, I knew he wouldn't be afraid to tell me his honest opinion. I knew it wouldn't matter what the scouts or the coaches said. He was going to give me a straight shot."

In 1999, he served as the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel/college scout and was promoted to director of pro personnel in 2000. Heckert served as both a pro scout and as a college scout during his first nine seasons in South Florida.

Heckert's scouting talents have been valued by the NFL. In 2003, he was appointed by the league to the 12-person College Advisory Committee, which advises college football juniors on their draft status.

Over his 15-year career in the NFL, Heckert's teams have experienced just one losing season, won their division seven times and made the playoffs 11 times, including four in Philadelphia.

During Heckert's tenure in Miami, he worked under two of the most successful head coaches in NFL history - Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson - who both personally recommended Heckert for his current post with the Eagles.

Said Johnson when Heckert was hired, "I told Coach Reid if I were to come back as a head coach, Tom would be one of the first guys I'd try to hire."

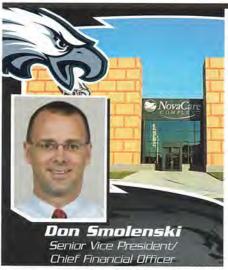

A native of Adrian, Michigan, Heckert joined the Dolphins after spending two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He also was a defensive back at Hillsdale.

Heckert's father, Tom, began his coaching career in 1961 and spent 20 years in the NFL player personnel ranks, his last 13 with Miami before retiring in 2004. Recalled the younger Heckert, "I was around the football field and football offices probably more than I was home. I was always there. After school, I'd watch his practices. We'd go to every game. When I was really young, he'd be upstairs in his office working and I'd just watch tape, because it was there."

Heckert (born 7/17/67) and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Griffin (11), and a daughter, Madison (9), and reside in Glen Mills, PA.

Serving as the club's senior vice president/chief financial officer, Don Smolenski is a valuable member of the Eagles front office. In his role, Smolenski works closely with team president Joe Banner and senior vice president of business operations Mark Donovan in developing and implementing initiatives and strategies throughout the organization. He also plays a major part in instituting policies and procedures for all employees.

Known for his effective, easy-going style, Smolenski oversees all aspects of the facility operation teams at Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex, the organization's financial operations (including stadium financing, debt management, budgeting, and financial reporting), human resources, information services, insurance, and team travel.

"With his broad range of thinking, Don has helped to develop ways of melding the business facets of the Eagles organization with the football," said Banner.

With that macro view of the entire organization in mind, Smolenski successfully led a collaborative effort in the opening of Lincoln Financial Field in 2003. He continues to lead the organization's efforts to maintain a first class venue with a priority on quality customer service.

He also currently sits on the board of the Sports Complex special services district, a nonprofit entity charged with improving the quality of life for the neighborhoods surrounding the stadium. He is also a member of the Board of Leadership Philadelphia, a non-profit organization that promotes leadership and community involvement in the city of Philadelphia.

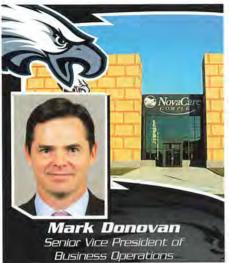

Smolenski joined the Eagles in 1998 as the club's vice president/chief financial officer and was promoted to his current post two years later.

Smolenski came to the Eagles from the International Hockey League where he was the chief financial officer. During his tenure, he oversaw all league financial issues and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league expand from 12 to 19 teams. He also spearheaded the development of a salary cap and several other cost management programs as well as interfaced with each of the team finance directors.

Prior to his term with the IHL, Smolenski worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An avid runner, Smolenski has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. After graduating with a BA in biology from Amherst College, he continued on to earn his masters in accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake (8) and Shane (6).

Entering his fourth season as the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Mark Donovan is responsible for the business side of the team including all revenue generating, marketing, and branding activities.

He leads the club's efforts in sponsorship sales and service, television and radio production, retail operations, event acquisition and ticket sales, new media, premium sales and customer service, as well as community and public relations.

Prior to his role with the Eagles Donovan served as the senior director of marketing and sales for the National Football League. His "league" experience began at the National Hockey League, where he held the position of director of corporate sales and marketing.

"We take a great deal of pride in hiring the best people in their respective fields and in the case of Mark we have done that," said team president Joe Banner. "His track record in terms of forming and managing corporate partnerships and sales strategies is second to none." Recognized as one of the most aggressive and successful business operations in sports, the Eagles have earned several awards under Donovan's direction, including twice being selected the best overall web site amongst NFL teams, securing 12 Emmys for Eagles Television Network, and earning 11 Philadelphia ADDY awards for the "You Can't Script This Stuff" campaign in 2005.

Donovan, himself, earned a prestigious national award in 2005 as he was a recipient of the Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 awards, which honors the 40 most influential sports executives under the age of 40.

Mark serves on the National Board of Directors of Pop Warner Football, The Police Athletic League of Philadelphia, The Philadelphia Sports Congress and is a member of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce Leadership Forum.

In addition to serving as the home of the Philadelphia Eagles, Lincoln Financial Field has quickly developed a reputation as a premier sports facility hosting events ranging from Bruce Sprinsteen in concert, Manchester United soccer matches, the annual Army/Navy Game, Temple Football and Women's World Cup Soccer. In 2005 and 2006 the venue hosted the NCAA Lacrosse Championship over Memorial Day weekend. Through the efforts of the Eagles organization and the local organizing committee the team shattered all previous ticket sales records making second largest ticketed Championship event behind the Final Four Basketball Tournament.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mark graduated from Brown University with a double major in political science and organizational behavior and management. He also played quarterback and was elected team captain of the Brown Football Team. Upon graduation he signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants.

Mark and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Luke, and a daughter, Maeve.

When Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Martinez-Helfman as its executive director. Now in her 12th year, Martinez-Helfman, frequently described as a "dynamo," is recognized as a leader in the field of sports philanthropy.

"From the start, we were all convinced she had the ability to not just manage grants, but create programs, work with our players, and get them involved," said team president Joe Banner. "I don't think there's anyone here who doesn't feel she has exceeded the expectations we had. Sarah is more passionate about what she does than anyone can be about what they do."

Under her direction, the award-winning EYP has given free books to more than 290,000 low-income children through the Eagles Book Mobile program and has examined the eyes of more than 15,500 children aboard the Eagles Eye Mobile. More than 75% of those children have received free eyeglasses.

"Eagles Youth Partnership helps define the cutting edge in the emerging field of national sports philanthropy," said Greg Johnson, Director of the Sports Philanthropy Project at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. "Nowhere have I witnessed more compelling examples of the strategic use of a professional sports team's assets than in the direct programming offered by EYP."

In 2005, Martinez-Helfman and Eagles Youth Partnership were honored with two prestigious awards. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project teamed-up to recognize Eagles Youth Partnership with the inaugural Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award, singling out EYP for its excellence and leadership in the field of sports philanthropy. Soon after, the GlaxoSmithKline IMPACT Award honored EYP for its excellence in the delivery of nonprofit community healthcare.

The awards came on the heels of a much celebrated example of EYP's impact in the community. During the week of Super Bowl 39, the Eagles Eye Mobile and Book Mobile made the trek to Jacksonville, as well, visiting local schools in that area. Along the way, the Book Mobile made stops to the elementary schools of active Eagles players in Maryland, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Martinez-Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

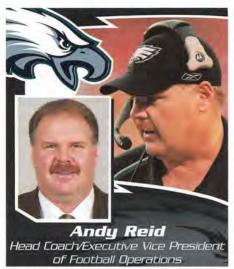

On the corporate end, Martinez-Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Martinez-Helfman earned her B.A. in English literature and her M.S. degree in counseling psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and non-profit management. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA. Her simple mission in life is to leave the world better than she found it.

One of the most successful head coaches in recent NFL history. Andy Reid has really put his stamp on this city's beloved football team. After taking over a 3-13 club on January 11, 1999, Reid has been simply masterful in turning the Eagles into one of the NFL's elite teams.

During his tenure, Reid, 47, has earned NFL coach of the year honors twice, compiled the highest win total (77) and winning percentage (.621) in team history, captured four consecutive division titles and four trips to the NFC Championship game from 2001-04 for the first time in franchise history, and registered the most playoff wins (7) in club history.

"What Andy Reid has done is remarkable," Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy said, "especially in light of the salary cap and free agency and the inability to maintain continuity. What I like most about him is he's level headed. It doesn't concern him who gets the credit. He's not concerned with puffery. His teams are sound fundamentally, and most important, he picked a great coaching staff for them, I admire the man,"

Under Reid, the 2004 Eagles clinched the NFC East title with five games remaining in the regular season and the #1 seed in the NFC playoffs after a 13-1 start. Along the way, Reid passed Greasy Neale (66) for the most wins in franchise history. The Eagles earned their first trip to the Super Bowl since 1980 after defeating Atlanta in the NFC Championship game.

In 2003, the Eagles overcame a 0-2 start and a slew of injuries to post their second consecutive 12-win season. During that season, Reid registered his 50th career win (in his 81st game) to become the fastest coach in team history to reach that milestone. A year earlier, Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's coach of the year as the Eagles thrived without the services of QB Donovan McNabb to still capture home field advantage in the NFC playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

His vision, his dedication, his passion, and his organizational skills are impeccable. For those reasons he was promoted to head coach/executive VP of football operations on May 8, 2001. Reid's contract was extended to 2010 during the 2004 season.

Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie said, "I've always said, he's like a CEO on the field. He understands the big picture and the short-term picture. You have to always balance the two. Disciplined. Prepared. Smart. It's an awfully good combination."

"Andy has intellectual capital. He has no ego. To him, it's all about building team community. He's comfortable with himself. He's not paranoid, worried about what others think or report. He's genuine and people follow that."

Reid came to the Eagles after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with Green Bay under Mike Holmgren. During that span, the Packers reached the playoffs six times and defeated New England in Super Bowl 31.

In his 14-year NFL coaching career, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 11 times (16-10 record in those games). He has coached in the Super Bowl three times, in the NFC Championship game seven times, and in the Pro Bowl four times.

"Everyone who works with him and plays for him knows exactly where he is coming from," said team president Joe Banner. "We wanted someone with a strong set of convictions and who wasn't going to be affected by ups and downs and public pressure."

The Plan:

"The important thing is to lay a plan, and then follow it step by step no matter how small or large each one by itself may seem." This quote by Charles A. Lindbergh is scribed behind Reid's desk and reflects his coaching philosophy.

From the first day Reid set foot in the Eagles office, he orchestrated a plan on what it was going to take to make this a championship-level team. That plan, Banner said, "changed the personality of the whole organization."

Said FOX Sports Troy Aikman, "Andy's the perfect fit for the city of Philadelphia. He has the right demeanor for the job and doesn't let things affect him. He has strong convictions, believes in what he's doing and doesn't waver."

- Owns a 14-6 record in regular season prime time games, a 47-26 mark (including playoffs) in games in November and later, and a 34-22 regular season road record.

A meticulously organized man, Reid began keeping a notebook as a Packers assistant - a three-ring binder - that would help prepare him to one day become a successful head coach.

Reid saved the old ideas and devised new plans, plans that he would later implement as a head coach. But this was not about game plans. It was about how to build a winning organization. It included practice, travel, and offseason schedules, notes from Holmgren's speeches, biographical information of other coaches, and much more.

Offensive Lineman Mentality:

Reid attributes his modest, selfless nature to his days as an offensive lineman in high school and college saying, "I'm glad to be of offensive lineman roots. That way you don't lose perspective amidst the glamour and the monetary things. You have that hard-work thing ingrained in your brain. You understand you haven't gotten to where you are without hard work."

Said Lurie, "He won't talk about himself. But he has a tremendous work ethic and a sense of honesty and genuineness. And he's a great leader. Everyone respects his human qualities."

That work ethic was developed growing up in Los Angeles. Reid's mother, Elizabeth, was a radiologist while his father, Walter, was an artist working primarily on backdrops for theatrical sets. Father and son would leave their house at 4:30 a.m. Walter, who worked across the street from junior high, would drop Andy off at the school and the younger Reid would work on various projects in the wood shop.

To this day, he is a skilled craftsman who has built cabinets and clocks. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars and, in fact, owns a 1928 "Model A" Ford.

Climbing the Coaching Ladder:

Reid enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers quarterbacks coach, working with Brett Favre from 1997-98. Reid took over that role after Marty Mornhinweg departed to become San Francisco's offensive coordinator under Steve Mariucci, the original QB coach on Holmgren's staff.

In 1997, Green Bay won its 2nd straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season. Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid oversaw the tight ends, while assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, Mark Chmura and Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

It was in his first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged Reid to learn the entire offensive system, not just the roles of the offensive

REID'S COACHING INFLUENCES

Hiro Tanaka, John Marshall HS, Los Angeles: "He took a bunch of kids of different races and combined them into making a team. We never had a problem."

Jim Sartoris, Glendale Junior College: "I was in that first group, and he came in, took a terrible program and built it back up into a championship team. I was right there for that."

LaVell Edwards, BYU: "I saw a man who knew how to treat people. He didn't care who you were, what you were about. At the same time, now, he could crack the whip. He never turned away an autograph seeker. And he didn't lose his cool during tough times."

Vic Rowan, San Francisco State: "Whenever he saw an interesting play on TV, he'd call up that coach and ask him to go through it with him in detail. He collected playbooks from all over the place."

Bob Stull, UTEP/Missouri: "He showed me how an ex-offensive lineman and offensive line coach could become a offensive coordinator and a great head coach."

Mike Holmgren, Green Bay: "I had a hard time believing anyone did it better than him when I was working for him."

line and tight ends. "It was his curiosity, the questions he would ask, his note taking," said Holmgren. "He was just a sponge."

In fact, Holmgren placed the "supervisory" tag on Reid in 1996 to prevent NFL clubs from hiring him as anything other than a head coach unless given permission.

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant under Lavell Edwards in 1982. It was at BYU that Reid met and worked with Holmgren, who served as the QB coach.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped them lead the nation in passing and total offense three consecutive years (1983-85). He went on to develop quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid has an older brother, Reginald. Raised not far from Dodger Stadium, Reid was a devoted fan of both the Dodgers and Rams (Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones in particular). He went on to attend John Marshall HS in LA and Glendale (CA) Junior College (where he was inducted into that school's Hall of Fame in 2003) before matriculating to Brigham Young University where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

As a player at BYU, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo Daily Herald. "I had my own little column," said Reid, who once longed to be a writer for Sports Illustrated. "I loved Jim Murray (a long-time columnist with the LA Times). I wrote one of these cutesy deals, trying to write like Jim. (laughing) The editors took it easy on me. I enjoyed writing. I still do. I keep a journal to this day. It's a great release."

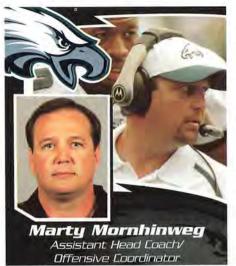

It was at a physical education class at BYU that Reid met the woman who would become his wife, Tammy. "What attracted me to him more than anything was his character. He's just a really good guy, very honorable and very conscientious." Reid converted to the Mormon faith in 1979 which Tammy and her family had practiced.

They have five children, each of whom was born in a different state - sons Garrett, 23 (4/13/83); Britt, 21, (4/28/85); and Spencer, 14 (6/16/92); and daughters Crosby, 18 (3/17/88); and Drew Ann, 16 (3/9/90).

Marty Mornhinweg is in his fourth season in Philadelphia and his first as the club's assistant head coach/offensive coordinator. Previously, Mornhinweg worked as the Eagles assistant head coach, working closely with Andy Reid and the rest of the offensive staff.

In 2004, the Eagles offense set franchise records in QB rating (96.4), completion pct. (61.4%), and gross yards passing (4,208). Along the way, QB Donovan McNabb set franchise records in QB rating (104.7), completion pct. (64.0), and passing yards (3,875).

Mornhinweg, 44, joined the Eagles as a senior assistant coach in 2003 after spending the previous two seasons as head coach of the Detroit Lions. From 1997-2000, he served as the offensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. In 1998, the 49ers became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Bears to lead the league in gross passing and rushing yards.

Mornhinweg and Reid coached together as offensive assistant coaches in Green Bay from 1995-96. In 1996, Mornhinweg tutored the Packers quarterbacks as Brett Favre captured MVP honors in leading his team to a Super Bowl 31 win over New England. The two also coached together at Texas-El Paso in 1987 and at Missouri in 1991.

Four quarterbacks have earned Pro Bowl honors while working under Mornhinweg: McNabb, Favre, and San Francisco's Steve Young and Jeff Garcia.

In all, Mornhinweg coached on the college level for 10 seasons: Northern Arizona (1994 and 1988), Missouri (1991-93), Southeast Missouri State (1989-90), Texas El-Paso (1986-87), and Montana (1985).

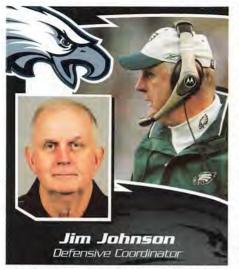

Born in Edmond, OK (3/29/62), Mornhinweg was the Northern California player of the year and an all-state performer as a senior at Oak Grove HS in San Jose, CA, where he played under current Seahawks coach Mike Holmgren, an assistant coach at that school. He went on to be a four-year starter at Montana, where he established 15 passing records for the Grizzlies. Mornhinweg also was a quarterback for the 1987 Arena Football League champion Denver Dynamite before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

Mornhinweg earned a degree in health and physical education from Montana and a master's degree in health and physical education/sports administration from Texas-El Paso in 1988. He and his wife, Lindsay, have four children, two daughters, Madison (15) and Molly Lynn (10), and two sons, Skyler (12) and Bobby Cade (7).

On January 22, 1999, Eagles head coach Andy Reid targeted and hired Jim Johnson as the Eagles new defensive coordinator. A veteran of 20 seasons as a NFL assistant, Johnson has proven to be the right man leading the team's defense in becoming one of the most respected units in the NFL.

"As I've said many times, Jim Johnson is the best in the business at what he does," said Reid upon signing his prized defensive coordinator to a lucrative four-year contract extension in 2005. "His defensive units continue to produce at a very high level as he puts a lot of pressure on opposing offenses."

The Eagles defense knows only one way to play and that is to attack. Over the last six years, Johnson's units ranked first in the league in 3rd down efficiency (33.3%), second in fewest points allowed (17.0 per game) and sacks (265), and third in red zone touchdown percentage (43.4).

In 2001, Johnson's unit became the fourth team in NFL history to go all 16 games without allowing more than 21 points. Their streak of allowing 21 or fewer in 34 straight games was second longest in NFL history (Minnesota, 1968-71). In 1999, Johnson's unit forced a NFLbest 46 turnovers, including a team-record 5 interceptions returned for TDs.

Over the last seven years, Johnson's defense has produced 21 Pro Bowl selections: Brian Dawkins (5), Troy Vincent (5), Jeremiah Trotter (4), Hugh Douglas (3), Michael Lewis (1), Lito Sheppard (1), Corey Simon (1), and Bobby Taylor (1).

In 1998, Johnson helped the Seahawks register 10 TDs on defense, including 8 INTs returned for scores, 2nd most in NFL history. He arrived in Seattle after a four-year tenure in Indianapolis, the last two as defensive coordinator.

He spent eight seasons with the Arizona Cardinals (1986-93). After overseeing the Cards defensive line for four seasons, Johnson excelled as their secondary coach, helping Aeneas Williams become the first rookie cornerback to lead the league in interceptions (6) since 1981.

Johnson began his coaching career as head coach at Missouri Southern (1967-68), before serving four-year tenures at Drake and Indiana. From 1977-83, Johnson served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Notre Dame, a stint that included a national championship in 1977.

Special Teams Coordinator

John Harbaugh

From 2000-04, Harbaugh's units were the only club to rank in the top ten in the articulate special teams ranking system by Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin. They finished first in those rankings following the 2001 and 2003 seasons and over the last five campaigns, his units cumulatively rank first in the entire league.

Harbaugh was chosen as the league's special teams coach of the year in 2001 by a vote of his peers. In addition, two of his assistants, Dave Toub (Chicago) and Ted Daisher (Oakland), have gone on to earn special teams coordinator jobs in the NFL in recent years.

In 2005, the Eagles were one of four teams to be ranked in the top ten in both kickoff and punt coverage. Reno Mahe led the NFL with 12.8 punt return average and long snapper Mike Bartrum earned his first Pro Bowl bid.

"I've said time and time again that John is the best in the business at what he does and the statistics back it up," said head coach Andy Reid, who gave Harbaugh a lucrative three-year contract extension in 2004. "He spends so much time and effort preparing his guys each and every week. Special teams are such an integral part of this game today."

Under Harbaugh's guidance, David Akers progressed from a street free agent pick-up in 1999 to a three-time Pro Bowl selection and one of the league's most reliable kickers. Punter Dirk Johnson, also a street free agent signing, recorded the two best net punting averages (38.4 in 2005, 37.4 in 2004) in team history.

Over the last seven years, Harbaugh's units have produced 15 NFC special teams player of the week honorees: Akers (7), Brian Mitchell (3), Sean Landeta (2), Brian Westbrook (1), Jevon Kearse (1), and Allen Rossum (1). In addition, Akers earned NFC Special Teams player of the month honors in November, 2000.

Originally hired by Ray Rhodes on February 18, 1998, Harbaugh was one of just four assistant coaches to be retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Harbaugh began his coaching career in 1984 at Western Michigan. Three years later, he joined the University of Pittsburgh staff, serving under Mike Gottfried (now a college football analyst for ESPN).

After a one-year stint at Morehead State, Harbaugh worked eight seasons (1989-96) as an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati. Harbaugh then joined Cam Cameron's Indiana staff for the 1997 campaign as defensive backs and special teams coach.

The versatile Harbaugh coached on both sides of the ball throughout his collegiate coaching career and became the assistant head coach at Cincinnati.

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire life. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran and won the 2002 Division I-AA National Championship as head coach of Western Kentucky. In 2003, Jack was hired as Associate AD at Marquette where he oversees community affairs and public relations. John's younger brother, lim, a former NFL quarterback, is the head coach at the University of San Diego, and his brother-in-law, Tom Crean, is Marquette's head basketball coach.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back. He went on to earn his master's degree in physical education from Western Michigan.

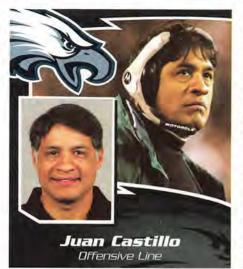

John and his wife, Ingrid, reside in suburban Philadelphia, with their daughter, Alison (5).

Juan Castillo is in his 12th season with the Eagles and his ninth as the club's offensive line coach. Under his tutelage, three lineman earned their first Pro Bowl selections: Tra Thomas, Jermane Mayberry, and Jon Runyan. In fact, Thomas and Mayberry earned starting roles for the NFC squad in 2002. That year, his troops gave up just 36 sacks, the least allowed by the club since 1982 (31). In 2004, the Eagles offense ranked in the NFL's top ten in both yards per game and points scored.

Castillo, 46 (born 10/8/59) is proud to be one of four coaches in the National Football League of Hispanic descent. In fact, Castillo is fluent in Spanish and has done work for the NFL in promoting the game for its Spanish-speaking audience. In 2002, Castillo and his wife were special invitees of President Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

"A lot of people laughed at me when I said I wanted to coach in the NFL," Castillo said. "You have to have a dream, and then you have to have a plan, and you have to stick to the plan ... I just want Hispanic people to know that anything is possible. People tell me they look at me and see: That guy's just like us. Our first language was Spanish. I'm just like a lot of people out there who are Hispanic and they're wondering if there's something better out there for them. It's a big deal for them to see that."

Castillo was one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by head coach Andy Reid in 1999. He originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach.

Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) caught the eye of Rhodes, During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen. including future NFL players Mayberry, Jorge Diaz, Kevin Dogins, and Earl Dotson. In that span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for Tampa Bay (1994), Seattle (1993), and Buffalo (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&I and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

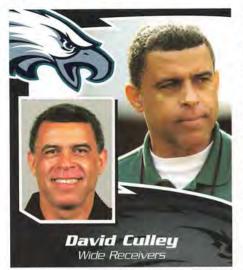

To this day, Castillo is inspired by his late mother, Juanita, who worked around the clock to support her family after her husband died while Juan was just 12 years old. "She's something special. I learned about work ethic from my mom. I always worked hard and wanted to do better so I could give something back to her."

A native of Port Isabel, TX, Juan and his wife, Zaida, have four sons, Gregory, John, Andres, and Antonio.

A veteran of 28 years in the coaching profession, David Culley joined the Eagles as the club's wide receivers coach on January 19, 1999.

The 50-year old Culley came to the Eagles after a three-year stint as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season. In all, Culley has been to the playoffs seven times in his last nine seasons as an assistant coach, including five appearances

A native of Sparta, TN, Culley was recruited by Bill Parcells as a quarterback at Vanderbilt University. Culley broke into the coaching ranks in 1978 when he oversaw the running backs at Austin Peay University. He next returned to his alma mater to coach the Commodores receivers from 1979-81.

Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a four-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana, where he tutored Brian Mitchell. Under Culley's direction, Mitchell became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 5,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/running backs/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the SWC from 1991-93.

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers single-season record, 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Culley graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, Carolyn, have a son, Monty (9/5/74), and daughter, Jessie (10/17/90).

With 34 years of experience tutoring quality defensive lines on the collegiate level, Pete Jenkins was added to the Eagles coaching staff on January 30, 2006. For the 64-year old Jenkins, it is his first NFL coaching stint. Jenkins had retired to Santa Rosa Beach, FL, in 2002 after a second tour of duty as the defensive line coach at LSU.

Throughout his career, Jenkins has coached 17 All-SEC performers and over 30 linemen who have gone on to play in the NFL, including Leonard Marshall, Henry Thomas, Kendrick Allen, Marcus Spears and Jarvis Green at LSU, David Galloway at Florida, Kevin Henry at Mississippi State, and Leonardo Carson at Auburn. In fact, 12 of his defensive lineman were active on NFL rosters in 1992.

Eagles offensive line coach Juan Castillo, who often visited Jenkins during his tenure at LSU, learned many of his coaching techniques from him. "I thought I was a pretty good line coach 'til I met him," said Castillo. "What a coach. That's where it all started for me as far as being a teacher. Coach Jenkins is an excellent teacher and fundamentals are so important for him."

Jenkins' second stint with LSU was highlighted with an SEC Championship in 2001, as the team went 10-3 and earned a Sugar Bowl victory over Illinois. In all, Jenkins has been a part of five SEC Championship squads (four with LSU in 1984, 1986, 1988 and 2001 and one with Auburn in 1997).

Jenkins originally broke into the college ranks as the defensive coordinator for Troy State in 1968 when Troy won the NAIA national championship. He then moved to South Carolina for four seasons and Southern Mississippi for three years before embarking on one-year stops at Oklahoma State and Florida. Jenkins arrived at LSU in 1980 and spent ten years there serving as a defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. He then worked four years at Mississippi State and five at Auburn before rejoining LSU under head coach Nick Saban.

Following his graduation from Western Carolina in 1964, Jenkins spent the next seven years coaching on the high school level at Warner-Robbins in Georgia (1964-65), Columbus Baker in Georgia (1965-67), and Phenix City in Alabama (1967-68).

Jenkins hosts an annual summer camp for high school linemen at Nicholls State and at Stephen F. Austin.

Pete and his wife, Donna, have two children, Jennifer and Jeff. He was born on 8/27/41 in Macon, Ga.

Now is his eighth season with the Eagles, Sean McDermott is the club's secondary/safeties coach. Prior to that, McDermott served as the Eagles defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, working with the linebacker position.

McDermott played a significant role in having both starting safeties earn Pro Bowl berths for the first time in team history in 2004 as Brian Dawkins and Michael Lewis played at all-star levels. One year later, Dawkins returned to Hawaii with his fifth Pro Bowl selection. In addition, McDermott has helped establish the career of rookie free agent Quintin Mikell, who has carved out a productive role on special teams and as a reserve defensive back.

McDermott originally joined the Eagles in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator, a position he held until being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

From 1994-1997, McDermott was a safety at the College of William and Mary, earning all-conference honors in 1997, Academic all-conference honors in 1996 and 1997, and NSCA Strength and Conditioning All-America accolades. In 1998, he was the recipient of the prestigious Benjamin Ewell Award for his tremendous leadership and excellence on campus and in the community.

In the spring of 1998, McDermott began his coaching career at William and Mary as the defensive backs coach and then as the school's outside linebackers coach that fall.

A 1993 graduate of LaSalle HS, McDermott was named All-Southeastern Pennsylvania at defensive back in 1992. An all-around athlete, he was also a national prep school wrestling champion in his junior and senior year and lettered twice in track.

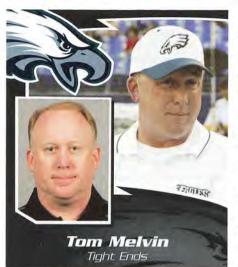

In 2005, McDermott was named to the Philadelphia Daily News All-Catholic league team for players participating in the past 30 seasons.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, the 32-year old McDermott earned bachelor degrees in both business finance and marketing while at William and Mary. He enjoys exercising, playing golf and is an active member of the Church. His brother, Tim, serves as the Eagles senior director of marketing.

In 1983, Tom Melvin was an offensive lineman at San Francisco State University. His position coach that year was a fellow just two years his senior by the name of Andy Reid.

Today, Melvin is in his eighth season as a member of the Eagles offensive coaching staff and his fifth as the club's tight ends coach. He served his first three seasons as the team's offensive assistant/quality control coach.

Melvin has played a key role in the development of tight end L.J. Smith, a 2nd round draft choice in 2003, who has hauled in 134 passes and 10 TDs (including playoffs) over his first three NFL campaigns.

The 44-year old Melvin joined the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, Melvin led the Tigers to a school-record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards en route to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his tenure at Occidental, Melvin served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Cal-Santa Barbara. At UCSB, Melvin orchestrated the nation's fifth ranked offense in 1989 while coaching five All-America selections.

Following his playing career at San Francisco State, Melvin went on to begin his coaching career as a graduate assistant at that school, serving on the same staff with Reid. He then moved on to Northern Arizona, where he tutored TE Shawn Collins, a first-round draft choice of Atlanta in 1989.

Born October 1, 1961 in Redwood City, CA, Melvin attended Cubberley HS in Palo Alto. Today, he holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from San Francisco State and a master's degree in educational administration from Northern Arizona.

Mike Reed is in his fourth season as the club's defensive assistant/quality control coach. In this role, Reed's primary duties are breaking down game tapes and tendencies of the offense of upcoming opponents, coordinating the offensive scout team during practice, and assisting linebackers coach Steve Spagnuolo with that position group.

Reed joined the Eagles on February 25, 2003, after a three-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Richmond, where he tutored wide receivers from 2000-01 and defensive backs in 2002.

In 2002, Reed served in the minority coaching intern program with the Eagles during training camp. Shuey was a defensive back and running back for semi-pro football teams in Pittsburgh in 1996-98 and in the Lehigh Valley from 1999-2000.

The 41-year old Shurmur is in his fifth season as the Eagles quarterbacks coach and his eighth as member of Andy Reid's staff.

In this role, he has helped Donovan McNabb earn three of his five Pro Bowl berths. In 2004. McNabb turned in the most productive season of his career, establishing franchise records in OB rating (104.7), completion pct. (64.0), and passing yards (3,875). In fact, McNabb became the only quarterback in NFL history to have a season with 30-plus TD passes (31) and fewer than 10 interceptions (8).

In 2002, Shurmur earned praise for his poise displayed after McNabb and Koy Detmer went down with injuries late in the season. Down to little-used A.J. Feeley, who had not started since his junior year at Oregon, the Eagles went 4-1 down the stretch. Feeley, a 5th round draft choice in 2001, was traded to Miami in 2004 for a 2nd round pick in 2005.

His first three seasons in Philadelphia were spent as the Eagles tight ends coach, helping develop three-time Pro Bowler Chad Lewis.

An All-Big Ten conference center and team captain at Michigan State, Shurmur joined Andy Reid's staff in Philadelphia in 1999 after an 11-year stint as a college assistant.

Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford as an offensive line coach in charge of the centers and guards. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal offensive line allowed the fewest sacks per pass attempt in the PAC 10 and, in the process, helped first-year quarterback Todd Husak become the third quarterback in Stanford history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.

Prior to his tenure at Stanford, Shurmur spent nine seasons at Michigan State instructing the tight ends, special teams, and offensive line. Under his guidance, MSU developed three tight ends that went on to the NFL: Tv Hallock, Duane Young, and Mitch Lyons. In addition, Shurmur helped Derrick Mason establish a school record with 2,575 career kickoff return yards.

Shurmur himself was a four-year letter winner at Michigan State, earning All-Big Ten conference and honorable mention All-America honors in 1987. That same year, Shurmur co-captained a Spartans squad that defeated USC in the Rose Bowl. A solid student as well, he earned his MBA in financial administration. As such, the Dearborn Heights, MI, native became the first graduate student to play at MSU.

After signing as a rookie free agent with Green Bay in 1988, Shurmur was released during training camp and subsequently began his coaching career, becoming a graduate assistant with the Spartans that fall.

A product of Divine Child High School in Dearborn, Pat comes from a football family. His uncle, the late Fritz Shurmur, served as the Green Bay Packers defensive coordinator from 1994-98 and helped that club win two NFC championships and one Super Bowl title.

Born 4/14/65, Pat and his wife, Jennifer (a former swimmer at Michigan State), have four children, daughters Allyson (14), Erica (12) and Claire (3), and son Kyle (9).

Ted Williams is in his 12th season with the Eagles and his 10th in the role of running backs coach. His first two years with the club were spent overseeing the club's tight ends. He was one of four members of Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Williams has earned praise for his work with Brian Westbrook, one of the league's most dynamic weapons as a running back and as a receiver out of the backfield. Westbrook was the only NFL player to accumulate 700 yards in both rushing and receiving in 2004 and, in 2005, led the Eagles in both rushing yards and receptions.

In 2003, Williams played a vital role as the Eagles employed a three-headed monster at running back (Correll Buckhalter, Duce Staley, and Westbrook).

As running backs coach, Williams tutored a 1,000-yard rusher four times, including three by Staley, Williams scouted Staley at the University of South Carolina and recommended that the Eagles make him their third-round draft pick in

Prior to joining the Eagles, Williams coached at the University of Arizona, Washington State, and on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, where he developed All-America linebackers Ken Norton, Ir. and Carnell Lake, as well as a number of heralded running backs.

A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a master's degree, a second undergraduate major in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State-Los Angeles in 1968.

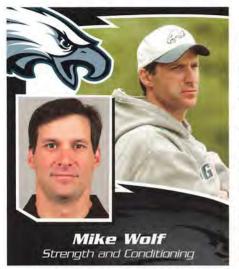

After serving more than a decade as a coach, teacher, and athletic director at Compton (CA) High, Williams was named head coach at Los Angeles City College in 1980, but a short time later joined the UCLA staff.

Born in Lyons, TX, (11/17/43) the 62-year old Williams and his wife, Theresa, have three sons, Darryl (36), Donald (19), and Daniel (10), and a daughter, Terri (34).

Known as one of the top athletic trainers in the National Football League, Rick Burkholder is in his eighth season in Philadelphia.

"I think Rick is well rounded," said head coach Andy Reid. "He gives you the feeling that it wouldn't matter what position he had in the organization, that he could come in and do a good job with it. It just happens to be that he's the head athletic trainer. Plus, he has youth on his side. There is no question he's one of the best trainers in the NFL. He has the respect of the players, the medical staff and the coaches and that's a hard triangle to grab and develop a trustworthy relationship with."

The director of one of the finest athletic training staffs in professional sports, the 42-year old Burkholder (born 3/14/64) is well known for his expertise in his rehabilitation programs.

Burkholder's aggressive rehabilitation program with Terrell Owens in 2004 allowed the star receiver to return from a surgically-repaired ankle in 7 weeks to play in Super Bowl 39.

He also spearheaded Duce Staley's complicated rehab program in 2001 that allowed him to return to the field after suffering a severe Lis Franc sprain in his foot, an injury that has ended the careers of several NFL players. The process went so well, Burkholder has since been published and has spoken nationally on the Lis Franc injury and its rehab process.

In addition, Burkholder also designed a remarkable rehab program for Steelers CB Rod Woodson in 1995. Woodson suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on opening day, but returned in just 4 and a half months after surgery to play in Super Bowl 30 (The normal recovery process for that injury is 9-12 months).

Also, Burkholder has been very proactive in sports medicine, emphasizing programs that prevent and combat dehydration, asthma, and lower back injuries. Rick has been instrumental in injury prevention as well by modifying the team's stretching program and instituting a torso-strengthening program known as "back school."

Burkholder was named to his current post on February 9, 1999. He joined the Eagles after spending six seasons as an assistant athletic trainer with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Prior to joining the Steelers staff in 1993, the Carlisle, PA, native spent two seasons as an assistant football trainer at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh. A 1987 Pitt grad, Burkholder went on to earn his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and another as an assistant athletic trainer.

Burkholder is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society, and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society where he is the committee chair for internal education for the society's foundation. He also serves on the NFL's mild traumatic brain injury committee.

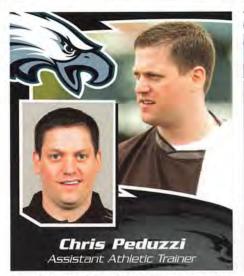

Burkholder first gained NFL experience serving as a summer intern with the New England Patriots training staff in 1986. He was influenced by his father, Richard, a long-time athletic trainer at Carlisle HS, and his mother, Nancy, a registered nurse.

In 2003, Burkholder and his father were named distinguished alumni of Carlisle High School.

A three-time Pro Bowler and one of the NFL's most reliable kickers over the last six years, David Akers ranks first on the club's all-time list with 155 field goals and second in points (687). In addition, he ranks 6th in league history with 82% accuracy on field goals. "The thing that's unique about David is his special combination of power and accuracy," said Eagles special teams coordinator John Harbaugh. "He's an elite kicker and someday may go down as the best left-footed kicker ever." Akers is definitely the "rags to riches" story of the Eagles roster, having landed on the waiver wire three times before settling into his current position in Philadelphia. A former waiter and substitute teacher, Akers spent his first season with the Eagles as a long field goal and kickoff specialist behind veteran Norm Johnson. Akers inked a contract extension on 11/7/05 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2010.

DAVID'S LOCKER AT C.H.O.P.

A frequent visitor to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Akers took his involvement one step further as he partnered with Children's Pepto in January of 2000. At that time, he accepted a check for $30,000 from Children's Pepto that will be used for the new David's Locker Program at the hospital.

David's Locker will assist families with their needs while their child is being treated at the hospital. In addition to the monetary donation, US Airways donated travel vouchers to be used to fly children and their families to CHOP for treatment. Akers also presented a check from a 2005 fund-raiser to The Little Rock Resource Center for the blind and visually impaired also located at the hospital.

BIRDSEED:

• During the offseason, Akers trains in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and Shaolin Kempo under the guidance of Allan Manganello at the Shaolin Kempo Jiu-Jitsu Academy in Louisville. Said Akers, "The martial arts influence is the part where you don't think about [the kick]. You've trained yourself so much to where you go and just do it. Same thing in a fight. You prepare for that one instance where someone is coming at you, and you're not trying to think."

The Eagles first round draft choice in 2004, Shawn Andrews rebounded from a fractured fibula in his right leg during his rookie season to become a dominating force at right guard in 2005. "He's a mauler, a road grader," said Fox Sports analyst Bill Maas. "Once he gets his hands and body on you, it's over." Andrews quickly earned a starting role after an eyepopping performance during the 2004 preseason and one-year later was voted as an alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad, Eagles Pro Bowl LB Jeremiah Trotter recounts a training camp collision with Andrews, "I ran into him full speed and the only thing that moved was his neck, just a little shrug. Man, I was hurting for days after that hit and he didn't even budge! ... He could be the next Larry Allen." Andrews inked a seven-year contract extension on 6/12/06, that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2015.

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "I try to stay away from the clichés, but blood, sweat, and tears are the main ingredients of being an offensive lineman. You have to be a beast down in there. We are that protective shield that makes all the difference between winning and losing."

On what it's like in the trenches: "It's a lot of grunting, a lot of snorting, a lot of calls amongst the offensive line. We're all like one when we're down in the trenches because we have to let each other know what's going on. If there's one weak link in the line then that could cost us a sack."

Favorite O-lineman: Willie Roaf, "We actually had the same coach in high school, Marion Glover, Roaf is an amazing story, how a 225-pound high school kid can turn into an All-Pro offensive lineman."

Sure-Handed Shawn: Was an accomplished tight end as a sophomore and junior in high school, catching several TD passes. "I was 315 pounds and was the quarterback's favorite receiver."

Career Games Played/Started: (Eagles 2004-05); 2004 (1/1), 2005 (16/16); Total: (17/17). Playoff Games Played/Started: 2004 (0/0); Total: (0/0).

BIRDSEED:

- Surprised his mother with a Mercedes Benz E500 once he signed with the team. Remodeled his mother's home in Camden, AR. "She loves where she lives so I just fixed the place up."
- Left school early to help his mother, Linda, who was laid off when the International Paper Company in Camden, Ark., was closed down. Said Shawn, "I just couldn't stand to see her struggle, wondering if this bill was going to get paid or if the lights were going to get cut off."
- Upon signing his rookie contract he purchased his first home in Burlington, NJ. "The first thing I did when I moved in was jump up and down on my bed. I was so excited. I was never allowed to jump on the bed when I was little. That was mostly because when I was 12, I jumped off a piano bench onto my grandma's bed and the thing almost went through the floor."
- His older brother, Stacy, an offensive lineman from Mississippi, was a 4th round draft choice of Cincinnati in 2004. Their teams faced each other once in college in 2003 and once in the pros in 2004

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

 Started all 16 games at RG in 2005 and was voted as an alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad

A BIG BOY WITH A BIG VOICE

Andrews has always been a musical person, but since he entered the NFL he has been taking his music more seriously. The first thing he did was begin taking voice lessons in Philadelphia with his voice coach Rod Millwood. Then he outfitted his house with a mini-recording studio where he can mix and record his own music.

Shawn's music interests are wide-ranging:
Top 40 - Kelly Clarkson, A Moment Like This Country - Shania Twain, You're Still The One
Motown - Otis Redding, On The Dock Of The Bay
Rap - Dem Franchise Boyz, Lean with it, Rock with it Reggae - Red Rat, Which Gal?

R&B - Nevo, So Sick

Southern Blues - Tyrone Davis, Sugar Daddy

- Was named to Fox Sports analyst Daryl Johnston's "2005 All Lunch Pail Team," a tribute to the bluecollar worker who leaves the house every morning with his lunch pail to do an honest day's work
- Started the 2004 season-opener (9/12 vs. NYG) at RG, but suffered a fractured fibula in his right leg in in that game
- Eagles traded a 1st and 2nd round pick (28th and 58th overall) to the 49ers in order to move up to the #16 pick to select Andrews. Was the 2nd offensive lineman selected in 2004 (Robert Gallery, 2nd overall by Oakland)

PERSONAL:

- Resides in Camden, AR, and Burlington, NJ. Has one daughter, Jashawna (8/15/04)
- Attended Camden Fairview HS, earning 1st-team All-America honors. Also threw the shot put and discus
- Donated $5,000 worth of Christmas toys to deserving children in the Philadelphia area in 2005. "The best Christmas gift I've ever gotten was the ability to give gifts to others. When I was growing up I didn't have great Christmases. It makes me happy now that I'm in a position to make a difference."
- Vacationed in the 2006 offseason in San Diego.
 After visiting Sea World in San Diego, fell in love with penguins and plans to purchase two as pets
- As a freshman in 2001, played in Arkansas' historic 58-56, 7-OT win vs. Mississippi, as the team boasted three individual 100-yard rushing efforts and 521 yards of total offense against the Rebels
- Was a member of the Fayetteville (AR) Community Outreach program, working with mental health patients and was featured during the NFL Draft in a public service announcement

JUST A REALLY BIG KID

If you knew what Shawn Andrews endured while growing up in Camden, Arkansas, you would be even happier that he ended up a first round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in 2004. The product of a loving home, Shawn's family lived by humble means in a down-trodden neighborhood. Perhaps that's why he has a soft spot in his heart for underprivileged kids.

"I remember when I was a kid," recalled Andrews, "the kids were really tough on me. They used to have a 'tag check' day where the kids would check the labels in each other's clothes to see who wore the cheapest stuff. We didn't have a lot of money and I got teased a lot. Being a 5-foot-9, 230-pound 12-yearold didn't help that either. It was rough."

Andrews remains a big kid who enjoys life to the fullest. There is nothing more evident of this than the shrine he built in his basement to "Sponge Bob Square Pants." The shrine is complete with every kind of Sponge Bob paraphernalia you could imagine: a couch throw, a camper chair, a bubble gum machine, stuffed animals and numerous DVDs.

"I like how Sponge Bob handles life," said Andrews.
"He gets picked on all the time, but he's still happy.
He doesn't get angry with people; he just goes through life with a smile on his face. Sometimes he gets scared, but he always makes it through. That's how I approach life."

- His brother, Derrick, is a staff sergeant first class in the U.S. Army who served in Iraq in 2003. He is currently stationed in Aberdeen, MD
- Has 5 tattoos, 2 of which signify how close he and his family are. The first is a cross on his left forearm with the names of his family members (Linda, Derrick, Stacy and Shawn) at each corner. The other is the phrase "God Bless Miss Linda" with angel's wings on each side, dedicated to his mom

A play-making and cerebral linebacker, Shawn Barber is in his second stint with the Eagles after signing a one-year contract on 3/8/o6. Barber spent the past three seasons in Kansas City after a successful one-year stop in Philadelphia in 2002, when he posted 119 tackles, 2 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries in Jim Johnson's defense. He played in Washington from 1998-2001 after being a 4th round draft choice of the Redskins.

BIRDSEED:

 Although he wore #59 in Washington and Kansas City, and had wanted that number in his first tour of duty in Philadelphia, he chose to wear #56 for the 2006 season since his parents had #56 Eagles jerseys from 2002 when he wore that number. "It's weird," said Shawn. "They had a yard sale and sold a lot of things but for some reason they decided to hang on to the Eagles jerseys"

HE LIVES IN A FANTASY WORLD

Shawn Barber's team, the Cash Money Brothers, is the defending Virginia Fantasy Football League Champion, and has won the VAFL title in 3 of the 4 seasons he has participated. He joined the league in 2002, which started in 2000.

The VAFL is a 12-team league made up of some of Shawn's former high school teammates. The trophy awarded to the winner is called the "Titus Cutler Trophy" named after a former teammate who had passed away. The trophy, which adds a nameplate each year to acknowledge the former winners, sits on the mantle at his parent's home in Richmond.

"They thought I was too busy during football season to compete," said Shawn who tends to his fantasy business Monday through Wednesday.

The program targets athletes in 9th and 10th grade at Hermitage HS to prepare them for their futures in both athletics and academics.

"We were all late bloomers," said Barber referring to himself and the Sharpers. "Fortunately we challenged each other on the field and in the classroom. We found that today, some kids had lost their way early, before their bodies developed. This program helps keep those kids focused so if or when they are approached by colleges about scholarship opportunities, they are up to par academically."

THUTTE

Philadelphia Eagles

Position: Tight End/Long Snapper Height, Weight: 6-4, 245 Born: 6/23/70 in Gallipolis. OH

College: Marshall

High School: Meigs, Pomeroy, OH NFL Experience: 13th (7th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: UFA (NE) 2000 Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Kansas City in 1993

A serious knee injury to Marshall's promising sophomore quarterback in 1990 came with a silver lining for Mike Bartrum. That injury propelled him to learn the art of long snapping and later embark on a successful 12-year career in the NFL. To this day, Bartrum still thanks Greg Briner, Marshall's offensive coordinator at the time, for prodding the young, rehabbing QB to learn this new job. "It's crazy," said Bartrum. "Twelve years of just snapping the ball between my legs." The humble but valuable Bartrum continues to perfect his role in his 7th season in Philadelphia as the club's long snapper and reserve TE. Bartrum earned NFC Pro Bowl honors for his craft following the 2005 season. In his 12 NFL campaigns, his teams have made the playoffs 10 times. A rookie free agent signee of Kansas City in 1993, he joined the Eagles in 2000.

RIRNSFFN:

- Earned a degree in elementary and special education at Marshall and taught special education classes at Louisburg (KS) Elementary School in the offseason from 1995-99 and 2006. Also taught at Louisburg HS in 1995 after being placed on IR by Green Bay
- Had the chance to meet with actor, Matthew McConaughey, and the majority of the cast of the upcoming movie "We Are Marshall" at the annual Marshall Spring Football Game. The movie, which is scheduled to premiere on October 27th, 2006, is based on a true story revolving around the 1970 plane crash that claimed the lives of 75 members of the Marshall football team and coaching staff. "It was great meeting with those guys," said Bartrum. "It represents a piece of history that I'm glad to be a part of. Being involved with the Marshall family, I'm glad the story is being told the way that it is."
- David Akers on Bartrum's consistency as a long snapper: "He's a prized possession for us. I would love to be able to play with him for the rest of my career. He's so consistent in what he does. It's not the fastest [snap]; it's just a nice, catchable ball for our holder. Same thing for our punters. It's a flat ball. It's a tight spiral. Mike doesn't have bad snaps. He doesn't. He's great."
- Is the manager of his sons' little league baseball team, the Rutland Reds. Ironically enough, it is the same team Bartrum played for when he was a kid

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Known as one of the league's best long snappers, has played in 160 regular season games and 17 postseason contests with the Eagles, Chiefs, Packers, and Patriots, while logging 76 career special teams tackles
- In his 12 NFL seasons, his teams have made the playoffs 10 times
- Has 11 career receptions, 6 of which have been for TDs. Only one other player in NFL history (Patriots LB Mike Vrabel) has as many TDs with less than 15 career receptions (6 TDs on 6 recepts.)
- Named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad as the team's long snapper and a reserve tight end, following the 2005 season
- A member of USA Today's All-Joe team and Fox Sports analyst Daryl Johnston's All Lunch Pail Team in 2005
- His 2 TD receptions in 2005 were a career high

ONE OF THE GOOD GUYS

Established the Mike Bartrum Foundation which generates money to benefit the athletic department of his alma mater, Meigs HS, in Pomeroy, OH, and the local Boys and Girls Club.

"When I was in high school there was one universal machine in the auditorium for students to workout with," said Bartrum. "Now there's an entire weight room. That's not too common in these parts."

Every spring, Bartrum teams with fellow Marshall alum and current New England Patriot, Troy Brown, to host the Bartrum-Brown Football Camp. The weekend-long event, held at Spring Valley HS in Huntington, WV, consists of a golf tournament and a football clinic for area kids.

Bartrum's most recent charitable endeavor is founding New Horizon's Childhood Enrichment Center, a place for younger children to attend nursery school in a Christian environment. Bartrum works with parents as being teachers on better ways to educate and foster their children while his wife and sister-inlaw will teach at the school.

"I was an education major at Marshall and I love kids," said Bartrum. "I am so excited for this challenge and am looking forward to helping children and parents enrich their lives."

- Hauled in a game-winning 3-yd. TD pass from QB Mike McMahon in the 4th quarter at StL. (12/18/05)
- Played in his 150th NFL game vs. SD (10/23/05)
- Caught a crucial 3-yard TD pass from QB Donovan McNabb in the 3rd qtr. as part of an Eagle comeback victory at KC (10/2/05). The TD grab set up a 2-point conversion from McNabb to RB Brian Westbrook to tie the game at 24. The Eagles would go on to win the game, 37-31
- Due to a hamstring injury to David Akers, Bartrum assumed kickoff duties in the 2nd qtr. vs. SF (9/18/05) and a week later vs. Oak. (9/25) when Akers was again injured on the opening kickoff
- Posted career highs in recepts. (3) and receiving yds. (27) vs. Cin. (1/2/05). His receiving yardage was only 5 yds. shy of his career total (32) that he accumulated in his previous 143 NFL games
- Notched the 4th TD of his career on a 1-yd. pass from Donovan McNabb at Det. (9/26/04). Hauled in another reception for a career-long 17 yds.
- In 2002, was named the league's best long snapper in a vote of NFL special teams coaches for NFL Insider magazine.
- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team and USA Today Sports Weekly's all-NFL squad in 2002

- His first three career receptions were all TDs. His first two were both 1-yd. TDs from Drew Bledsoe against the Ravens (10/9/99 and 1/2/99). His third was a 4 yarder from Donovan McNabb vs. Min. (11/11/01)
- After spending the 1993 season with KC, was released by the Chiefs on 8/23/94 and spent the remainder of the season out of football. Was signed by GB on 1/20/95. After spending 1995 with the Packers, was traded to New England along with DE Walter Scott on 8/25/96 for past considerations
- While with the Packers in 1995, was tutored by then tight ends coach Andy Reid. The following season appeared in Super Bowl XXXI vs. the Packers as a member of the Patriots

PERSONAL:

- Mike and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, Taylor Katherine (11/16/05), and three sons, Cody (8/25/98), Zachary (6/14/00) and Ty (10/14/03), and reside in Pomeroy, OH
- Attended Meigs HS in Pomeroy, OH, where he lettered in football, baseball, and basketball. Passed for 1,900 yards and 24 TDs as a quarterback during his junior and senior seasons
- · Idolized Julius "Dr. J." Erving growing up
- · Full name: Michael Weldon Bartrum

COLLEGE:

Was a two-year starter and three-year letterman (1989, 1991-92) at Marshall. Totalled 109 career receptions for 1,187 yards (10.9 avg.) and 10 TDs. Earned consensus All-Southern Conference honors as a senior when he caught 62 passes for 680 yds. and 9 TDs, guiding Marshall to a Division I-AA national title. Missed the entire 1990 season with a knee injury suffered in spring practice. Redshirted as a freshman in 1988. Lettered in baseball as a relief pitcher in 1991.

HOME ON THE RANGE

A self-proclaimed "country boy," Bartrum and his family reside on their farm in his hometown of Pomeroy, OH. The Bartrum's country farmhouse, complete with a beautiful wrap-around porch reminiscent of the Waltons', lies on 119 acres of land. A 30-acre pasture, a 30-acre hayfield and almost 60 acres of hunting land comprise the property.

"When my kids are old enough to participate in 4H, we'll stock the farm with sheep and steer," said Bartrum. "My wife, Jennifer, was in 4H when she was younger and it's a great way to teach the kids about responsibility and hard work."

Bartrum even uses his land to train during the offseason, "I love to run the hills. I get out there with my sons, Cody and Zach. When I get hot and take my shirt off, they get a kick out of it and do it too."

The Eagles 2005 second round draft pick from Georgia, Reggie Brown broke onto the scene in his first NFL campaign, setting the team record for most receptions by a rookie wide receiver with 43. Despite being a full-time starter for just the final nine games of the season, he led all NFL rookies with 571 receiving yards. Along the way, Brown rapidly earned the respect of his quarterback. "With the ball in his hands, Reggie is a guy who can make a couple of guys miss," said Donovan McNabb. "He can turn a six-yard route into a play that can go the distance."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Led all NFL rookie WRs in 2005 in rec. yds. (571), and ranked 2nd in recepts. (43) and 3rd in receiving TDs (4). A first-team All-Rookie honoree by Ourlads'

HEY, DAD! WATCH OUT FOR THAT TREE!

When Reggie Brown was growing up, all he heard from his father, Gilbert, was how hard he worked out when he was younger. How he used to train for football by running through the woods and dodge trees to simulate making cuts on the football field. Well, Reggie never picked up tree dodging as a part of his conditioning program, but he did pick up his father's work ethic.

"I've always been obsessed with working out," said Brown. "I always felt the extra work would do nothing but make me better."

As a rookie, many took notice of Brown's work ethic. Even after the long days of training camp, Brown was always on the field after practice catching passes, often by himself from the JUGS machine.

"When I work out, I work out hard," said Brown. "That's why I like working out alone. There are no distractions."

This offseason, Brown made it a point during the team's offseason conditioning program, to come in early, before his scheduled workouts, and fine-tune areas that he felt he needed to improve on.

- After being named the full-time starter at Was. (11/6/05), led the team in recepts. (34), rec. yds. (463) and rec. TDs (4), over the final 9 games of the season
- Posted a career-high 7 recepts. (77 yds.) vs. Was. (1/1/06). Also became the first Eagles rookie to catch 2 TD passes in a game since Fred Barnett at Phx. (12/29/90)
- Earned Diet Pepsi NFL rookie of the week honors for his 5-94-1TD performance at Was. (11/6). The TD (a career-long 56-yd. reception from Donovan McNabb) was his first as a pro
- Made the first start of his NFL career vs. Oak. (9/25)
 PERSONAL:
- Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ. Has a daughter, Nevaeh (heaven backwards) Alexis (3). Lives with his girlfriend Megaen. The two met while attending Georgia
- Posted 62 receptions for 1,046 yards and 10 TDs as a senior at Carrollton (GA) HS, earning All-America and Atlanta Journal-Constitution player of the year honors. Also earned All-America and Georgia player of the year honors as a junior in 1998, leading the team to the Class AA State Championship. During his four-year career, his high school compiled a 50-6 record

FAMILY MATTERS

During his freshman year at Georgia, Brown's father, Gilbert, was diagnosed with having a brain tumor. Eventually, Gilbert had to undergo surgery to remove the tumor and was later forced to retire from his career in construction.

"It was a rough time for my family," said Brown. "Sometimes he couldn't remember my name. My mother (Bobbie Jean) was always calm and composed through it all. I've never seen her breakdown. She was really strong. And the way he pulled through it is probably the reason that I am in the NFL right now. It made me work so much harder, so that we could all have a better life."

After Brown signed his rookie contract he surprised his parents by paying off the mortgage on their house. Bobbie Jean, who worked at a local sewing mill for years, now works at a Target in Carrollton.

"She really does it to get out of the house," said Brown. "If she stayed home, my dad would talk her ear off. People say he and I are too much alike. He's silly like me."

- Also lettered in basketball and track. Set the state's high school long jump record of 24'9"
- Spends his free time watching anime cartoon movies. His recent favorites include "Trigun" and "Rurouni Kenshin."
- In high school, had two part-time jobs. He worked one summer at a law firm as a courier and another summer at a museum as a security guard
- His cousin, Jamie Henderson, is a former defensive back with the Jets and Georgia, and was a major reason Brown chose Georgia over Ohio State
- Earned his degree in child and family development.
 Was planning on becoming a guidance counselor or a coach, had football not worked out for him
- Was the keynote speaker at Eagle Youth Partnership's 2006 Top Achiever's award ceremony which honors local high school football players who have excelled in the classroom

COLLEGE:

A two-year starter, caught 144 career passes for 2,008 yds. and 12 TDs, becoming only the 5th player in school history to surpass the 2,000-yd. plateau. As a senior, earned first-team All-SEC honors as he led the team with 53 catches for 860 yds. (16.2 avg) and 6 TDs. His 49 catches as a junior also led the team. Suffered a torn ACL in 2001 and received a medical redshirt. Hauled in 13 passes for 143 yds. and a TD as a true freshman.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

On the football field at the University of Georgia was not the only place Bulldog fans could see Reggle Brown. He was also patrolling the Georgia campus on his Fuji road bicycle at all times of the day. Entering his junior year, Brown had saved up $600 in order to purchase a means of transportation and eventually, a new hobby.

"I got the bike because I didn't have a car," said Brown. "Then I just started to like going for rides. Some people had cars; I had my bike."

Brown liked riding so much that when he was home in Carrollton, GA, he would join a group of riders from the Perpetual Motion bicycle shop for 25 and 50 mile rides.

One of the most consistent players on defense, Sheldon Brown has proven to be a versatile cornerback during his first two full seasons as a starter. Making plays in both the pass game and in the run game, he led the Eagles with four interceptions in 2005 and was one of three NFL players to record a touchdown via a fumble return and via an interception return. "I want to be smash mouth," said Brown of his desired style of play. "I don't want to have a uniform without grass stains on it at the end of the day. I want to be sore and come in for treatment the next day." Brown, a 2nd round draft choice in 2002, has also earned the respect of his head coach, Andy Reid, "Sheldon is one of my favorites. He is not the biggest guy or the most gifted guy, but he is going to be the toughest guy on the field and he's a great competitor." Brown signed a lucrative, six-year contract extension in 2004 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2012.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

Sheldon Brown is just one of those guys who seems to always be looking out for everybody else. If you watch him in practice, he's always tutoring the rookies. Off the field he's a star for the Eagles in the community, he's even pictured prominently on the side of the Eagles Bookmobile. So it's no surprise he makes sure to take care of the people closest to him.

In the 2005 offseason, Sheldon surprised his mother with a brand new home in Rock Hill, SC. The four-bed-room home was a gift to his parents, whom he feels he owes so much to. He even filled their garage for them with a Mercedes Benz C240.

"I always wanted to buy my mother the perfect home. She has done so much for me in my life and she truly deserves every bit of it."

The recent gift giving is not a first for Sheldon. Upon signing his rookie contract, he paid off his parents' bills and set his mother up so she would never have to work another day in her life. Brown also put a deposit down on a house for his sister. He even had his grandmother's roof repaired. He also helped his mother-in-laws purchase a new home.

BIRDSEED:

- The best man at his wedding was his college teammate and current Miami Dolphins CB Andre Goodman. Brown and Goodman are currently working on building a Boys Home in South Carolina. "A lot of kids have it rough growing up and my heart goes out to them. We want to give them a place they can go, be happy and learn about life. That's what we're trying to accomplish with this."
- Draws inspiration from his grandmother who is now fully recovered from a stroke she suffered in the 2005 offseason. "When it happened, they told us to expect the worst. Her one wish was to be there for the birth of her great grandson, and I'm so glad I gave that to her. She fought right through it and now she's doing so much better. Her strength gives me the inspiration to do what I do."
- Was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Edelstein Memorial Award, which is given to the Eagles player with an uplifting manner, a love for life, and an exceptional sense of humor who makes all with whom he comes in contact with feel good
- Hosts his own radio show, "Outside the Huddle w/ Sheldon Brown" every Monday night during the season on WIRED 96.5 FM in Philadelphia

SETTING UP HIS FUTURE

Sheldon Brown has said in the past that some day down the road, when he is done playing professional football, that he'd love to return to his alma mater, Lewisville (SC) High School, and become the school's head football coach. In the past year, Brown has already renovated the team's weight room, maybe in preparation for his coaching career.

"I think I'd be a great coach because I know how to reach out to kids," said Brown. "They can look at me as somebody who has already been down the road and I know what it takes to reach your goals. That holds weight with kids."

The weight room is the best of all Class A schools in South Carolina. Sheldon's NFL, college, and high school jerseys all hang in the hall outside of the weightroom as a tribute to his support.

Most people don't realize that or believe it. Even other players. He also taught me about dealing with the media during the good times and bad."

A 7th round draft choice in 2004, Adrien Clarke gained valuable game experience during the 2005 season with four starts at left guard. He spent his rookie season on Injured Reserve with a torn hamstring. Clarke was a four-year starter at Ohio State and a key member of their 2002 National Championship squad.

BIRDSEED:

 As a senior in high school, worked on bike patrol for the local police department. He would ride on his mountain bike, citing people for not wearing a helmet or not having a license on their bike. "Being a big guy, it was great exercise for me, plus I really enjoyed it. I made some money, but I went through 3 bikes and countless tires."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

 Started in 4 games at LG due to injuries along the offensive line in 2005.

IN THE TRENCHES

On the lack of publicity O-linemen receive: "A lot of us just don't have flamboyant personalities. We just come in and do our jobs while everyone else gets the recognition. It's a job that's not for the weak of heart. It's hard core and tough nosed."

Favorite O-lineman: Jermane Mayberry. "J is a guy who goes out there day in and day out and works, busting his tail, whether he's hurt or not. He's the exact opposite of how many people perceive professional athletes to be."

On what it takes to be an offensive lineman: "It's not about finesse. It's definitely not for the weak of heart. You have to be nasty, a hard worker, and come in wanting to hit people, pounding it out each and every play. Determination and discipline are two key words in describing an offensive lineman. Every play counts, you can't slip up, so you need to stay disciplined and be determined every play to shut down your opponent."

Clarke's Winning Ways: Clarke's teams compiled a 36-9 record (.800) in high school, 40-11 (.784) in college, and 21-14 (.600) in the pros.

Clarke's love for cooking began growing up in Cleveland, where he started cooking at a young age. His mother, Antoinette, would ask him to help prepare meals for people at The Freedom Covenant Center, where both of his parents were ministers.

Impressing the Eagles coaching staff from day one of minicamp, Sean Considine, a 4th round draft pick in 2005, possesses good football knowledge as well as a knack for finding the ball. But the former walk-on at lowa had his rookie season cut short after a shoulder injury landed him on the Injured Reserve list following the team's 9th game.

BIRDSEED:

- · Last name pronounced CON-sih-dine
- Grew up in Byron, IL, an extremely small town with a total population of 2,400. There were two things in Byron that drove the town, a nuclear power plant and the farming industry. "It was just like the town the Simpsons lived in, Springfield. It even had the two big towers from the nuclear plant like it did."

PERSEVERENCE PAYS OFF

As a senior at Byron (IL) HS, Considine was considered one of the school's top athletes on one of the state's best football teams. It seemed like everyone knew who he was except college football coaches.

"It was weird," said Considine. "My dad was a Division I football player in college, and he knew that I'd be able to compete at that level, but nobody was calling. I thought his alma mater, Northern Illinois, was going to offer me, but when I visited they wanted me to walk-on."

After that visit to UNI, Sean and his father started to scramble and look for a college where he could play. They sent out highlight films and made calls. All of a sudden lowa invited him to walk-on.

"The way I looked at it," said Considine, "if I was going to walk-on anywhere, why not at a Big Ten school like lowa. They had a new coach, and were just looking for dedicated guys who would buy into what they were coaching. I could do that."

After redshirting his freshman year at lowa, he caught the eye of his coaches and later earned that elusive scholarship. A hard-worker on the field, in the weight room and in the classroom, he finally earned a starting role at safety as a junior.

"I really tried to get the most out of my time in the weight room," said Considine. "It was a way for me to set myself apart with the coaches."

Although he could have been satisfied with how far he had come since his senior year at Byron, he wasn't. He heard rumblings as a junior at lowa that he may have a shot at the NFL. But, staying realistic and focused, he began preparing to enter the workforce and put his marketing degree to use. As a senior, he excelled on the field and NFL teams came knocking.

"Within the span of five months I went from looking for a job, to preparing for a career in the NFL," said Considine. "It happened so fast, it's crazy."

 A self-described "quiet guy from the country," developed an extremely competitive nature early on, competing with his friends in everything from sports to academics to fishing and hunting. "We lived in a small town and it seemed like all my friends were not only good at sports, but they were good in school. I would never say anything about it, but I was very competitive with them on and off the field. School was not really for me, but I did well because I was just so competitive."

• His parents, Rick and Colleen Considine, are a great story of hard work and dedication to family. At the age of 19, the two were married and Colleen later gave birth to their first son, Sean. At the same time, Rick was attending Northern Illinois on a football scholarship. Not wanting to live apart from his wife and son, who were staying with Colleen's mother nearly 45 minutes from UNI, Rick made the trek back and forth every day while also tending to his studies. Now, two more children and 23 years later, Rick is the VP of sales for Lawson Products, an international industrial parts and services supplier, and Colleen is a homemaker tending to her hardworking family

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Played in 6 games on special teams while learning both safety positions and made 8 special teams tackles
- Played in his first NFL game at KC (10/2/05) and recorded 2 special teams tackles

- · Also lettered in basketball and baseball
- Holds a degree in marketing and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors four times
- Enjoys fishing and hunting (deer, rabbit, pheasant, & wild turkey)
- · Full name: Sean Richard Considine

COLLEGE:

After walking on at Iowa, Considine parlayed his hard work ethic and determination into not only a scholarship, but a fine career that culminated in All-Big Ten honors as a senior. In his four-year career, registered 157 tackles, 6 INTs (2 for scores) and 5 blocked kicks, 4 of which led to TDs. As a senior, earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after making 48 tackles, 3 INTs, and a blocked kick. PRO BOWL

To understand this five-time Pro Bowl safety, just take a look on the top shelf of his locker. There you will find multiple figurines of his favorite comic book hero, Wolverine, some of which have been provided by his fans. Wolverine is the low-key leader of the X-Men, a comic book action series, an animated cartoon and a main character in three full-length feature films. Wolverine is known for his animal-keen senses that allow him to track his adversaries with great ease, very much like Brian Dawkins hunts down opposing ball carriers and receivers. The Eagles 2nd round draft choice in 1996 landed a starting role in the 2nd game of his rookie season and has averaged 94 tackles per year, while posting 28 interceptions - most by any player with their current team - and countless train-wreck hits. Dawkins is one of four players in NFL history to post 28 INTs and 17 sacks, joining Leroy Butler, Rodney Harrison, and Ronde Barber.

BIRDSEED:

- Earned NFC defensive POW honors after being the first player in NFL history to record a sack, an INT, FR, and TD reception in a single game vs. Hou.
 (9/29/02). It was the first time a fake punt was converted into a TD by the Eagles since 1988 (Terry Hoage). He victimized Texans QB David Carr for the defensive trio of events before taking a pitch from Brian Mitchell on the fake punt and racing 57 yds.
 for his 4th career TD
- Has a disciplined diet but mixes in some of his favorite cereal, Fruity Pebbles, when he can. He also enjoys watching Nickelodeon with his son, Brian, and daughter, Brionni, even though they have started moving away from cartoons
- Wrote Philadelphia Daily News columnist Rich Hofmann, "The truth is that this guy isn't just a player but a ferocious state of mind ... the very manifestation of rage ... no free safety hits like Dawkins hits, not in today's NFL."
- Said CB Lito Sheppard comparing Dawkins to Wolverine. "Dawk really is like Wolverine to us. He is to our secondary what Wolverine is to the X-Men. We feed off his rage and aggressiveness."
- In 2005, Paul Zimmerman of Sports Illustrated, named Dawkins as one of 17 active players who are sure to be headed to the Hall of Fame following retirement. Was also named to The Sporting News "Top 100 NFL Players"

SOMEBODY CALL WEBSTER'S

free-lance safe-ty (FREE-lans SAFE-tee) n. a football player who is strong enough to defend the run and fast enough to cover wide receivers; must possess ability to blitz, defend the pass, and tackle in the open field; must be accounted for by the offense, otherwise he can determine the outcome of the game.

Many players are credited with redefining a position for the way they play on the field. Dawkins has done just that, and has in turn, come up with a new name for his position. While many strong safeties can play up on the line vs. the run and cover the pass, free safeties are often left to play centerfield and react to the ball. Dawkins has excelled at both and therefore can not be limited to either existing definition.

- Dawkins on why he plays football: "I'm playing this game because I'm blessed and want to help this team win the Super Bowl. At the same time, I want to be considered the best safety that has ever played the game. It's not the young guys here that are pushing me. It's the fact that I have been able to play a certain way a certain period of time, and I still haven't reached where I want to be."
- Named the hardest hitter in the NFL by The Sporting News in 2004
- Named the best "blitzer to complement the rush of the front four" in Sports Illustrated's NFL Preview (9/1/03) wrote Zimmerman. "You've got to have speed and a killer instinct, because if you're crafty enough and time your blitz just right, you might have a free shot at the passer. Lawyer Milloy excels in this area, but Dawkins is the master"
- Said former Cowboys Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson: "Brian Dawkins is the best safety in the league, bar none. He has been consistent each and every time I've seen him play. He does all the little things that help his team win."
- Dawkins and his family visited the Marvel Comics headquarters in New York City in 2002 to meet with Adam Kubert and Danny Miki, the artists who draw the X-Men comics. While there, he was presented with Kubert's rendering of Dawkins as Wolverine.

STRICTLY BUSINESS

After training with ultimate fighting champion Tim "Obake" Catalfo, in his former offseason home of Jacksonville, Dawkins had to find a new workout partner when he moved further south to the central part of the state in 2005. Former teammate Levon Kirkland put him in touch with Jeff Higuera and the results have transformed Dawkins into a stronger, more flexible, weapon for Eagles defensive coordinator Jim Johnson to deploy.

Incorporating the unorthodox methods that Obake taught him, such as control and certain breathing techniques, Higuera provided Dawkins with a regimen that focused on kinetic training by working two muscle groups at the same time. This balance and stabilizing technique built his core and strengthened his hips and groin.

That regiment along with his reliance on Ann Fredericks (a.k.a. "The Stretch Lady") resulted in fewer injuries and a quicker recovery time between games for Dawkins.

"I have felt a tremendous difference," said Dawkins.
"While we work on strength, we also work the core and do cardiovascular work. That has helped me stay strong, be more flexible and have greater endurance.
I don't get those nagging groin injuries that I've had in the past. Before working with Jeff, that was a weakness for me and you're only as strong as your weakest link."

During the week, Dawkins walks the Eagles locker room as a humble, mild mannered, God-fearing man. But on game day he transforms into one of the most fierce and energetic creatures ever to occupy a secondary. What's the secret?

"My man Peduzzi hooks me up," explains Dawkins. "When he puts that Breathe Right on my nose, I just become the idiot man!"

Chris Peduzzi, one of the Eagles athletic trainers, prepares that Breathe Right strip before Dawkins even gets to the stadium. He colors the strip with a midnight green marker on one half and a silver paint pen on the other. Although he is not a superstitious man, Dawkins is very particular about the application of the strip as the silver side must be on the left side of his nose.

Once the strip has been applied Dawkins has one more ritual. He drinks his "Idiot Juice," a pinch of Vitamin B-12.

8 IS ENOUGH

College: Colorado

High School: Mission. San Antonio. TX NFL Experience: 10th (10th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: 07a-97 (207th

The son of a renowned Texas high school football coach, Koy Detmer brings a special element to the Eagles equation. With a unique sense of humor, toughness, and his unassuming athletic ability, Koy is a perennial locker room favorite. A 7th round draft choice in 1997, he earned his role as the Eagles back-up QB in an unorthodox manner. He went from the Injured Reserve list as a rookie, to being a five-game starter in 1998 and then back to the 3rd quarterback role in 1999, before taking over his current job in 2000. Detmer is an important component of the special teams as the holder on all FGs and PATs. He signed a four-year contract on 2/26/03.

RIRDSFFD:

- Trained actor Ryan Kwanten, the star of "American Brown," a movie produced by Eagles owner Christina Lurie. The movie was about a West Texas QB and his relationship with a priest in New York. Kwanten spent a few days at a football camp run by Koy's father, Sonny. Koy taught Kwanten, who had never thrown a football before the movie, the proper mechanics of throwing
- Travels to road games with the clothes on his back, his playbook and a toothbrush. In fact, goes to Target each summer to get a new travel ensemble that he wears on each trip. Koy bragged, "I can get an entire outfit for under 100 bucks."
- Is the younger brother of former Eagle QB Ty Detmer. Joined Ty in becoming the 1st pair of brothers to each start an NFL game at QB

Position: Center/Guard Height, Weight: 6-2, 300 Born: 9/21/77 in Gaithersburg, MD

College: Robert Morris

High School: Gaithersburg, Gaithersburg, MD NFL Experience: 7th (7th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Waivers (Pit) 2000 Originally joined NFL: Signed as a rookie free agent by Pittsburgh in 2000

The anchor of the Eagles offensive line since 2001, Hank Fraley climbed a steep ladder to find himself at the current rung of his career. An undrafted free agent, Fraley stepped in for injured center Bubba Miller at the end of the 2001 preseason and has not looked back. It's no accident Fraley has progressed this much as a player. He works hard, studies hard, and stays late, watching hours of film with the quarterbacks. Fraley used that blue-collar attitude plus a feisty style of play, to earn a lucrative five-year contract extension in 2002. A non-scholarship player at Division I-AA Robert Morris in Pittsburgh, PA, Fraley signed as a rookie free agent with the Steelers in 2000, but was released and claimed off waivers by the Eagles on 8/28/00. Fraley is returning from a season-ending torn rotator cuff injury suffered in the team's 8th game in 2005.

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-Lineman: "It's just somebody who's nasty, plays to the whistle and has a lot of heart."

Favorite O-Lineman: Russ Grimm (Washington Redskins 1981-1991). "He was so tough and so physical. I just loved the type of player he was and the way he played the game."

What A Find In Fraley: An undersized lineman out of high school, Hank was not heavily recruited and became a non-scholarship player at Division I-AA Robert Morris in Pittsburgh, PA. Recalled long-time Gaithersburg HS coach John Harvill, "Hank worked his tail off. He would work all summer. What a great young man. He was so coachable. Hank did everything anyone ever asked him to do."

Career Games Played/Started: (Eagles 2000-05); 2000 (0/0), 2001 (16/15), 2002 (16/16), 2003 (16/16), 2004 (16/16), 2005 (8/8); Total: (72/71). Playoff Games Played/Started: 2000 (0/0), 2001 (3/3), 2002 (2/2), 2003 (2/2), 2004 (3/3); Total: (10/10).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Hank was nicknamed "Honey Buns," by fellow lineman William Thomas. When Fraley joined his teammates for the 2001 team picture, a bee would not leave Fraley alone and his teammates figured he was just too sweet. When Charlie Pizzl, president of Tastykake, a local snack cake company, learned of Fraley's nickname he sent him a case of Tastykake's Honey Buns. Fraley in turn asked for a case to be sent to his brother, David, who was serving in Iraq at the time.

A fourth round draft pick in 2005, Todd Herremans saw valuable action starting for injured left tackle William Thomas during the preseason and in four regular season games. Playing both left and right tackle in college, Herremans earned Division II All-America honors at Saginaw Valley State.

BIRDSEED:

- Herremans on his first part-time job at a pickle factory: "First job I ever had was at the Swanson Pickle Company. Mainly I did general maintenance, carpentry, electric work, that kind of thing. You might ask if I ate all the pickles, but they weren't pickles yet. At the factory they were cucumbers, and I ate my fair share of cucumbers."
- Aspires to become an actor one day and enjoys going to live theatre. Was a member of the drama club in high school and played the lead role in the play, "Tom Jones," during his junior year

- Credits the lack of a scholarship offer from a Division I school as the main reason he's in the NFL today. "I always felt I could play D-I and I used it as motivation for me. I ended up playing with a chip on my shoulder."
- Herremans is one of 5 NFL players from the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference: Eagles teammates LB Dedrick Roper, and DT Keyonta Marshall, Broncos WR David Kircus, and Lions WR Glenn Martinez. Herremans and Martinez attended Saginaw Valley State, while Marshall and Kircus attended Grand Valley State

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- After being inactive for the first 10 games of 2005, started the next 4 games, after William Thomas was placed on IR on 11/25
- Started his first NFL game in place of Thomas vs. GB (11/20/05)

PERSONAL:

- Is the son of Paul and Marilee Herremans. Has 2 older brothers, John and Scott. Paul is the JV football coach (he coached Todd) and baseball coach at Ravenna HS. Marilee, is a 4th grade teacher
- Earned all-state honors in football at Ravenna (MI)
 HS. Also lettered in basketball and track and served as senior class vice president
- Enjoys bass fishing, golfing, and comedy shows
- Grew up watching his two favorite athletes, Emmitt Smith and Michael Jordan
- Donates his money and time to foundations benefiting cancer research and arthritis. Two of his grandparents passed away from cancer
- Majored in exercise science, earning school and conference academic honors

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "The ultimate team player. They never touch the ball or score points or get highlighted on SportsCenter. But no one else is going to get that done unless we do our job."

Favorite O-lineman: Russ Grimm. "I like his style, he was nasty. He wasn't super gifted, but he was relentless on the field. I really enjoy watching his highlight tapes."

Nobody's Perfect: Was one pitch away from firing a perfect game in high school. With two outs in the 7th inning, a fly ball to left field was misplayed and ended his bid for the perfect game. "I had a knuckle ball, but I mostly relied on strictly fastballs."

Career Games Played/Started: (Eagles 2005); 2005 (4/4); Total: (4/4).

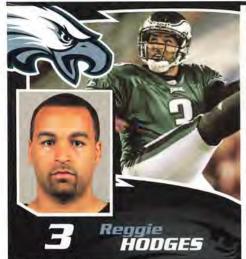

COLLEGE:

Lined up at both left and right tackle during his career at Saginaw Valley State. Earned Division II All-America honors as he started every game at LT in 2004, allowing just 2 sacks. A productive cornerback and valued special teamer since 2003, Roderick Hood has worked very hard to earn his current role on the Eagles roster. Filling in for an injured Lito Sheppard in 2005, he posted career highs with 3 interceptions and 41 tackles. Said fellow cornerback Sheldon Brown, "He could be a starter on any team in this league. He's going to bring a physical mentality to the field and he doesn't mind hitting." A former walk-on at Auburn, Hood knows all about battling the odds. After suffering through an injury-plagued high school career and a coaching change in college that shuffled the depth chart in the defensive backfield, he became one of six rookie free agents to make the Eagles opening day roster in 2003.

PERSEVERANCE PAYS OFF

Standing 5-foot-3 as a sophomore in high school, Hood grew to 5-10 in just one year. However, his high school career was marred by a broken growth plate in his shoulder as a junior and by a broken ankle during his senior season. As a result, he received no scholarship offers from Division I programs. Eventually, he turned down Division I-AA offers to walk-on at Auburn as a wide receiver.

After making a head-turning catch on his first play in practice at Auburn, was reluctantly moved to cornerback, from wide receiver, where he went on to see action as a true freshman. Earned a scholarship as a sophomore, but a coaching change, and a change in position to safety, tainted his college career. He was not invited to the NFL combine or any college all-star games and went undrafted.

BIRDSEED:

- After the success his inaugural football camp held in June of 2005, spent countless hours trying to make this year's camp, for football players from the ages of 8-18, even better. Focusing on leadership, fitness, self-confidence, teamwork, and sportsmanship, he is trying to improve the lives of youth in his hometown of Columbus, GA. Said Hood of the camp, "Each participant is expected to grow as a player, as well as a person, and have a great time doing it." To learn more about the camp, visit RodHoodFootballCamp.com
- The youngest of four children, Hood's older brother, Benjamin, started his own marketing firm, H2. Said Hood, "Besides my dad, there has not been a single greater influence on my football career than my brother. Words can't describe how much he meant to me. He was always there during the rough times, especially when I was hurt back-to-back years in high school"
- Prior to the 2003 NFL draft, moved in with former Carolina Panthers DT Brentson Buckner, a fellow Carver HS alum. "I don't think I would be in the NFL today without Brentson," said Hood, who lived with Buckner at his home in South Carolina. "He taught me about being a pro in the NFL, how to eat right, work out the right way, dealing with the media." Hood knew Buckner through his older brother Benjamin

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Howard is one of the most accomplished defensive ends of this decade, recording 44.5 sacks in the past six seasons with the New Orleans Saints, "He's the full package who can play both the run and the pass very effectively," said head coach Andy Reid of Howard, who was designated with the Saints franchise tag during the previous two offseasons. "He's a proven double-digit sack guy. He can play both outside and inside in pass rush situations, which makes him very valuable. He's a good all around football player." A 2nd round draft choice of the Saints in 2000, Howard was a unanimous allrookie team selection with 11 sacks. He equaled that sack total again in 2004.

Position: Center/Guard Height, Weight: 6-4. 330 Born: 5/8/80 in Miami, FL College: Delaware State

High School: Miami Senior, Miami. FL NFL Experience: 3rd (4th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie

free agent in 2003

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A rookie free agent signee from Delaware State in 2003, Jamaal Jackson made the most of his first playing opportunity in the NFL in 2005. Utilizing his big frame and a strong work ethic, Jackson filled in admirably at center for an injured Hank Fraley for the final eight games of the season. Jackson had spent most of his rookie season on the practice squad and all of 2004 on Injured Reserve with a triceps muscle tear.

BIRDSEED:

 A computer and internet junkee, lists PhiladelphiaEagles.com as his favorite web site. "I go there all the time. It has a lot of multi-media stuff on it and it's very informative with all the video and audio clips. They do a great job."

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "It's all dirty work. It's the least popular part of the game, but at the end of day, it's the most important."

Favorite O-lineman: Jermane Mayberry. "I really admire his character, his demeanor, and the way he carries himself. He is so soft spoken, but is real tough on the field. By talking to him you would never know he plays professional football."

Jackson Of All Trades: Started 45 consecutive games at Delaware State, seeing action at all 5 O-line positions. Also was a back-up long snapper and played defensive line in goal line situations.

Career Games Played/Started: (Eagles 2003-05); 2003 (0/0), 2004 (0/0), 2005 (8/8); Total: (8/8). Playoff Games Played/Started: 2003 (0/0), 2004 (0/0); Total: (0/0).

- Greatly admires the work Eagles offensive line coach Juan Castillo puts in with all of his players.
 "Juan works with the young kids just as much as the starters," said Jackson. "Whether it is before practice or after. He works with us to get better just like the starters."
- Owns a pitbull named Jack, who once dug a hole through his apartment wall. "He was digging a hole to China and almost got there!" His other "claim to fame" is chewing up a 2004 copy of the Eagles media guide.
- Practiced hard during the 2006 offseason to develop a unique motor skill. He can now wiggle his ears

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- After spending the first 8 games of 2005 on the Eagles practice squad, was promoted to the active roster and into the starting lineup on 11/9, the same day starting center Hank Fraley was placed on IR with rotator cuff injury
- Started in his first NFL game vs. Dal. (11/14/05) and remained there for the rest of the season
- Was promoted to the active roster on 1/7/04 after spending the entire 2003 regular season on the practice squad

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in Philadelphia and Miami in the offseason
- Attended Miami (FL) Senior HS and earned all-state honors as a senior at guard
- Also lettered in track and field, participating in the shot put

GROWING UP YOUNG

With his mother, Sadie Smith, unable to work because of severe diabetes, Jackson took jobs as a supermarket clerk and in a recreation center to help support his family in high school. "I got first hand experience paying bills at the age of 17."

Jackson would like to start a foundation one day to help those that are afflicted with diabetes. "There's not enough people who are aware of the severity of this disease. It's a serious disease. It was bad for my mother. At one point, she weighed 60 pounds. She couldn't work. That was rough on all of us."

This past summer, Jackson spoke about diabetes and the impact that it has had on his life at a charity event and fundraiser in Dewey Beach, DE.

- Earned his degree in English in just 3 1/2 years. If not playing football, would have pursued a career in teaching and coaching
- Participated as a judge in 610 WIP's "Rib Safari," a contest designed to find the best ribs in the greater Philadelphia area. Judged the ribs on their taste, sauce, appearance and tenderness of the meat
- · Lists his favorite movie as Napoleon Dynamite

- A self-proclaimed sneaker freak, owns 42 pairs of sneakers, which he purchases online at pickyourshoes.com and niketown.com. His favorite is a pair of retro Air Jordans, which he designed online
- Says his worst part-time job was when he worked at a movie theater and cleaned up after movies, scraping gum and cleaning up popcorn tubs all day. Also worked 10-hour shifts at the wheel weight factory in Smyrna, DE
- Enjoys working with children and has worked with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program
- · Full name: Jamaal J. Jackson

COLLEGE:

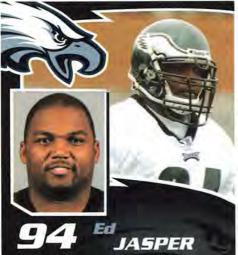

Never missed a game during his collegiate career and set a Delaware State record by starting 45 consecutive games. Started all 12 games as a senior, four at left tackle and the final eight at center. Earned All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference honors at center in 2002. Named MEAC offensive lineman of the week in 41-9 win over Savannah State

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a torn triceps muscle in the second preseason game vs. Bal. (8/20/04) and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 8/23.

Position: Wide Receiver Height, Weight: 6-0. 207 Born: 12/10/80 in Pearl. MS College: Mississippi State High School: Pearl. Pearl. MS

NFL Experience: 2nd (3rd as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie

free agent in 2004

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

An undrafted free agent in 2004, the sure-handed and tough-minded Justin Jenkins looks to return from a season-ending ACL tear suffered during the 2005 preseason. He had spent all of his rookie season on the practice squad.

BIRDSEED:

- Started the Justin Jenkins Foundation to help raise money for the Sweet Rest Church of Christ located in Pearl, MS. The program teaches youth to stay away from drugs and to perform abstinence
- Ranked as highly as a third round draft choice on some draft boards of NFL teams, Jenkins went undrafted and signed with Philadelphia "despite receiving better offers from many other teams. I just had a good feeling about Philadelphia and my chances there."
- Originally recruited to play safety at Mississippi St.
 Convinced coaches to have him line up at WR,
 where he entered the spring 12th on the depth chart

 Overcame a depth perception disorder in his left eye during his junior season which limited his effectiveness. In fact, he wore a contact lens in that eye during the latter part of that year to improve his vision. "It got so bad I was actually hit in the head with a pass during practice that I just couldn't see."

High School: Montrose, Montrose, CO NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle)

Dirk Johnson has been a consistent performer on special teams, pinning 58 of his 190 punts (31%) inside the 20 over the last three seasons in Philadelphia. In addition, his 38.4 net punting average in 2005 was the highest by an Eagle since 1976. Not bad statistics for a player who withstood four trips to the waiver wire since 1998, and preseason battles with veterans Kyle Richardson and Lee Johnson in 2003. This former two-time Division II All-America punter and hard-hitting defensive back has been inspired throughout his career by his older sister, Darcy, who has battled epileptic seizures and cerebral palsy.

BIRDSEED:

 In 2004, named honorary chairperson for the United Cerebral Palsy-Epilepsy Foundation's annual walk

THE SOURCE OF HIS INSPIRATION

Dirk is inspired by his older sister, Darcy, who battled bouts with life-threatening epileptic seizures after being born with a mild case of cerebral palsy. "She's always so positive," said Dirk. "She's had all this stuff go wrong. She's come so far, but she never says anything bad about it. She never lets it get her down. It's crazy, I don't know if I could do that."

In 2003, Darcy underwent a 3-hour surgical procedure in her brain to try to eliminate those seizures. Although she has occasional seizures, she's able to hold a job, live on her own, and limit the amount of medication she has to take.

 During college, he and eight of his teammates earned money by branding cattle at his father's farm in Wyoming. Said Dirk, "We made a little money, but it was more fun than anything. We'd end up branding 800 to 1,000 calfs in a two day span."

- Recorded a career-high 51.5-yd. avg. (4 punts/206 yds.) at Det. (9/26/04)

Nicknamed "The Freak" for his combination of speed, power, and overall athleticism, Jevon Kearse provides that unique extra dimension to the Eagles defense, leading the team in sacks during each of the past two seasons. "I don't even think he understands how much he can take a game over to tell you the truth," said safety Brian Dawkins. "That's a scary thing, when you have a guy with that much talent that can do so many things. He can close on the ball carrier like a DB." One of the most feared defenders in the game, Kearse put his signature on an eight-year contract on the first day of the 2004 free agent signing period after a stellar fiveyear career with Tennesssee. A three-time Pro Bowl selection, Kearse was the 16th overall selection by Growing up in Ft. Myers, FL, wasn't always easy for Kearse. Despite what was going on around him, he had one escape, his local Boys and Girls Club. Now, many years later he makes it a point to help out those who helped him out, as they are a beneficiary of The Jevon Kearse Foundation.

"It was an outlet for me growing up," said Kearse. "It helped me get focused on education and athletics. It showed me how things should be. I want kids to have the same opportunities I had."

The Jevon Kearse Foundation exists to promote positive outreach services to at-risk youth in Southwest Florida. Located in Fort Myers, they provide many services to the surrounding community such as Drug Prevention Programs, Youth Sports Programs, and Educational Opportunities.

Annually hosts The Jevon Kearse Celebrity All-Pro Weekend to benefit the foundation. This past May, the weekend included a dinner and silent auction on Saturday evening followed by a celebrity softball game on Sunday held at City of Palms Park, the Boston Red Sox spring training stadium in Ft. Myers.

Custom Clothing in New York City has worked with a number of high profile athletes such as Kearse, who require custom clothing. "It's great. They hook me up with entire outfits, I don't even have to think. But they have gotten me addicted to accessories. Now all my belts and shoes completely match. I love the Gucci, Ferragamo, Louis Vuitton, all of it."

CAPTAIN KEARSE

After the 2006 football season Jevon Kearse returned to his offseason home in Pompano Beach, FL, and took up a new hobby, boating. A fan of fishing since he was a little boy in Ft. Meyers, FL, he went out and bought himself one heck of a fishing boat. Now when Jevon heads out to find himself dinner on the high seas, he's at the wheel of Act Right, a 41-foot Sea Ray, complete with the Sport Fishing package so he can haul in fish even bigger than the quarterbacks he hunts.

"The first fish I caught on the thing was a dolphin," said Kearse. "But as we were reeling him in, a wahoo tried to make him his dinner. So we pulled both in and got two for the price of one."

- A collector of remote control cars, boats and planes, Jevon currently has about a dozen vehicles. "I started playing with them as a kid and loved it. I would break them so fast that it taught me to cherish what I had. When I got older and had money to spend, I started collecting them. I keep them all at my home in New Jersey because I need something to help me get my mind off of work during the season."
- Nicknamed "The Freak" by teammates while at the University of Florida for his combination of power, quickness and intensity, Kearse is one of the fastest and most athletic defensive ends in football. He clocked a 4.43 in the 40-yard dash at the NFL Scouting Combine in 1999, tying CB Deion Sanders for the fastest first 10 yards of the 40-yard dash in Combine history
- Prior to every game, Kearse can be found saying a prayer for his younger brother, Rocky, who died before Jevon made it to the NFL. He paid homage to his younger sibling by tattooing his name inside of a cross on his left shoulder
- After two weeks of taking out the trash, peeling shrimp, bagging zucchini, cleaning dishes and serving as a prep cook, Kearse decided to quit his high school job at Red Lobster to pursue other career endeavors which he found more entertaining
- Favorite throwback jersey: Wilt Chamberlin, Phila.
 Warriors. "He was a one-man wrecking crew."

A sure-handed receiver and precise route runner, Greg Lewis has shown a great deal of progress during his first three NFL seasons. After making 23 catches in limited action during his first two seasons, he stepped into a starting role in 2005 and posted career highs in receptions (48) and yards (561). Originally signed as a rookie free agent in 2003, Lewis was quick to absorb the West Coast offense even though he did not start as a senior at Illinois. In 2004, he inked a five-year contract extension through 2011. BIRDSEED:

• Along with his cousin, Walter Young (Steelers), and Aaron Moorehead (Colts), the wide receivers will run the 1st Annual Deep Threat Football Camp at Deerfield (IL) High School. Said Lewis of the camp, "The camp will give the kids an idea of what it takes to become a professional athlete. It will show them how much hard work and dedication it takes, as well as the nuances and techniques that they should use in their upcoming seasons"

IT'S YOUR MOVE ... G-LEW

Lewis was not your typical jock as a youngster, in fact, he was on the chess team in junior high as well as in high school. He learned to play from his father and his claim to fame was that he held the number one board in 6th grade for two weeks before he was eventually beaten.

"I want to go play against the old guys in the park with the large boards on top of buckets," said Lewis of his future plans in the world of chess.

Position: Strong Safety Height, Weight: 6-1, 222 Born: 4/29/80 in Houston, TX

College: Colorado

High School: Consolidated, Richmond, TX NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: 02a-02 (58th selection overall)

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

One of the league's most imposing safeties, Michael Lewis patrols the defensive secondary with Brian Dawkins, making the pair the top safety tandem in the NFL. Lewis, whose 402 tackles over the last three years leads all Eagles defenders, is the primary signal caller on defense and earned his first Pro Bowl berth following the 2004 campaign. The team's 2nd round draft choice in 2002, he is a perfect fit in defensive coordinator Jim Johnson's scheme. "He's an ideal strong safety because he's a very physical guy," said Johnson. "He's got the size to hit people and the range to cover. He's a smart kid and a very intense player."

MATTERS OF THE HEART

Having been diagnosed with the heart condition, atrial fibrilation, in college, Michael Lewis has become a spokesperson for the Philadelphia chapter of the American Heart Association. Atrial fibrillation, is a disorder found in about 2.2 million Americans in which the heart's two small upper chambers, the atria, quiver instead of beating effectively.

"When I learned I had atrial fibrilation I was nervous and scared because I knew nothing about it," said Lewis. "I want people to know that heart disease is something that can be treated. You can live a normal life and do everything you dream of as long as you take care of yourself."

In 2005, served as the Honorary Chairperson for the Philadelphia Heart Walk, which took place on September 25. Although Michael was unable to attend the event as the Eagles were playing the Raiders that day, he visited patients in the Heart Failure Unit at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania earlier in the week.

BIRDSEED:

- During week of Super Bowl 39 in Jacksonville, won the annual EA Sports Madden Bowl competition. The tournament featured 8 NFL players and Lewis claimed the top spot by defeating Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger, Colts DE Dwight Freeney (the twotime defending champion), and Bills RB Willis McGahee. Plans to defend his Madden title at the 2007 Madden Bowl, after opting out of last year's contest
- NY Giants RB Tiki Barber on Lewis and FS Brian Dawkins as a dynamic duo: "Lewis is just like Dawkins because he loves to get up in the box and he's not afraid to cover people. Having those two together really makes their defense tough because you can never get a good read on who's doing what back there."

Position: Running Back Height, Weight: 5-10, 212 Born: 6/3/80 in Los Angeles, CA

College: BYU

High School: Brighton. Salt Lake City, UT NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie free agent in 2003

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A shifty running back with great hands, Reno Mahe adds depth to the running back position and is a dependable special teams performer. In 2005, Mahe earned All-Pro honors from Pro Football Weekly as a punt returner, leading the league with a 12.8 yard average. A former wide receiver at BYU, Mahe (pronounced ma-hay) made the Eagles 53-man roster as a rookie free agent running back in 2003 and continues to improve each season with a tremendous work ethic on and off the field.

BIRDSEED:

- Credits his big smile to his mother, Eva, who would always say, "Smile before I smack you!"
- Opened his home in Texas to a family of four who were displaced from Louisiana by Hurricane Katrina
- Is proud of his Tongan heritage. Reno's parents relocated back to Tonga this past year. His father, Sateki, is an auto shop teacher and his mother is a physical education teacher at Liahona HS.

- Credits former Eagle, BYU alum, fellow Tongan and current sports director at Philadelphia's NBC affiliate, Vai Sikahema, with helping him adjust to the NFL. "He's taught me so much as how to attack the game on and off the field. He's told me to relax and not overdo myself."
- Mahe's real first name is Sateki. The football world calls him Reno, his middle name. His family calls him Junior. Reno really doesn't care what you call him as long as it's not Ma-HEE, which translates to underwear in his native Tongan language
- Upon arrival in Philadelphia as a rookie free agent, Mahe, a receiver in college, asked Andy Reid's son, Garrett, who also attended BYU, who the other receivers on the roster were. The younger Reid replied, "You are playing running back here." A stunned Mahe replied, "Oh really. That's great. I'll clean laundry here if I can stay."
- While participating in the team's offseason conditioning program from 2004-06, served as a host at "Chickie's and Pete's" restaurant in South Philadelphia

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Led the NFL in punt return average (12.8) in 2005, becoming just the 3rd Eagle ever to do so. The others were John Sciarra (11.4) in 1979 and Steve Van Buren (15.3) in 1944. Ranked 6th on the special teams units with 107 production points

- Recovered a timely fumble on a kickoff by Chiefs returner Dante Hall in the 4th qtr. at KC (10/2/05).
 The fumble recovery positioned the Eagles on the Chiefs 25-yard line and led to a TD to put the Eagles ahead by 10 with 9:01 left to play
- Notched career highs in recepts. (8) and yds. (62)
 vs. Cin. (1/2/o5). Also had a career-long rush (22 yds.) and career-long recept. (30 yds.)

- One of 6 undrafted rookie free agents to make the Eagles 2003 opening day roster
- Caught 2 passes in 2003, both against the Packers.
 First, a 5 ydr. at GB (11/10/03) on Monday Night Football and the other an 8 ydr. vs. GB (1/11/03) in

The Eagles first round draft choice in 2003, Jerome McDougle has battled a lion's share of adversity during his first three seasons in Philadelphia. After two injury-plagued seasons, McDougle faced an entirely different type of misfortune in 2005, missing the entire season after being shot in the abdomen during a robbery attempt on the eve of the opening day of training camp. He later underwent emergency surgery in October, pushing back his rehabilitation progress even further. McDougle is eager to re-gain the form that prompted the Eagles to trade up 15 spots in the first round of the draft to snag the high-motored defender from the University of Miami.

A FAMILY FOUNDATION

Jerome and his brother, Stockar, have partnered with the Broward County Athletic Association (BCAA) to enhance education through interscholastic sports. Through their own experiences, they have recognized that participation in sports contributes greatly to a student's self-worth, discipline and education.

This foundation will provide annual scholarships, academic camps, SAT prep courses, and educational seminars on student health and welfare, drug abuse, steroids and aids awareness.

Jerome's motivation to help inner city kids also stems from being the victim of a robbery attempt by teenagers in 2005, "If someone would have helped those kids, they may not have resorted to violence."

Along with brother, Stockar, who was drafted in the 1st round (2oth overall) in 2000 by Detroit and later signed with the Dolphins (2005) and Jaguars (2006), became the first brothers to be selected in the first round of the draft since the Rogers brothers – Don, a DB from UCLA drafted by Cleveland in 1982 (18th overall), and Reggie, a DE from Washington selected by Detroit in 1987 (7th overall). Peyton and Eli Manning joined the select club in 2004

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Sacked QB Marc Bulger at StL (12/27/04)
- Drilled QB Eli Manning on a blindside hit for his first career sack, forcing a fumble vs. NYG (9/12/04)
- After missing the first 8 games of 2003 with ankle, knee and hip injuries, returned to play in his first NFL game at GB (11/10/03)
- The Eagles traded their 1st round pick (3oth overall) and a 2nd round pick (62nd overall) to San Diego to move up to the 15th overall slot to draft him
- Became first Eagle selected in the first round from Miami since Jerome Brown in 1987 and in any round since Chris T. Jones in 1995 (3rd round). "It's the next best thing to playing in the NFL," said McDougle of his days at Miami. "You really have to go through it to explain it and understand it."

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in both Philadelphia and Miami in the offseason
- Racked up 80 tackles, 17 sacks and forced 2 fumbles during his senior season at Ely HS
- Ely High School in Pompano Beach, FL, had 4 graduates on NFL rosters at the end of the 2005 season.
 They included: Zack Crockett, Al Harris, Tyrone Carter and Simon

- Idolized Reggie White, John Randle and Warren Sapp as a kid
- Is the youngest of four boys (Stockar, Marcus, and Demetris)
- Earned a degree in criminology and if not for football, would aspire to be a juvenile corrections officer. "I would love to try to help kids get their lives back in order."
- Recruited heavily coming out of high school by several Division I basketball programs, including Kansas and Louisville, but decided to play football
- An avid movie buff, owns an impressive collection of over 5,000 DVDs. His favorite actor of all-time is Clint Eastwood. Enjoys watching classics such as "The Dirty Dozen," "The Good, The Bad and The Ugly," and "Casablanca."

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Sam and Wilma McNabb, "are my biggest fans and also my #1 critics," according to their youngest son Donovan. They raised Donovan, along with an older brother, Sean, in the Chicago suburb Dolton, IL.

Sam, a retired electrical engineer, has provided Donovan with a thoughtful, organized, solid work ethic towards his job. He currently operates a sports information and referral service, Seado Enterprises, to help high school football players prepare for the next stage of their athletic careers. He is also the founder of the NFL Father's Association.

Wilma, a registered nurse, has gained fame appearing as herself in the Campbell's Chunky Soup commercial series. She is also a vice president of the NFL Mother's Association, the executive director of the Donovan McNabb Foundation, and runs McNabb Unlimited, which oversees Donovan's endorsements.

Wilma, who Donovan credits in providing him with a sense of humor and ability to have fun, was told by his coaches growing up that he was always clowning around. Says Wilma, "That's Donovan's way. He wants to have fun. He told me, 'Mom, if I can't have fun doing something, what's the point of doing it."

The Donovan McNabb Foundation

The Donovan McNabb Foundation was established in 2000 in honor of McNabb's close family members who have been diagnosed with diabetes. The foundation raises awareness of diabetes through Donovan's position as the national spokesman for the American Diabetes Association. Donovan started his foundation so that he could help provide awareness and improve the lives of those who suffer from diabetes, as well as the families of those who have diabetes. In 2006, the McNabb's were honored by the ADA for their contribution in the fight against diabetes.

The foundation has also donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to Mt. Carmel HS and Syracuse University. In addition the DMF has supported the American Red Cross, the Children's Crisis Treatment Center, the Philadelphia Free Library, and the Ronald McDonald House.

Position: Safety

Height, Weight: 5-10. 206 Born: 9/16/80 in New Orleans. LA

College: Boise State

High School: Willamette, Eugene, DR NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie

free agent in 2003

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A reserve safety and special teams demon, Quintin Mikell (pronounced MICHAEL) has perfected his role during his first three seasons in Philadelphia. One of six rookie free agents to make the opening day roster in 2003, Mikell has since posted a team-leading 73 tackles on special teams in that span and recorded a clutch blocked field goal in the final seconds of a 2005 win vs. San Diego that fellow DB Matt Ware returned for the game-winning TD. "He's become a premier special teams player," said special teams coordinator John Harbaugh. "He's a guy who does all the technical things exactly right."

BIRDSEED:

Earned his boating license during the 2005 offseason by taking lessons at Safety First Boating School in New Jersey. "I went on a cruise to the Eastern Caribbean with about 24 family members in the offseason and I got hooked on jet skis and boats. I wanted to do it the right way and learn from a professional, so when I got home I took classes."

THE MULTI-TALENTED MIKELL

Quintin Mikell worked pretty hard to get to the NFL in 2003. That work ethic was evident growing up as he worked part-time in vastly different jobs.

"All of my jobs taught me how important it is that when you start something you need to take pride in finishing it," said Mikell.

At the age of 16 he landed his first job as a grill cook at McDonald's in Eugene, OR.

"Working at McDonald's really made me learn that I better go to college and get an education. I liked the people I worked with but I knew flipping burgers wasn't for me."

He turned in his teal polo shirt and paper hat for a spot on an assembly line at a local wood mill when he was 17. His job entailed filling the knots in the wood with putty and smoothing them out. He then applied a glue to the wood and then fed the sheets into a press to seal it.

As a college student, Mikell was a teller at Idaho Independent Bank, his favorite of the three jobs.

"Being a teller really taught me the value of saving my money and investing it the right way. It was fun just because I came across all kinds of people."

- Idolized Eagles FS Brian Dawkins while playing high school and college football. "He is reckless on the field," said Mikell. "He plays so hard. I learned a lot from him. I would just sit back and watch him."
- Said Dawkins of his protege, "Quintin will deliver a blow when he hits you. That's all heart. He's not the biggest guy, but he brings it. He's confident and he has talent. He's going to be a pretty good safety in this league."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named the Eagles 2005 special teams MVP after leading the team in special teams production points (223) and tackles (28)
- Helped win the game vs. SD (10/23/05) for the Eagles by blocking a 40-yd. Nate Kaeding FG attempt with 2:25 remaining in the game. CB Matt Ware scooped up the blocked kick and returned it 65 yds. to put the Eagles ahead 20-17
- Finished 2004 3rd on the team in special teams production pts. (162) and special teams tackles (23)
- Snagged his first career INT as he out-leaped Giants TE Jeremy Shockey on a fade pattern in the corner of the end zone at NYG (11/28/04). The INT saved a TD and changed the momentum of the game
- Forced and recovered a fumble on a kickoff at Cle. (10/24/04)

PERSONAL:

- · Resides in Sicklerville, NJ, in the offfseason
- Caught 77 passes for 1,641 yards and 17 TDs as a senior at Willamette HS. Earned all-league and allstate honors with 7 INTs in 1997. Also lettered in basketball and track
- Moved 3 times growing up. His father, a Sony VP/General Manager, was transferred to new jobs within the organization. Was born in New Orleans, moved to Indiana and then to Eugene, OR
- Vacationed in Costa Rica, Belize and Panama during the 2006 offseason
- Participated in NFL 101, a workshop for female fans, and taught women the proper technique to use when playing safety
- Wants to pursue a coaching career when his playing days are over
- A huge fan of "Dragon Ball Z," a Japanese cartoon series that airs on the Cartoon Network. "I made fun of my friend at first for watching it," said Mikell.
 "Then I sat down and watched it, and got hooked."
- Lists his favorites as Braveheart (movie), Crazy by Gnarls Barkley (song), Aqua Teen Hunger Force (tv show), I Heard You Paint Houses (book), and "respect all, fear no one" (saying)
- Earned his degree in communications by completing online courses during the 2005 season

COLLEGE:

Finished his Boise State career ranked second alltime in tackles (401). As a senior earned WAC defensive player of the year honors. In 2002, the two-time, first-team All-WAC selection made 97 tackles, while posting 4 sacks, 5.5 TFLs, 1 INT, 8 FFs and 2 blocked FGS. His FF total tied an NCAA record set by Dwight Freeney in 2001 and now ranks tied for 2nd all-time. As a junior, posted 87 tackles 2 sacks and 2 INTs. Posted 118 tackles in his sophomore season to earn All-Big West Conference defensive POY honors. As a true freshman earned Freshman All-America honors from The Football News and All-Big West honors after making 99 stops, 2 sacks and 2 INTs.

DESIGNER MOVES

As a rookie in the NFL, Ryan Moats made some tremendous plays on the field by combining his raw athletic talent and his extremely creative mind. During the 2006 offseason, Moats combined his creativity with raw talent in another field, graphic design, as he completed a one-week internship with the graphic design department of EA Sports in Orlando, FL.

"I've always been good with computers," said Moats.
"I started really getting into graphic design in college.
I basically taught it to myself, took a couple of classes, and before I knew it I was able to do so many different things with these programs. It's amazing."

While at EA, he worked on specific programs that will be implemented in their upcoming video game, Madden 2007. Moats has plans to implement some of the things he learned in designing his own website, www.RyanMoats.com.

"I want to make everything super-interactive," said Moats. "That's my goal. I want people to go to my website and just be totally involved in everything that's going on. I've got a lot of ideas. We'll see what happens." After his football playing days are over, Moats says he would definitely entertain a career in graphic design. "I love it. I'll do it for free."

A third round draft choice in 2005, speedy Ryan Moats made the most of his opportunities during his rookie campaign, posting a 114-yard rushing effort and a pair of touchdowns vs. NY Giants on 12/11/05. In all, Moats finished with 278 rushing yards and three scores despite playing in only seven games (one start). "He's a guy that does everything full speed," said QB Donovan McNabb. "And that's something you can't coach."

- Made the first start of his NFL career at Arz. (12/24).
- With a career-long 59-yd. TD run on his first carry of the game at StL (12/18/05), recorded his 3rd rushing TD in two weeks and his 2nd 40-plus yd. TD run. Both rushes were the longest and 2nd-longest rushes on the team in 2005. His 59 yarder was the longest run by an Eagles rookie since Herman Hunter (74t) at Dal. - Posted career rushing highs in yards (114), carries (11) and TDs (2) vs. NYG (12/11/05), while becoming the first Eagles rookie to rush for 100-plus yds. since Correll Buckhalter in 2001 (134 vs. Arz., 10/7). - Saw significant action vs. GB (11/27/05) and carried the ball for the first time in his NFL career, rushing for 24 yards on 6 attempts. Also forced and recovered a crucial fumble on special teams in the 4th qtr. The turnover led to a David Akers FG to put the team up by 19-14 with 1:52 left to play
- Appeared in his 1st NFL game vs. SD (10/23/05)

PERSONAL:

• Resides in Cherry Hill with his fiancé, Tamishia. She is currently earning her law degree. Proposed to Tamishia the day before the Eagles first preseason game at Pit. (8/15/05). Moats went on to score a team-high 2 TDs in that game. Said Moats of his fiancé: "She was Miss Black Louisiana and Miss Louisiana Tech. She's a go-getter. I can tell you that. She was a dancer. Her teacher was one of the best in the world. She can do everything from hip-hop to ballet."

YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN DOWN

Ryan Moats has never been one to give in to the majority's opinion. After his freshman year in high school, Moats was diagnosed with a staph infection in his right leg before the beginning of the football season. The prognosis was not good.

"Doctors told me I'd never play football again," said Moats. "That was tough, man. I never believed them though."

After surgery, Moats was forced to stay home from school for his entire sophomore year. He says he got through the year with the help of his family, his teachers and his coach.

"Everyone was so supportive of me," he said. "My teachers and friends would bring me the homework everyday, keep me up to speed. My coach just kept saying, 'Hang in there, man. You'll make it.'"

And make it, he did. After a full year off and months of strenuous rehab, Moats proved everyone wrong when he made his return to the football field as a junior and rushed for over 1,500 yds. and 20 TDs. He later finished his career at Bishop Lynch HS as the school's all-time leading rusher in yards and TDs.

"That experience was a huge source of inspiration for me. It has been my entire life."

- Is the son of Rolinda Moats and Richard Jones. Has two older brothers, Myron and Jason (a former CB at Harding University). His two cousins also are former college football stars, Edward (a CB at Texas Tech) and Brandon (a RB at Texas A&M Commerce). Moats learned to play football with his brothers and cousins in a field behind his grandmother's house in Cliff Oak, TX
- Is an avid guitar player and jams frequently with Eagles TE Stephen Spach. Moats and Spach are in the process of recording songs and have aspirations of one day releasing an album
- Worked at "The Fudgery" throughout high school. Moats and four other friends would stand outside of the fudge store and sing for customers passing by. "We were really good. We tried to harmonize, kind of like Boys II Men."
- Was a judge at the 2006 Miss Philadelphia Pageant.
- Went to Disney World for the first time in the 2006 offseason
- Grew up idolizing Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders. "I know it sounds cliché, but I just loved everything about him. The way he played the game, the kind of person he was, everything. He was just someone I looked up to."

 Ran for 2,646 yards and 33 TDs as a senior at Bishop Lynch HS in Dallas. Finished as the school's all-time leading rusher (4,782 yards and 56 TDs).

Josh and Kelli were so moved by the story that he contacted the family and gave the boy and his father tickets to the up-coming game.

"When I saw the story on TV," said Parry, "all I could think was 'Wow, I really wish I could do something.' I really just wanted to help the kid out. It made me feel good that they were able to go to the game."

- Speaking at the Community Quarterback ceremony in 2004, Parry said, "When my brother was injured playing football several years ago, it was the kindness of volunteers just like each of you that got me and my family through a very difficult time." A technically sound player, Mike Patterson saw significant action during his rookie campaign and led all Eagles defensive linemen with 66 tackles and led all NFL rookie defensive tackles with 3.5 sacks. "He's so explosive," said defensive coordinator Jim Johnson. "And he's going to make plays because he's got great quickness and great pad level." He was a first round draft choice of the Eagles in 2005 after winning backto-back national championships anchoring USC's defensive line.

BIRDSEED:

 Earned the nickname, "Bam-Bam," as a kid because he had an unusual history of breaking things and sometimes hurting himself. "I always used to break glass and things like that. One time I fell out of a two-story window when I was six years old. I broke my shoulder, but I was up creating havoc again soon enough"

THE LOW MAN WINS

Ask Mike Patterson what he thinks when skeptics call him an "undersized" defensive tackle, and he'll look at you with a smile.

"The low man always wins," Patterson proclaims.

An all-state wrestler in high school, Patterson used his stout, solid body to create leverage to pin his opponents. He now uses those same techniques to help him fend off offensive linemen.

"Wrestling taught me how to stay low," Patterson said. "It's the same technique as on the defensive line. You have to stay low and use your hands. I was originally an offensive lineman in high school, but as soon as football coaches saw how aggressive I was when I wrestled, they moved me over to defense."

Patterson's high school wrestling coach made him choose between wrestling and football in his senior year. Patterson obviously chose football.

"I figured I'm going to be out there wrestling anyway, so I might as well kill two birds with one stone."

 After attending a summer football camp in Southern California prior to his freshman year of high school with his cousin, Jorrel Knight, decided to move in with his cousin's family (Aunt L'Tanya and Uncle Freddie, a seargent in the Army) and attend Los Alamitos HS to play football. "The first year was hard, but I was still with family. I never thought about sports when I was up north. Then I started realizing what football could do for me."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Finished the 2005 season ranked tied for 8th among all rookie defenders in sacks (3.5). Ranked t-3rd among all rookie defensive linemen and led all DTs

COLLEGE:

A dominant presence in the middle of the defensive line, he helped USC win back-to-back National Championships in 2003 and 2004. NBC Sports football analyst Pat Haden had a unique way to describe his style of play, "Mike Patterson is like hair in the sink. He just kind of clogs things up." A three-year starter for the two-time National Champions, posted 146 tackles, 21.5 sacks, 46 stops for a loss, 4 FFs, and a school record 13 FRs. Teamed with Shaun Cody (2nd round pick of the Lions in 2005) to give USC the top tackle tandem in college football. A product of George Washington High School in Philadelphia, Bruce Perry was a 7th round draft choice of the Eagles in 2004. After spending his entire rookie season on Injured Reserve, he was a member of the Eagles practice squad in 2005 before suiting up for the final two regular season games as a productive running back and kick returner.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made the first start of his NFL career and recorded career highs in atts. (15) and yds. (70), while also gaining 83 yds. on 4 kickoff returns vs. Was. (1/1/06)
- Appeared in his first NFL game at Arz. (12/24/05) and was the Eagles featured kick returner. Had a 49yd. return on the first play of the game and finished the day with 6 returns for 190 yds. (31.7 avg.)

A BLUE-COLLAR BACK

Bruce Perry knows a little bit about the "hard-nosed, no-nonsense" mentality of the Philadelphia fans. He lives by it. The oldest of five children, Bruce grew up in the heart of Philly and was raised by his mother, a detective in the city's district attorney's office, and his father, a Philadelphia fireman. Bruce says his parents taught him the importance of going to work each day and getting the job done.

"I know the mindset of this city," said Perry. "This is a blue-collar town and I had a blue-collar upbringing. I come here each day ready to go, punch the clock, and get it done."

And that's exactly what Bruce does on the football field. At 5-10, 200, Bruce says people have always underestimated him as being too small. He used that as motivation at Maryland, where he would religiously run sprints up Byrd Stadium's steps with teammate, and current Raiders RB, Lamont Jordan at 2:00am.

"I feel like if I'm given the opportunity I can do it all," said Perry. "People usually think, well you're a small back, so you can't run between the tackles. That makes me want to do the exact opposite. I want to get the dirty yards. I want to hit people in the mouth with the ball in my hands. I try and be a warrior out there."

 Originally made the 53-man roster, but was released on 9/4/05 to make room for RB Lamar Gordon. Was signed to the practice squad on 9/5 and remained there for the first 14 games of 2005

- Is the oldest of five children (2 brothers, 2 sisters)
- Has aspirations to work in the television industry, both in front of and behind the camera
- Would like someday to attend culinary school so that he may become a chef. His best dish is salmon

His first purchase was "The Matrix" but his favorite is "Scarface." Just purchased a 60-inch HD TV to watch all of his movies. "The funny part about it is I love TVs. I just don't like watching television. It's basically just for the movies"
- Became an avid bowler in the 2006 offseason and even joined a bowling league in New Brunswick, NJ.
 "I just love it. My brother has always bowled and in January I just picked it up. I have three different personal bowling balls now. I'm pretty good too"
- Wants to be a coach when he is done playing football
- Has been a staple on the Eagles offseason charity basketball team since 2005

A speedy receiver with toughness and durability, Todd Pinkston is a big-play target in the Eagles offense. He is eager for his return to the field in 2006 after a torn Achilles tendon injury suffered in training camp last summer sidelined him for the entire season. A 2nd round pick in 2000, Pinkston has averaged 15.3 yards per catch during his five-year NFL career. In fact, of all NFL wide receivers with 70 catches since 2003, only Ashley Lelie has a better yard per catch average (18.7) than Pinkston's 17.4. After a grueling training camp as a rookie, when veteran corners Troy Vincent, Bobby Taylor, and Al Harris pounded on him rep after rep, he worked hard to develop into a productive starting receiver. Pinkston, in turn, earned himself a six-year contract extension in 2003 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2008.

BIRDSEED:

 His father, Roy, was a middle school football and basketball coach and now coaches basketball at Forest HS. Inspired by his father, he would like to one day follow his footsteps and become a football coach at the high school level. His mother recently retired from her job at Raytheon, a defense company, after 27 years on the job

 Was honored as Mississippi's 2004 Professional Athlete of the Year during the 43rd Annual Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Awards Banquet presented by The Jackson Touchdown Club. "It means a lot," said Pinkston. "It's not only about what I am doing now but where I am from."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Since entering the league in 2000, Pinkston's 184 receptions rank 8th among those who maintain a 15.3-or-higher yards per catch average
- Ranks 2nd on the Eagles postseason receiving vardage list (433) and 3rd in receptions (32)
- Had 5 catches of 50 yds.-or-more in 2004. His 18.8 yds. per reception led all NFC receivers, and trailed only Denver's Ashley Lelie (20.1) and Pittsburgh's Plaxico Buress (19.9)
- Went 4-82 receiving in SB 39 vs. NE (2/6/05)
- Posted 3-99 receiving #'s, including a career-long 80-yd. pass from McNabb at Was. (12/12/04)
- Caught 5 passes for 106 yds. vs. Was. (11/21/04)
- Hauled in a TD on a 59-yd. bomb as he plucked the ball from CB Jacques Reeves at Dal. (11/15/04)
- Snagged 6 passes for 100 yds. at Cle. (10/24/04) including a 65-yd. bomb from McNabb on the game's 1st play from scrimmage, which led to a TD on the next play. Along with Terrell Owens' 109 receiving yds., it was the first time two Eagles posted 100-yd. receiving efforts in the same game since Calvin Williams (5-108-2TDs) and Fred Barnett (5-102-1TD) on 9/20/92
- Led the team in receiving yds. (575) and yds. per catch (16.0) in 2003
- Notched 7 catches (5 for 1st downs) for 95 yds. and 1 TD in the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. GB (1/11/04). His TD tied the game late in the 4th qtr.
- Posted 273 receiving yds. during the final 3 games of 2003, most by an Eagle in a 3-game stretch since Irving Fryar's 318 in 1997
- Hauled in 5 catches for career-high 121 yds. vs. SF (12/21/03), eclipsing the 100-yd. plateau for the 1st time in his career. His TD with 1:02 remaining in the 4th qtr. sent the game into OT
- Snagged a 59-yd. bomb from McNabb at Mia. (12/15/03) on the 1st play from scrimmage that set up a 21-yd. TD run by Brian Westbrook

HAND-FISH COORDINATION

When home in Chickasha, enjoys a nice day of catfishing with his friends. To Rayburn, that entails quite a different method to capture the fish, a technique called "noodlin".

"It's basically fishing by hand," said Rayburn. "It's a rush when you swim down and try to catch them like this. We've caught some catfish that were between 50 and 60 pounds."

Along the Washita River, he and his friends wade into the water along the banks and search for catfish holes. Catfish typically lay along the bottom of the river, buroughed into holes where they wait for their prey. Wearing leather gloves, which come halfway up their forearms, they swim down to the catfish holes and reach into them. While their hands are in the hole the catfish usually try to bite down on their hands thinking they are food. When they do, they grab the fish and pull them from their holes to the shore.

A fourth round selection from South Florida in 2004, J.R. Reed worked hard to earn a roster spot as a back-up safety and as the primary kickoff return man. However, a freak accident during the 2005 offseason left Reed with damage to the peroneal nerve affecting the use of his lower leg and foot, forcing him to miss the entire 2005 season. He returned to the field for the first Eagles mini-camp of the 2006 offseason and is eyeing a spot on the Eagles active roster this season.

BIRDSEED:

 During his time away from football in 2005, took up many activities to help him satisfy his competitive urges. "I have a problem, and it's that I'm way too competitive. I started with billiards, then bowling, darts, and golf." Reed rolled an impressive 190 average during his bowling league this past year • As an avid collector of football cards, fulfilled one of his childhood dreams by appearing on his own football card. During a visit to the Fleer Trading Card company in 2004, the staff allowed him to design his own card. A collector since 1989, he is meticulous in cataloging his cards. "When I was young, I looked up to all of those players. I used to get excited when I would get a good card in a pack," said Reed. "Now I continue to collect cards and it is cool to be in the same locker room as some of the greats that I have collected."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- His 23.1 yds. per kickoff return ranked 2nd in the league among NFL rookies in 2004. Ranked 4th on the team in special teams tackles (20)
- Recorded 2 kickoff returns for 74 yds. including a long of 48 yds., which led to an Eagles TD, in the Divisional Playoff vs. Min. (1/16/05). Also notched 4 special teams tackles
- Posted a career-high 8 tackles on defense in backto-back games at StL (12/27/04) and vs. Cin. (1/2/05)
- Bolted down the sidelines for a career-long 66-yd. kickoff return to open the game vs. Car. (10/17/04).
 The return led to an Eagles FG. It was the longest return by an Eagle since Brian Mitchell raced 94 yds. for a TD in 2001 at Arz. (11/4/01)
- Notched a career-high 126 kickoff return yds. vs. Min. (9/20/04) on MNF

PERSONAL:

- · Engaged to Stacci and resides in Sicklerville, NI
- Graduated from Hillsborough HS in Tampa, where he was a three-year starter. Earned all-conference and all-district honors in 1999, helping his school advance to the state regional finals
- An outstanding student, was a member of the National Honor Society, an Honor Roll student, and was listed in "Who's Who of America High School Students." Had a dual enrollment at Hillsborough CC as a senior in high school
- Earned his degree in management information systems during the 2005 season by taking classes from Rowan University and working multiple internships
- Enjoys watching cartoons, especially Jimmy Neutron, Fairly Odd Parents, and Sponge Bob. "Life has been too stressful for me. I need something lighthearted to watch sometimes."
- Likes doing his own yard work and considers it very therapeutic

COLLEGE:

Led the nation in kickoff returns with a 31.7-yard average in 2003 and scored TDs on kickoff returns, INTs, and fumble recoveries. Started 33 games during his career, recording 301 tackles (3rd in school history), 18 INTs (most in school history), 5 fumble recoveries (2 for TDs), and 3 forced fumbles. In his final game of his career vs. Memphis, scored 2TDs (96-yard KOR, 45-yard fumble return), and set up another with one of his 3 INTs. Became the first player in school history to score on a kickoff return and fumble recovery in the same game.

MILESTONES: First game: vs. NYG 9/12/04.

INJURY HISTORY:

SUFFERED NERVE DAMAGE IN HIS LEG IN A FREAK OFFSEASON INJURY AND SPENT THE ENTIRE 2005 SEASON ON THE NON-FOOTBALL INJURY LIST

Position: Linebacker Height, Weight: 6-1, 235

Born: 7/15/81 in Oklahoma City, OK

College: Oklahoma State

High School: Douglass, Oklahoma City, OK * NFL Experience: 2nd (3rd as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie

free agent in 2004

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Originally signed as a rookie free agent in 2004, Greg Richmond spent his rookie season on the practice squad and the 2005 campaign on the Physically Unable to Perform List after suffering a herniated disc in his lower back. He is vying for playing time in 2006 as an outside linebacker and special teamer.

BIRDSEED:

• Holds a degree in hotel & restaurant administration. "When I was a freshman I didn't know what I wanted to major in," recalled Richmond. "I went to the career center and took this test. It told me I would be perfect for hotel and restaurant administration and I was. As a senior, you get to run the restaurant and the motel in the student union. I loved working with the customers and I even got to cook. The worst part of the job was closing up at the end of the day. It took so long counting the money and receipts."

FATHERLY ADVICE

Greg Richmond was raised through his early childhood by his mother, Dorothy Richmond, whom he credits with instilling in him a tremendous work ethic as she provided for he and his three siblings. But, it was his father, Cleveland Lewis, whom he would credit for making him a man.

"He always kept me walking a straight line," said Richmond. "He was big on discipline, but he let me learn my own lessons. When I did, he talked me through them. He did it the right way."

Unmarried, Greg's parents did not always see eye-toeye, but as he was about to enter high school they did agree that it would benefit him to move in with Cleveland and have a male role model in his life.

"People said we were so much alike, we had the same mannerisms," said Richmond. "I got my sense of humor from him. Everybody loved him."

Until Greg went away to college, he remained with his father. But, during his sophomore year, Cleveland passed away from complications due to diabetes. Greg now feels his father had already left a mark on his life in a positive way.

"He's watching over me right now," said Richmond.

 Played on the same defensive line at Oklahoma State with fellow NFL players Kevin Williams (Vikings), Antonio Smith (Cardinals) and LaWaylon Brown (Bills). Their defensive line coach at the time was Karl Dunbar, who currently holds the same position with the Vikings

PERSONAL:

- His offseason home is Oklahoma City, OK, but spends a majority of the offseason living in Cherry Hill, NJ, and working out with the team's offseason conditioning program
- Was a LB and QB at Douglass HS in Oklahoma City, where he also played basketball and track
- Was raised by his mother, Dorothy Richmond, and is the youngest of her four children - sister, Michelle, and brothers Nakia and Roderick. Greg lists Michelle, who is 9 years older than him, as his best friend
- Became a movie buff during the 2005 season while rehabilitating his back injury, in particular a fan of horror movies. "I lived at the Lowe's Theater in Cherry Hill. I think some day I'll have to build myself a theater room in my house." Lists his favorite movie of 2006 as "A.T.L."

- Plans on getting into coaching when his pro career is completed. Credits Bill Clay, his defensive coordinator at OSU and currently an assistant at Texas
 A&M, with peaking his interest in coaching. "It really made me feel good that he felt that coaching would be for me. I love dealing with people and I take pride in knowing how to communicate the right way. I'd love to be a college coach some day."
- Learned a valuable lesson after experiencing injuries that sidelined him for much of his first two seasons in the NFL. "I was never really injured at all throughout my college career so it was new. I decided that I couldn't just sit around and beat myself up about it. I had to rehab hard and show the team that I was going to come back from it."
- Thought to be one of the funniest players in the locker room. "As long as they don't ask me to be," said Richmond. "If someone asks me to be funny or tell a joke, I can't do it." Lists Martin Lawrence and Jamie Foxx as his favorite comedians and Lawrence's show, "Martin," as his favorite sitcom

Armed with a feisty, on-field mentality, Jon Runyan takes pride in being a physical force each and every time he exits the locker room. At 6-7, 330, his relentless, physical play has trickled down to each of his linemates. "What Jon has brought to the offensive line is that temperament of his," said Andy Reid. Position: Comerback Height, Weight: 5-10, 194 Born: 4/8/81 in Jacksonville, FL

College: Florida

High School: Raines, Jacksonville, FL NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: DI-D2 (26th selec-

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Speedy and fearless, Lito Sheppard has shown a penchant for big plays during his first two seasons as a fulltime starter. He leads the Eagles with eight interceptions over that span, including two returned for touchdowns. Sheppard could not have scripted a better story in 2004, earning first team All-Pro honors, a starting spot on the NFC Pro Bowl squad, and a lucrative contract extension through 2011. He also played a major role in helping the Eagles to their first NFC Championship crown since 1980 and a Super Bowl played in his hometown of Jacksonville, FL. Sheppard was the first cornerback selected by the Eagles in the first round since 1980.

BIRDSEED:

 His cousin and current teammate, Jabar Gaffney, was a college teammate at Florida and was drafted 7 spots behind Sheppard by Houston, as the 1st pick in the 2nd round (33rd overall) in 2002. The pair are believed to be the first relatives to play together on the same team in high school, college and the NFL. Jabar's father, is Derrick Gaffney, a former WR at UF and the New York Jets

- A reality-TV junkie, enjoys "American Chopper,"
 "Fear Factor," and "Junkyard Wars." Claims "I have learned a lot from the Discovery Channel. I don't know how much is useful, but now when I get to talking cars I can hold my own."
- Sheppard enjoys a challenge on and off the field.
 While battling with receivers by day, at home he prefers to go one-on-one with the contestants of "Jeopardy." Said Sheppard, "I love Jeopardy. I try and watch it whenever I can. I enjoy trying to answer along with the contestants."
- An avid Monopoly player, he has developed his own very distinct strategy. Sheppard told Sports Illustrated's Peter King, "I like the horse. It's the biggest token. I don't buy everything I land on. I pass on the light blue -- Connecticut, Oriental. Low class. The best color group is the green. Upper middle class. You get your money that way. I don't like the railroads. Not cool. Not enough money involved when you land on them."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- With two career INTs returned for TDs, ranks tied for 3rd in Eagles history
- Led the club with 3 INTs through the first 10 games of 2005, before being sidelined for the remainder of the season with a high ankle sprain

- Picked off QB Drew Brees and returned it 33 yds. to the Chargers 25-yard line vs. SD (10/23/05)
- Popped the ball loose from Cowboys WR Keyshawn Johnson and into the hands of teammate Sheldon Brown who returned the fumble 80 yds. for a TD at Dal. (10/9/05)

SPEED DEMON

As lightning fast as he is on the field, Sheppard has a need for speed off the field. A self-proclaimed "thrill seeker," he loves fast cars and more passionately fast motorcycles. The owner of a top-of-the-line Suzuki sportbike, a GSX-Riooo, he knows there's a time and place for his desire to go fast.

"I'm going to take it easy with the bikes now," said Sheppard. "I'll wait until my playing days are over. I like the adrenaline rush and someday I'd like to try organized racing."

Known by his teammates and coaches as "Full Throttle" for his fearless and all-out style of play, Jason Short is in his 3rd full season in Philadelphia as a special teams demon and reserve linebacker. "His style of covering kicks is just reckless," said special teams coordinator John Harbaugh. "It's unbelievable how he throws his body around there. He's courageous. He does it just the way you'd like to see it done." Short joined the Eagles practice squad in 2003 after stints in NFL Europe (Barcelona) and Arena Football Leaguez (Peoria).

BIRDSEED:

- Since he was 12 years old, spent a large portion of his life working for his father's concrete pouring business, Short Concrete. "I've been on big construction sites since I was little. We've done major jobs all across the country and I got to do a lot of traveling because of it. We've done jobs at places like Duke University." Pat Short has since sold his business and now works for Baker Construction and Development
- An avid chess player, Short learned to play during 7th grade study hall and was eventually asked by the teachers to start a chess club. He went on to participate successfully in local tournaments and even played the 15th-ranked player in the world from Russia
- On relating chess to football, "Just like in football, there is a lot of planning and strategy involved beforehand. And you have to be able to read and react during the match or a football game. I really believe chess can relate to any facet of life."

- When he was in the 10th grade his parents moved the family from Painesville, OH, to Concord after purchasing a former YMCA Dreamhouse. The house was actually raffled off to its previous owner through a program run by the local YMCA. When the winner was forced to sell, the Shorts purchased the house furniture and all
- Learned to box from his father, Pat, at a very young age. "He got me and my brother boxing gloves when we were little and used to teach us how to box in the living room. I guess looking back on it, we lived in a tough neighborhood and that was his way of helping us defend ourselves."

AN UPHILL BATTLE

Jason Short has become sort of a blue-collar hero on the Eagles special teams over the past few seasons. Fans have seen him fly down on the kickoff team and sacrifice his body to blow up a wedge or make a tackle. They've seen him carted off the field twice with broken legs, once with blood spewing from his mouth as he gave an opponent an earful. This wildman on game day, was once a shy little kid in the seriously rough neighborhood of Concord, OH, who often had to fight bullies off in order to make it home from school.

"When I was little, my brother, Pat and I were in the minority in our neighborhood," said Short. "And since we were different, we always got picked on. So defending ourselves became an everyday thing."

Short recalled a time where he and Pat were even tied to a tree and beat up until they were saved by some passing adults. He also remembered that because he was so quiet and shy, that made him an easy target.

"I never picked a fight, but when someone pushed me too much I had to defend myself," said Short. "It was all about respect and that's all I wanted. I guess it's the same now in my football career. I sacrifice myself and play like I do because I still want people to respect me."

It wasn't until he was in the 3rd grade that his family moved from Concord to Painesville, OH. From that point on Jason continued to defend himself, and others, any way he could.

"I was never a bully," said Short. "I bullied the bullies. I never wanted to see people get picked on like I did. One time defending someone else ended up getting me into trouble. That was a real turning point and a learning experience for me."

- Won the only amateur boxing match he ever competed in. While in Birmingham, AL, entered a bout with a $500 purse. "About 10 seconds into it, I knocked the guy to the floor. We made it through the first round, but in the 2nd round I knocked him through the ropes. I always wanted to box a real match since I was a little kid"
- Spent the 2004 offseason as a host at "Chickie's and Pete's," a restaurant in South Philadelphia
- Has participated in the Eagles Youth Partnership chess tournament each year since 2004
- · Enjoys playing golf with Koy Detmer and Josh Parry

- · Majored in business management/communications
- . Full name: Jason Michael Short

COLLEGE:

Finished his career at Eastern Michigan with 230 tackles and 3 sacks from 1998-2000. Originally recruited as a fullback/tight end, was converted to linebacker by head coach Rick Rasnick after only one week of practice in which he was involved in five scuffles. "He said I was an aggressive player and that my style of play is better suited to defense."

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a fractured fibula at Was. (11/6/05) and was placed on IR on 11/9. Also suffered an ankle sprain at Dal. (10/9/05) that rendered him inactive for games 6 and 7. Suffered a concussion vs. Cle. (10/24/04) and was inactive for the following week vs. Bal. (10/31/04). Suffered a broken leg at Was. (12/12/04) and was placed on the Injured Reserve list two days later.

SHORT'S LONG ROAD TO THE NEL

After working for a year in his father's concrete business in 2001, Short ended up playing for the Peoria Pirates of the AFL2 in 2002. He saw action at running back and linebacker for the Arena Cup champions.

"I was making $170 per week and could have made more money working with my father," said Short, "but I wanted an opportunity. I played well even though I didn't know the rules. I had about three penalties in my first game, blitzing from the linebacker spot."

After his stint in Peoria, received a call "out of the blue" from Sam Rutigliano, the former Browns head coach who was assisting with Barcelona in NFL Europe. Played defensive end and linebacker for the Dragons, recording 27 tackles and 2.5 sacks in 2003. Following tryouts with four other teams, signed with the Eagles following the 2003 NFLE campaign, and spent that season on the practice squad.

"Those experiences in Arena ball and Europe humbled me a little, but I always believed I'd make it to the NFL. And I appreciate it that much more."

Born: 5/13/80 in New Brunswick, NJ

Highland Park, NJ

NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: 02-03 (61st selection overall)

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

One of the league's budding stars, L.J. Smith hauled in a team-leading 61 catches in 2005 and looks to build upon that success. The team's 2nd round draft choice out of Rutgers in 2003, Smith shared time during his first two NFL seasons with former Eagle Chad Lewis before earning a starting role a year ago. "He came in with a great work ethic," said Lewis. "And he never shied away from hard work. That's what it takes to be the best."

BIROSEED:

 Aspires to one day produce his own music and would like to learn more about the audio and technical parts of the business. "The world would be a boring place without music. Music can inspire people in many different ways." Favorite artists include Biggie, 50 Cent/G Unit, Brian McKnight, and T.I.

THE LONG ROAD TO THE NFL

Growing up in the small town of Highland Park, NJ (2 square miles, population 14,500), Smith graduated from the local high school as part of a 115-person class. He had thought about a career in basketball, but turned down interest from Division I hoop schools to settle on football tenure at Ruteers.

Although Rutgers won just seven games during his 4year career with the Scarlet Knights, Smith persevered and earned attention from NFL scouts. The team captain performed very well against some of the nation's finest teams, including a 7-68 receiving day at Tennessee, despite being double teamed and in the spotlight of defensive coordinators.

"I always looked outside the Rutgers box," said Smith. "I knew I could play on the NFL level. But I knew I had to really prove myself heading into the draft. Had I gone to Miami or Florida State, it would have been a different story. It was tough not performing in the Senior Bowl with a hamstring injury, but I worked out very well at the Combine."

Smith was the 3rd tight end drafted in 2003, behind Dallas Clark (Colts) and Bennie Joppru (Texans).

- Started playing the guitar during the 2006 offseason. After mentioning to a friend that he wanted to learn to play the guitar, his friend gave him his first acoustic guitar. Although he has not taken a single lesson with an instructor, his abilities are progressing nicely as he has been watching guitar lessons OnDemand in the comfort of his own home. "I guess I play three days a week, for about an hour a day," said Smith. "I figured I'd pick up something I could pass on to my kids some day other than football. Right now I'm learning acoustic blues."
- Enjoys cooking and learned at a young age how to be creative in the kitchen from his grandmother. "I would consider myself a very good cook. I'm always looking for my new favorite dish."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Finished 2005 with 61 receptions for 682 yds. (both career highs) and 3 TDs, the best performance by an Eagles TE since Chad Lewis posted a 69-735-3TDs receiving effort on his way to the Pro Bowl in 2000
- Ranked 9th among NFL TEs in recepts. and 8th in rec. yds. Among all NFC TEs, ranked 6th in recepts. and 5th in yds.
- Caught a career-long 48 yarder from QB Mike McMahon vs. Was. (1/1/06).

- His TD total (6) in 2004 was the most in a season by an Eagles TE since Lewis posted 6 in 2001
- Made an impressive diving reception in the back of the end zone for the Eagles 1st TD in Super Bowl 39 vs. NE (2/6/05)
- Bowled over Vikings' defenders to reach the end zone vs. Min. (9/20/04)
- Snagged his 2nd career TD on a 14-yd. toss from McNabb vs. NYG (9/12)

WORKIN' 9 TO 5

It's no surprise that L.J. Smith decided to pursue his college degree in labor studies. As a young man growing up in Highland Park, NJ, he learned the value of a hard days work. Although football would eventually become his career, he held a number of part-time jobs throughout his college and high school years.

"When I was growing up I liked the idea of being independent," said Smith. "There were things that I wanted to provide for me and my family. I never wanted to trouble my mother with the little things. Instead, I wanted to help her with the things she wanted."

The following is a chronology of L.J.'s part-time jobs:

- Landed his first job when he was 14 years old.
 He painted fences for $5 an hour
- When he was 16 years old he worked in the produce section at ShopRite
- During winter break throughout high school, delivered books to New York City libraries
- Throughout high school worked at a furniture warehouse, scotchguarding and wrapping furniture for delivery, and at a local department store, Rickel's, loading and unloading trucks
- As a freshman in college, worked at The Limited, a women's clothing store, as a stockboy
- Towards the end of his freshman year and throughout his sophomore year, worked at a bagel shop, The Bagel Bazaar
- Was a tremendous basketball prospect who drew interest from a number of Division I programs including Florida State and various schools from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference
- Is a good friend of former Rutgers teammate Gary Brackett, a linebacker with Indianapolis
- Is proud to say that Playboy Playmate and PhiladelphiaEagles.com blogger Kendra Wilkinson lists him as her favorite Eagle
- Lists Entourage, Family Guy and King of Queens as his favorite sitcoms
- · Earned a degree in labor studies
- Full name: John Smith III; L.J. stands for "Little John"

An honor roll student throughout high school, Strickland earned his degree in mechanical engineering from Colorado and plans on starting his own company. "I was always good in math and I'm very creative." said Strickland.

Strickland also attended the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard Business School this past offseason and believes his engineering degree has helped him on the field as well. "It helped me with picking up this defensive scheme after coming from a completely different situation in Indianapolis."

Strickland hopes to launch a product for consumers in the near future. "I have a mechanical engineering degree and a lot of ambition," said Strickland. "I like learning, and knowledge really is power. It's the most valuable tool you can have."

A native of Liberia who moved with his mother and two sisters to the United States when he was just nine years old, Thomas Tapeh has indeed taken the long road to the NFL. The Eagles 5th round draft choice in 2004, Tapeh has the ability to play fullback and running back and did so during his first NFL campaign before suffering a dislocated hip during a December 27th game at St. Louis. Tapeh missed the entire 2005 campaign due to that injury and eyes a return to the Eagles backfield in 2006.

BIRDSEED:

Believing that he return to action from his hip injury
a better player due to an intense rehabilitation, Tapeh changed his number from 41 to 38 after reading the following verse from 1 Corinthians (chapter 3, verse 8.): "Now that he planteth and that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour."

- Grew up playing soccer in Liberia before moving with his mother, Cecily Woiwor, and his two sisters, Vickey and Winifred, to St. Paul when he was 9 years old. Said Tapeh of that transition, "I had to learn how to speak English. I was alone. All I had was my mother and sisters. I really did not fit in with the other kids and I did not have any friends. So it was real hard for me."
- Credits cartoons for helping him learn English.
 "Cartoons helped me a lot. There was 'Tailspin.'
 There was 'Thundercats.' All those cartoons, that's what I watched, and I mimicked how they spoke.
 Later on I figured out how the words were put together."

- Graduated with a degree in family social sciences and youth studies. "I want to change lives the way Steve and Von, along with my extended family, did with me," said Tapeh. "If they can change my life, I want to be in a position to change many more."

Big William Thomas has made a nice living out of being Donovan McNabb's blindside bodyguard. One of the most accomplished left tackles in team history, Thomas is a three-time Pro Bowl selection and has been a mainstay at the left tackle spot since being selected in the first round in 1998. Thomas has missed just seven games due to injury during his NFL career, including the last six of the 2005 season with a lower back injury.

RIRDSFFN:

 When Thomas was young he was too big for Pop Warner football, but that didn't stop him from establishing his athletic prowess. "He got his first trophy when he was 4 for swimming," recalled Ethyl Thomas, William's mother

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "We are the toughest guys and the hardest working guys on the team. We play every snap, every down, every game. We are sometimes anonymous but we are asked to protect the 100 million dollar quarterbacks from getting hit."

His favorite NFL O-lineman: Bob Brown. "He's just a beast, man. He was a real aggressive player. He took it on everyone he lined up against."

International Man of Mystery: William and his wife, Rosa, take French lessons together. The couple began the lessons in 2005 when they were planning a trip to France.

- Made his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2001 season. A RENAISSANCE MAN

If you asked William Thomas to describe himself he would probably say, "I'm just a guy who likes to hang out." But recently Thomas has begun to transform himself into quite a renaissance man, crediting maturity, relocation, marriage and good fortune for his evolution. Some of his new eclectic hobbies include: French lessons, Broadway shows, the opera, and chess.

"The French lessons started because my wife and I wanted to go to France [a trip that is still being planned]. I'm getting good." After he learns French he ambitiously is looking forward to taking on the Spanish language. "Maybe I can be an overseas ambassador for the NFL someday," joked Thomas.

"I want to expose my kids to these things. Growing up in a small town, there weren't many opportunities to explore different things. I just played pool and went swimming. I'm fortunate to be able to explore these opportunities with my family."

Among the Broadway shows that Thomas has seen are "Aida," "Beauty and the Beast," and "Julius Caesar." "My wife picks out the shows. The one thing I don't like is that the seats are too tight."

COLLEGE:

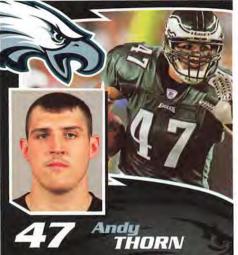

Polished his pass blocking skills during Florida State practices against top-flight defenders such as Andre Wadsworth, Peter Boulware, Reinard Wilson, and Greg Spiers (Boulware and Wilson were NFL 1st round picks in 1997 by Baltimore and Cincinnati, respectively; Wadsworth was the third selection overall in 1998 by Arizona; and Spiers was taken in the 3rd round by New England in 1998). Played the "tight" tackle position, switching from left to right tackle in order to match up against opponents' top pass rushers. As a senior, earned 2nd team All-America honors, 1st team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition, and the Jacob's Trophy given to the ACC's top offensive lineman. Helped the Seminoles' offense lead the ACC and rank 8th in the nation with 452.1 total yards per game. Switched to offense after originally being recruited as a defender.

PRO BOWL

A powerful middle linebacker with four Pro Bowls on his resume, Jeremiah Trotter is in his 2nd stint wearing midnight green. Considered by many to be the "pulse" of the Eagles defense, Trotter became the 4th linebacker in team history to earn four Pro Bowl selections, joining Chuck Bednarik (8), Maxie Baughan (5), and Bill Bergey (4). He has averaged over 145 tackles since becoming a full-time starter in 1999. A 3rd round draft choice of the Eagles in 1998, Trotter spent his first four seasons in Philadelphia and two in Washington before being released by the Redskins following the 2003 campaign. Without a contract offer, he somehow contacted Eagles head coach Andy Reid on a fishing trip in a remote part of Utah where cell phone use was extremely limited. Trotter signed a one-year contract at that time and parlayed a Pro Bowl season in 2004 into a five-year deal in 2005. He is thrilled to be entrenched in Philadelphia. "This city has the same attitude I have. I play with a passion ... this is where my heart is."

BIRDSEED:

• Learned the value of hard work - while also developing his massive upper body - by chopping wood for the family business run by his late father, Myra. After a big play, Trotter honors the work ethic he was taught by his father by motioning as if he was chopping wood with an ax. Said Jeremiah, "Football really wasn't that hard. Running and lifting, that was easy compared to the work I did at home ... I did anything I could do to make money, anything I could to help the family. It was hard work. I didn't play a lot of games. I worked. Looking back, I don't think I'd want it any other way."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Was named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad for the 4th time in his career following the 2005 season. In doing so, became the 4th LB in Eagles history to earn 4 Pro Bowl selections, joining Chuck Bednarik (8), Maxie Baughan (5), and Bill Bergey (4)
- Has started 100 games over the past 7 seasons, recording a total of 1,023 tackles. Posted 100-ormore tackles in 6 of those 7 seasons
- On his way to being named the Eagles defensive MVP in 2005, led the team with 169 tackles, for his 5th 100-plus tackle performance in the last 7 seasons, and his 3rd-highest total as a pro. - Pressured QB Drew Bledsoe in the 2nd qtr. vs. Dal. (11/14/05) and forced him to throw an errant pass to CB Lito Sheppard for an INT. The turnover led to an Eagles TD

 13 tackles, including 1 tackle for a loss and 1 FF vs.

"Engineered to sack." That's the slogan that adorns his personal website. It's what motivates the four-year starter at defensive tackle, who earned his degree in civil engineering and is a vice president and chief development officer with Pennoni Associates, Inc., a highly successful Philadelphia-based consulting engineering firm. With 20.5 sacks since 2002, Darwin Walker ranks 4th among NFL defensive tackes during that time span. He was rewarded with a 7-year contract extension in 2002 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2008.

BIRDSEED:

 With his multi-disciplined engineering firm, has developed a passion for negotiating business deals, "There's nothing like that rush from closing a deal and making money. It's almost as good as sacking the quarterback, but not quite (laughing)."

ENGINEERED TO SACK

Growing up in a family-owned construction company in South Carolina, Walker went on to earn his degree in civil engineering from Tennessee and later passed the stringent Fundamentals of Engineering examination.

When asked about similarities between his two occupations, Walker pointed to one aspect - teamwork. "One engineer doesn't do the whole project," said Walker. "It's a collaboration of minds. Teamwork is so vital to our success. Same with football."

Walker went on to co-found Progressive Engineering, a civil and structural engineering firm in Knoxville, TN, with a satellite office in Philadelphia.

In the spring of 2005, Walker became part owner and Vice President/Chief Development Officer of Pennoni Associates Inc., an Engineering News Record Top 100 consulting engineering firm headquartered in Philadelphia.

Pennoni has been engineering projects that have shaped the landscape of the Delaware Valley region since 1966 and has recently contributed to several highly publicized projects in the area including the NovaCare Complex, the new headquarters building for Comcast, the Cira Centre, Citizens Bank Park, and the National Constitution Center.

In addition to his relationship with Pennoni, Walker is also owner and founder of Darwin Walker Properties LLC, a development company that is involved with a number of different developmental projects through investment, design and construction.

 Gained strength as a youth by mixing mortar for his father, James, a brick mason by trade. "It taught me how to develop a good work ethic," said Walker, who was 8-years old when he began his summer job. "I'm glad he made me do it. And he paid me too! He also gave me his car after the work day was done. That was a big deal for me." Walker's postsack celebration simulates raking mortar

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Equipped with good size and toughness from the cornerback position, Matt Ware has been a solid contributor on special teams and in a limited role on defense during his first two NFL seasons. A 3rd round draft choice in 2004, Ware provided the Eagles a memorable win vs. San Diego in 2005 with his game-winning 65-yard touchdown return of a blocked field goal by fellow DB Quintin Mikell. "He's physical and has a mean streak in him," said Eagles Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins. "I tell him this all the time; he has some talent inside of him that is going to come out and please all of you ... That type of guy does not come through too often."

PREPARED TO SUCCEED

An all-around athlete at Loyola High School in Los Angeles, Matt Ware was selected in the 21st round of the 2001 Major League Baseball Draft by the Seattle Mariners as a center fielder. He went on to spend the summers of 2002 and 2003 playing the outfield for the Peoria (AZ) Mariners.

"My experience in minor league baseball really taught me how to be a pro," said Ware. "Seeing how things worked first hand, helped me a great deal in preparing to become a professional football player. I loved baseball but football was where I wanted to succeed."

BIRDSEED:

- Growing up, his father, Bernard, became ill and unable to work. Matt's parents felt it would be beneficial for Matt to move in with his grandmother, lola, in Culver City, CA, where Bernard was raised. "I owe a lot to my grandmother," said Matt. "She raised me when my father was sick. My parents knew how well my grandmother would take care of me and that the level of sports in Culver City would really prepare me to succeed."
- While in high school worked at Gladstones, one of the hottest restaurants in Santa Monica, as a host.
 Each night he sported "Gilligan's Island outfit," consisting of a white t-shirt, shorts and sneakers.
 "It was so crowded all the time because it was right on the beach. I really learned to be patient with people when I worked there."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ranked 2nd on the special teams unit production points list (169) and 4th in tackles (17) in 2005
- Recovered a fumble on special teams that led to an Eagles TD vs. GB (11/27/05)
- After S Quintin Mikell blocked a Nate Kaeding FG attempt, Ware recovered the ball and returned it 65 yds. for his first TD to put the Eagles ahead 19-17 with 2:25 left to play vs. SD (10/23/05). It was the first time in Eagles history that an opponents' blocked FG was returned for a TD
- Finished 2004 ranked t-5th on the team in special teams tackles (15) and 6th in production pts. (132)

- His parents both earned degrees from UCLA and now work in the legal field. His father, Bernard, is a lawyer now in independent practice who previously worked in medical malpractice, and his mother, Julie, is a legal assistant
- A number of his family members went to UCLA. The only member of his family to have any ties to USC was his grandfather, Theodore Reid, who happened to be the head of dentistry at the school. "If I had even taken a visit to USC when I was being recruited out of high school, my family would have killed me. When I was deciding to enter the draft as a junior, one of the reasons I was thinking about staying was to get another chance to play against SC."
- Wants to coach high school or college football when his playing days are over

"He's made for big plays." That's how Cowboys coach Bill Parcells described Brian Westbrook. "He can run, catch and I'm sure he could throw if they let him. They can deploy him anywhere on the field and I think it takes a rare player to be comfortable with that." An explosive player in the run and pass game, Westbrook led the Eagles in rushing yards and receptions in 2005, one year after earning his first Pro Bowl berth. A third round draft choice in 2002, Westbrook was one of the most decorated players in NCAA Division I-AA history at nearby Villanova. "He's the ultimate weapon," said QB Donovan McNabb. "And talking to guys from other teams about his speed, playmaking ability, agility and the misses he creates just solidifies what I'm talking about." Westbrook earned a lucrative, five-year contract extension in 2005 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2010.

Position: Guard

Height, Weight: 5-4. 312

Born: 7/15/81 in Salt Lake City. UT

College: BYU

High School: Hillcrest. Salt Lake City. UT NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle) Acquired by Eagles: D5b-05 (172nd selection overall)

Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A 5th round draft choice of the Eagles in 2005, Scott Young spent time on both the practice squad and 53-man roster during his first NFL season. A strong and powerful player, Young converted to offensive line prior to his senior season at BYU.

BIRDSEED:

- Inspired by his parents, Robert and Diane, both cancer survivors. Robert survived leukemia and continues to work 60-plus hour weeks as a police office in Salt Lake City, while Diane, a retired school teacher, is a breast cancer survivor. "Seeing what they've gone through with all the treatments," said Young, "the mental part with a family to raise, it made me realize how easy I have it. I feel very lucky."
- Trained with Hall of Fame lineman John Hannah for eight days in Newburyport, Massachussets in 2005.
 "It was a great experience working out and learning from one of the best players in NFL history. He took me into his home and talked to me about football on and off the field. I even tried on his HOF jacket."

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "People that know a lot about the sport know that's where the game is won or lost. It's a position that you don't get a lot of respect from fans because you can beat a defensive lineman 69 of 70 plays, but if the defensive lineman beats you once, they get all the credit. It's the most important position on the field."

Favorite O-lineman: John Hannah. "My favorite kind of lineman is someone who's nasty, gets dirty and fights tooth and nail every play. John was nasty and brutal on the field. He was a defensive lineman playing offensive line. He attacked people and was always the aggressor."

Trowin' up some serious weight: An avid weightlifter since his junior year of high school, Young aspires to one day compete in the World's Strongest Man competition. He bench pressed 225 pounds 43 times at the NFL Scouting Combine in 2005, two shy of the combine record.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

 Spent first 10 games of 2005 on the practice squad before being promoted to the active roster on 11/25, after LT William Thomas was placed on Injured Reserve. Was inactive for the final 6 games

A strong and imposing presence from the defensive tack-le position, Bunkley was a disruptive force for Florida State during his senior season in 2005, in which he garnered numerous All-America honors. But that success did not come easy for him. After being ruled academically ineligible during the spring prior to his senior season, Bunkley worked very hard in the classroom over the summer to regain his eligibility and his spot in the Seminoles starting lineup. "I knew I had to turn it around," recalled Bunkley. "I knew I had to get right. I told my coach after I get back on the field I was going to relish and cherish every opportunity, every play, every snap. And it's led to a lot of success."

- His mother, Patrice Lewis, is a retail manager and his stepfather, Marvin Lewis, is a project supervisor for a shipbuilding company. Although an only child, his childhood was shared with "plenty of cousins who were like brothers and sisters. We were together often and shared everything."
- Credits his defensive line coach at Florida State, Odell Haggins, with his development on and off the field. "The one thing I admired about Coach is that he stays on top of his players, and he stays on them hard," said Bunkley. "He's a big part of the reason for the success I had last season. I was thankful to have a coach like him. I was able to talk to him about my problems. He was almost like my father in Tallahassee ... I still talk to him all the time."
- His first job was as a cashier at McDonald's. "It was too hot to flip burgers; they didn't want me back there."
 The trade off was that Bunkley was on the front lines.
 "The shirt they gave me was too small; nothing ever fit right. My friends would all come in and make fun of my shirt!"
- As a high school senior served as a defensive line instructor at the Mike Alstott Football Camp

2005 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2005 ATLANTA 14, PHILADELPHIA 10 GEORGIA DOME • 70,806

The Eagles fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and could not make up the difference in a season opening Monday night loss at Atlanta. Playing without the services of Pro Bowl MLB Jeremiah Trotter, who was ejected in a pregame altercation with Falcons DB Kevin Mathis, the Eagles permitted 200 yards rushing to Atlanta, 117 of those by RB Warrick Dunn, Michael Vick also rushed for 68 yards, including a 7-yard TD scamper late in the first quarter to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead. The home team upped their lead to 14-0 following a 58-yard pass from Vick to Michael Jenkins to the PE1, T.J. Duckett plunged in from one-yard out on the next play. The Eagles responded on their next possession with a 9-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 9-yard TD pass from Donovan McNabb to Brian Westbrook. On that drive, Westbrook made two other big plays (a 17-yard run and a 24-yard catch), while McNabb connected with Terrell Owens three times for 40 yards. The Eagles missed many other opportunities to score in the first half, misfiring on two 49-yard field goals, going o-s on 3rd down opportunities, and not taking advantage of two Falcons turnovers. More of the same occurred in the 2nd half as McNabb lost two fumbles in the 3rd quarter before finally driving the Eagles to a 44yard field goal with 9:25 remaining in the 4th quarter. That field goal was set up by a red zone sack and forced fumble by Brian Dawkins. But Philadelphia managed just two first downs in their final two possessions before Atlanta ran out of the clock with three kneel downs.

NOTES: The Eagles committed 3 turnovers, snapping a string of an NFL record 23 straight road games with 2 giveaways or less ... Dawkins recorded a full sack and an interception in the same game for the 3rd time in his career and the first time since September 29, 2002 vs. Houston ... In his first game action since undergoing surgery to repair a sports hernia in July, Dirk Johnson punted 5 times for a 42.6 net average, including 3 of those downed inside the 20 yard line.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 42, SAN FRANCISCO 3 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,727

Using a franchise record 583 total net yards of offense. the Eagles cruised past the San Francisco 49ers, 42-3, in their home opener at Lincoln Financial Field. After being limited to just 10 points a week earlier at Atlanta, Philadelphia scored on five touchdown drives of 70 yards or more, including two 90-plus yard scoring jaunts as they rolled to a 28-o halftime lead. The 39-point margin of victory was the most by the Eagles since a 52-10 win at St. Louis on 11/8/81. Donovan McNabb tied a career high with 5 touchdown passes as he completed 23-29 attempts for 342 yards in just three quarters of action. Terrell Owens posted 5 catches for 143 yards and 2 TDs in his first game vs. his former Niners teammates. McNabb and Owens connected on the third play from scrimmage for a 68-yard scoring play to give the Eagles an early 7-o lead. TE L.J. Smith hauled in a career-high 9 passes for 119 yards, including a 6-yard TD catch to give Philadelphia a 14-0 lead. Early in the 2nd quarter, McNabb and Owens combined on a 42-yard scoring play before Eagles CB Lito Sheppard intercepted Tim Rattay and returned the ball 34 yards to the SF2. From there, McNabb fired a 2-yard score to Brian Westbrook to up the lead to 28 points. LB Mark Simoneau connected on the extra point for an injured David Akers, who hurt his hamstring on the previous kickoff. San Francisco posted a 32-yard field goal by Joe Nedney in the 3rd quarter to spoil Philadelphia's shutout bid, but McNabb connected with Greg Lewis for his 5th TD pass of the day to give the Eagles a 35-3 lead heading into the 4th quarter. In that stanza, backup QB Koy Detmer engineered a 14-play, 90-yard drive that took over 10 minutes of clock time and culminated in a 6-yard TD run by Lamar Gordon, his first as an Eagle.

NOTES: The Eagles 10:26 TD scoring drive in the 4th quarter was their longest in terms of time in the Andy Reid era ... Smith's receiving numbers (9:119) were the best by an Eagles tight end since 2000 (Chad Lewis) ... Sheppard posted a sack and an interception in the same game for the first time in his career ... Simoneau became the first NFL defensive player to kick an extra point since Oilers LB Ted Thompson did so on November 23, 1980 ... The Eagles completed 33 passes to 11 different players, one completion shy of the team record of 34 set at Washington in 1989 ... Owens became the 22nd player in NFL history to reach the 10,000 receiving yard plateau.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 23, OAKLAND 20 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,735

The Eagles gutted out a 23-20 win over the Oakland Raiders at Lincoln Financial Field as David Akers returned from a hamstring injury suffered on the opening kickoff to boot a 23-yard field goal with 9 seconds remaining, the 7th game-winning kick of his career. Akers also kicked two crucial extra points in the third quarter after LB Mark Simoneau missed a PAT blocked in the first half in Akers' absence. Donovan McNabb led an impressive two-minute drive after the Raiders stunned the hometown crowd with a 27-yard TD pass from Kerry Collins to Doug Gabriel with 2:17 left to tie the score at 20. On that drive, Collins converted two key 3rd and long situations to keep their hopes alive. The Raiders wasted two big opportunities with two missed field goal attempts by Sebastian Janikowski, a 49-yard attempt in the first quarter and a 37-yard attempt in the 4th quarter. The Eagles squandered a huge scoring attempt of their own early in the 4th quarter as TE L.J. Smith fumbled at the Raiders 2-yard line. The Raiders opened the scoring on their first possession as Collins connected with RB Lamont Jordan on an 8-yard scoring pass. The Raiders opened that drive with excellent field position as the Eagles committed a penalty on each of the game's first four plays: two offsides penalties on the kickoff, a kickoff out of bounds, and an offsides penalty on defense. Brian Westbrook got the Eagles on the board late in the 2nd quarter with an 18yard scamper, but the extra point attempt by Simoneau failed. Janikowski kicked a 28-yard field goal on the ensuing drive to give the Raiders a 10-6 halftime lead. McNabb, who was just 11-24 passing for 99 yards and an INT in the first half, led the Eagles with a valiant 2nd half effort (19-28, 266 yards), including 2 TD passes in the 3rd quarter, a 4-vard strike to Terrell Owens that gave the Eagles a 13-10 lead and a 5-yard shovel pass to NOTES: Westbrook's 208 total yards from scrimmage was a career high. His 62-yard grab from McNabb was a career long ... Owens' score was the 100th regular season TD of his career ... The last time the Eagles did not record a takeaway, turned the ball over two or more times and won was 9/1/96 at 'Washington ... McNabb's back-to-back 300-yard passing games was a career first and the first by an Eagles QB since Randall Cunningham in 1994 ... The two teams combined for 94 pass attempts, the highest total by both teams in an Eagles game since October 2, 1989, when the Eagles and Bears combined for 100 attempts.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 37, KANSAS CITY 31 ARROWHEAD STADIUM • 78,742

In one of the most impressive comebacks in team history. the Eagles overcame an 18-point deficit in the 2nd quarter to shock the Kansas City Chiefs, 37-31, at a raucous Arrowhead Stadium. The Eagles scored 31-straight points as their 2nd half avalanche rolled over the home team. The Chiefs scored on the first three possessions of the game to take a 17-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter and upped their lead to 24-6 after kick returner Dante Hall cruised 96 yards on a kickoff return for a score. The Eagles, who had managed only a 40yard interception return for a touchdown by CB Sheldon Brown, finally got their offense going as Donovan McNabb connected with Terrell Owens on a 7-yard scoring toss. That touchdown was set up by a momentum-changing play by Eagles DE Jevon Kearse, who popped the ball loose from Kansas City RB Larry Johnson with just under 3 minutes to play in the first half. The Eagles rode that momentum into the 2nd half as they finished their opening possession with a 44-yard field goal by K Todd France, who was making his NFL debut in place of an injured David Akers (hamstring). Trailing 24-16, the Eagles defense tightened up, leading the Eagles in their 2nd half rebound. In fact, Chiefs RB Priest. Holmes, who torched the Eagles for 60 yards rushing in their first two possessions of the game, managed just 24 for the remainder of the contest, including 14 in the final 30 minutes. McNabb found 3rd string TE Mike Bartrum all alone in the end zone from 3 yards out late in the 3rd quarter and then connected with Brian Westbrook for the twopoint conversion which knotted the score at 24. After another defensive stop by the Eagles, McNabb embarked on a 71yard drive which culminated in a 37-yard field goal by France, giving the Eagles the lead for good. On the ensuing kickoff, the dangerous Hall fumbled (forced by Mike Labinjo, recovered by Reno Mahe) at his own 25-yard line. Six plays later, McNabb connected with TE L.J. Smith on a 1yard score to give the Eagles a 10-point lead. After Sheldon Brown's second interception of the game, Philadelphia drove to the KC8, where France booted a 26-yard field goal. Hall's second TD of the day - a 15-yard pass from Trent Green with 1:33 remaining in the 4th quarter - found the Chiefs trailing by six points, but Mahe secured the onsides kick to seal the victory.

NOTES: Andy Reid manned the Eagles sideline for his sooth career regular season contest, becoming the 3rd coach in team history to reach that milestone (Chiefs coach Dick Vermeil and Greasy Neale were the others) ... Vermeil is 0-4 vs. his former team (o-2 with the Rams and o-2 with the Chiefs) ... The Eagles comeback was their greatest since overcoming a 21-o deficit at NY Jets on October 3, 1993, to win, 35-30. The Chiefs collapse was their worst in club history ... McNabb became the first quarterback in team history to top the 300-yard passing mark in three consecutives games. He also set a team record with the 14th 300-yd. performance of his career ... Owens 11 catches and 171 yards receiving both represented career highs as an Eagle ... Brown recorded his first multi-interception game and the first touchdown of his NFL career ... The Eagles converted four Chiefs turnovers into 24 points ... France nailed 3 of 4 field goal attempts in his first NFL action ... The Eagles limited Chiefs all-pro TE Tony Gonzalez to just 2 catches for 5 yards.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2005 DALLAS 33, PHILADELPHIA 10 TEXAS STADIUM • 63,199

The Eagles were dominated in every phase of the game as they fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 33-10, at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys took advantage of favorable field position on their first four possessions of the game to score three times as they jumped out to a 17-0 lead after one quarter of play. Drew Bledsoe connected with WR Terry Glenn on touchdown passes of 15 and 38 yards to lead the way. In all, Bledsoe finished with 289 yards passing and 3 touchdown passes, Glenn had 118 yards receiving on 7 catches, while the Cowboys run game piled up 167 yards. The Eagles, who overcame a 24-6 deficit one week earlier at Kansas City, managed just a 23-yard field goal by Todd France in the first half. Bledsoe connected with FB Lousaka Polite on a 12-yard scoring pass on 4th and 1 and Jose Cortez booted a 33-yard field goal in the waning seconds of the first half to take a 27-3 lead into the locker room. The Cowboys lead grew to 30-3 before Philadelphia finally reached the end zone late in the 3rd quarter thanks to their defense. CB Lito Sheppard forced a fumble by Keyshawn Johnson that popped loose right into the hands of fellow CB Sheldon Brown who raced 80 yards for the NOTES: Brown became the first Eagles defender to score a touchdown in two consecutive weeks since Joe Lavender did so in 1974. Brown returned an interception 40 yards for a TD one week earlier at Kansas City. In 1993, Eric Allen posted INT returns in consecutive games separated with a bye week ... In his first snap in the NFL, Eagles rookie DT Keyonta Marshall helped stuff Cowboys RB Julius Jones on a 4th-and-1 rushing attempt from the Eagles one-yard line ... The 23-point loss was the Eagles worst at Texas Stadium since a 24-point loss (34-10) in a NFC Divisional playoff game on January 10, 1993.

GAME

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 20, SAN DIEGO 17 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67.747

In a game featuring a plethora of all pros on both sidelines, a pair of unheralded reserve Eagles defenders took center stage in a stunning finish. With the Eagles trailing 17-13 and 2:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Quintin Mikell blocked a 40-yard field goal attempt by Nate Kaeding and Matt Ware scooped up the loose ball and raced 65 yards for the game-winning touchdown. The Eagles then held off a late rally by the Chargers as CB Sheldon Brown forced a fumble by WR Reche Caldwell at the Eagles 19-yard line. Chargers RB LaDainian Tomlinson, who entered the game with a NFL record-tying streak of 18 straight games with a TD, was held to a career-low 7 yards rushing on 17 carries and, more importantly, no touchdowns. In fact, both teams combined for a defensive struggle through most of the first half, but the Eagles finally got on the scoreboard late in the 2nd quarter as Donovan McNabb connected with Terrell Owens on a 4-yard TD pass. The Eagles upped their lead to 10-0 after a 23-yard field goal by Todd France early in the 3rd quarter. But the Chargers responded on their ensuing drive as Drew Brees found WR Keenan McCardell in the end zone from 19 yards out to cut the Philadelphia lead to 10-7. After a three-and-out by the Eagles offense, San Diego took the lead on their next possession as Brees and TE Antonio Gates combined on an 8-yard scoring pass. Down by 4 early in the 4th quarter, McNabb threw an interception on the first play of the ensuing drive that was returned by Jamar Fletcher to the Eagles 14-yard line. However, a sack by Jevon Kearse on 2nd and goal helped force a field goal that gave San Diego a 17-10 advantage. Midway through the 4th quarter, Eagles MLB Jeremiah Trotter picked off a tipped pass (LB Mark Simoneau) by Brees at the Chargers 23-yard line. That play set up a 40yard field goal by France, pulling the Eagles within 17-13 with 6:34 to play. The Eagles forced a three and out by the Chargers, but the offense failed on a 4th-and-1 attempt at their own 30-yard line. The Chargers moved the ball to the PE22, where Kaeding's kick was blocked.

NOTES: The Eagles blocked field goal attempt returned for a TD was the first in team history ... McNabb set a franchise record with 35 completions, breaking Randall Cunningham's mark of 34 set at Washington on 9/18/89 ... Owens became the 6th player in NFL history to post 100 receiving touchdowns, joining Jerry Rice, Cris Carter, Marvin Harrison, Tim Brown and Steve Largent ... The Eagles became 7-0 following the bye week under head coach Andy Reid ... Reid picked up his 75th career win (including playoffs) ... The two teams combined for 45 yards rushing, the 3rd-lowest total in NFL history, and the fewest since Detroit and the Chicago Cardinals totalled 4 yards in 1940.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2005 DENVER 49, PHILADELPHIA 21 INVESCO FIELD • 76.530

The Eagles fell behind 28-0 in the first half, rallied to within 7 points early in the 4th quarter, but eventually fell 49-21 to the Broncos on a cool afternoon in Denver, lake Plummer tossed three touchdown passes in the first half as the Broncos scored on four of their first six possessions of the game, while the Eagles offense began with three-and-outs or worse on their first five drives. QB Donovan McNabb, who began the game 0-12 passing, finally got the Eagles going on their final drive of the first half as TE L.I. Smith grabbed a one-yard TD pass to get Philadelphia on the scoreboard heading into halftime. Down 28-7, the Eagles rally continued in the 3rd quarter after McNabb connected with Terrell Owens on a simple four-yard completion deep in their own territory. But Owens broke a tackle attempt by Champ Bailey and outran another pair of Broncos defenders for a 91-yard scoring play. McNabb then connected with Owens later in the 3rd quarter on a 46-yard play down to the Broncos 18yard line. Two plays later, McNabb tossed a short pass to Brian Westbrook, who scampered through Broncos defenders and into the end zone, bringing the Eagles to within seven points at 28-21, After a three-and-out by Denver, the Eagles drove deep into Broncos territory again poised to tie the game. But McNabb was intercepted by CB Domonique Foxworth in the end zone in front of WR Reggie Brown halting the Eagles comeback attempt. From there, the momentum of the game swung back to Denver as they drove 80-vards on five plays capped off by a 44-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown by Todd Devoe. who slipped by fallen CB Roderick Hood on a 3rd-and-11 play. The Broncos capped the scoring late in the 4th quarter with a pair of touchdown runs by Tatum Bell, who joined fellow RB Mike Anderson in topping the 100-yard rushing mark on the afternoon,

NOTES: The Eagles 91-yard TD was the longest pass of McNabb's career and the longest reception of Owens' career, It also tied for the 5th longest pass play in team history ... Andy Reid has coached against all of the other 31 NFL teams after finally facing the Broncos in his 7th season manning the Eagles sideline ... K Jose Cortez made his Eagles debut and became the 4th player to kick an extra point in 2005, joining David Akers, Mark Simoneau and Todd France ... The Eagles defense lost three key players during the game with injuries: DE Jevon Kearse (shoulder), DT Sam Rayburn (stinger), and CB Lito Sheppard (knee).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2005 WASHINGTON 17, PHILADELPHIA 10 FEDEX FIELD • 90,298

Philadelphia fell to 4-4 on the season with a 17-10 loss to Washington in a nationally televised Sunday night contest at FedEx Field. The Eagles did not take advantage of several opportunities throughout the game, including two potential scoring chances at the end of each half. Trailing by a touchdown with under 3 minutes remaining in the game, the Eagles drove from their own 15-yard line deep into Redskins territory, but on a 4th down play at the 7yard line, Donovan McNabb was intercepted by Ryan Clark to end the comeback attempt. At the end of the first half, the Eagles offense ran out of time after driving into field goal range as McNabb was sacked with seconds draining off the clock. The Eagles got off to a fast start on both sides of the ball as they opened the scoring on their second possession of the game when McNabb connected with WR Reggie Brown on a 56-yard scoring play. The defense limited the Redskins to just 3 points until late in the 2nd quarter when CB Lito Sheppard was flagged for pass interference at the Redskins 1-yard line. Washington FB Mike Sellers plunged into the end zone on the next play to put the home team on top 10-7. Philadelphia tied the game midway through the 3rd quarter after McNabb's 38-yard completion to WR Billy McMullen set up a 34yard field goal by David Akers. But Washington responded on their next possession as a 40-yard kickoff return by Ladell Betts sparked a 7-play, 48-yard scoring drive highlighted by two key 3rd down conversions and a 6-yard TD run by Clinton Portis that capped the scoring.

NOTES: Earlier in the day, Eagles RB Brian Westbrook agreed to terms on a five-year contract extension through 2010 ... Brown's TD was the first of his career ... Akers returned to field goal kicking duties after missing the previous four games with a hamstring injury ... The Eagles lost at Washington for the first time since 1999.

Monday, November 14, 2005 Dallas 21, Philadelphia 20 Lincoln Financial Field • 67,739

The Cowboys stunned the Eagles with 14 unanswered points in the final four minutes of the game to win at Lincoln Financial Field, 21-20. Trailing 20-7 with 3:44 to play in the 4th quarter, QB Drew Bledsoe drove the Cowboys 72 yards on four plays, capped off by a 20-yard scoring pass to WR Terry Glenn. On the ensuing possession, Eagles OB Donovan McNabb threw an ill-timed interception to Cowboys S Roy Williams, who returned the ball 46 yards for the game-winning points, McNabb re-injured his sports hernia on the play attempting to stop Williams, but returned to action for one more series. He threw two incomplete passes and was sacked on another attempt as the Eagles punted away. Given one more chance to set up a game-winning field goal attempt, Philadelphia took over at their own 35-yard line with 45 seconds remaining and inserted Mike McMahon at quarterback. McMahon completed two short passes and ran for 9 yards to the Dallas 42-yard line, but David Akers came up short on a 60-yard field goal attempt as time expired. The Eagles had played very well for most of the game, scoring on the game's opening possession as a balanced offensive attack led to a 15-yard touchdown run by RB Brian Westbrook. The Cowboys, who managed very little offense most of the night, answered with a touchdown of their own late in the first quarter after a 58-yard pass from Bledsoe to Peerless Price set up a 1-yard TD run by Marion Barber, Tied 7-7 late in the 2nd quarter, Bledsoe was pressured on a pass attempt deep in his own territory by LB Jeremiah Trotter and threw a fluttering ball right into the hands of CB Lito Sheppard. Four plays later, McNabb scampered into the end zone from 2 yards out to give the Eagles a 14-7 halftime advantage. The Eagles scored on their first possession of the second half as Akers nailed a 48-yard field goal attempt. They increased their lead to 20-7 early in the 4th quarter as Akers booted a 20 yarder after the Eagles drive stalled inside the Cowboys 10-yard line. The Cowboys went three-and-out on their next possession before their last-minute heroics provided them with their first victory in Philadelphia since 1998.

NOTES: Eagles rookie defensive end Trent Cole posted his first multi-sack game with two of Drew Bledsoe ... Chad Lewis returned for his first game with the Eagles since suffering a Lis Franc foot sprain during the NFC Championship game win vs. Atlanta ... The Eagles rushed for 181 yards on 36 carries, their highest rushing total since 201 vs. New Orleans on 11/23/03 ... C Jamaal Jackson started in his first career NFL game after the Eagles lost Hank Fraley to a season-ending injury (torn rotator cuff) one week earlier ... McNabb's injury would sideline him for the remainder of the season.

The Eagles dropped their fourth straight decision with a 27-17 loss at Giants Stadium. The Giants never trailed in the contest although Philadelphia rallied in the 2nd half behind QB Mike McMahon, who made his first start as an Eagle for an injured Donovan McNabb (groin/sports hernia). The Giants opened the scoring early in the 2nd quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Jay Feely. Late in the first half, the Eagles suffered a blocked punt that was recovered at their one-yard line. After three straight stops of Giants RB Brandon Jacobs at the one-yard line, OB Eli Manning connected with Amani Toomer from one-yard out to give New York a 10-0 lead. The Eagles began the scoring in the 3rd quarter with a 22-yard strike from McMahon to WR Reggie Brown. The Giants responded with a 55vard run by Tiki Barber on their next possession which ended in a 27-yard field goal by Feely, Trailing 13-7, the Eagles embarked on an 11-play drive that saw them reach the Giants one-yard line with a first and goal situation. But a fumbled snap by McMahon and two incomplete passes forced a 20-yard field goal by David Akers that left the Eagles trailing, 13-10. The Giants once again responded with a 10-play, 69-yard drive early in the 4th quarter that culminated in a one-yard scoring pass from Manning to Jeremy Shockey. But McMahon and the Eagles would not quit as they answered with an impressive 8-play, 6oyard drive culminating in a one-yard TD leap by McMahon. McMahon kept that drive alive with a highlight-film 12yard scramble on 3rd down. But as was the case all day long, the Giants fought right back with a dagger of their own, as Plaxico Burress burned the Eagles with a 61-yard score to put the game out of reach.

NOTES: DE Jevon Kearse notched 2.5 sacks while recording two forced fumbles ... Rookie DE Trent Cole made his first NFL start and notched two sacks, his third straight contest with at least one sack ... McMahon's start was his first in the NFL since 12/29/o2 vs. Minnesota when he was a member of the Lions ... The Eagles did not allow a sack in a game for the first time since 12/27/o3.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 19, GREEN BAY 14 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,665

The Eagles broke a four-game losing streak with a 19-14 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lincoln Financial Field. David Akers booted four field goals, the special teams posted two key takeaways, Brian Westbrook rushed for a career-high 120 yards and a touchdown, and the Eagles defense pitched a second half shutout to pave the way. Westbrook's 100-yard rushing effort was his first of the season behind a revamped offensive line that featured two first-time starters in LT Todd Herremans in place of Tra Thomas and LG Adrien Clarke in place of Artis Hicks. The Eagles stormed to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a 44-yard field goal by Akers and a 27-yard TD scamper by Westbrook. That touchdown was set up by a fumble on kickoff coverage forced by Dedrick Roper and recovered by Matt Ware. The Packers answered back on their next possession with a 33-yard TD run by Samkon Gado and late in the 2nd quarter with a 13-yard scoring pass from Brett Favre to TE David Martin to take a 14-10 lead. But the Eagles defense tightened in the 2nd half, limiting the Packers to just 109 yards of offense and zero points. Akers nailed a 38-yard field goal midway through the 3rd quarter after a 22-yard run by Westbrook on a 4th-and-1 play. Down 14-13 in the 4th quarter, the Eagles drove 60 yards on 12 plays, leading to a 37-yard field goal by Akers. On the ensuing kickoff, Eagles rookie RB Rvan Moats forced and recovered a fumble by Andrae Thurman that led to another field goal by Akers from 33 yards to give the Eagles a 19-14 lead. Favre and the Packers had one last chance to score in the final moments but CB Roderick Hood, starting in place of an injured Lito Sheppard, came up with an interception in the end zone to seal the win.

NOTES: The Eagles extended their winning streak to eight games over the Packers in Philadelphia dating back to 1962 ... The Eagles posted five takeaways in a game for the first time since recording five vs. St. Louis on December 1, 2002.

Monday, December 5, 2005 SEATTLE 42, PHILADELPHIA 0 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67.637

On a snowy evening in Philadelphia, the Eagles were plagued by a plethora of costly turnovers that led to a 42o trouncing by the Seattle Seahawks on Monday Night Football. The Seahawks opened the scoring on the game's first possession as they drove 65 yards on 16 plays capped off by an 11-yard TD pass from Matt Hasselbeck to WR Bobby Engram. Early in the 2nd quarter, McMahon had another interception returned for a score as LB Lofa Tatupu scored from 38 yards out to make the score 21-0. McMahon was replaced late in the and quarter by Koy Detmer. Detmer then was intercepted on his first drive by S Michael Boulware, who returned the ball 32 yards to the Eagles 2-yard line. From there, RB Shaun Alexander scored to give the Seahawks a commanding 28-0 lead. Alexander capped the first half scoring with a one-yard TD run with 33 seconds left. The third quarter started with another turnover as rookie RB Ryan Moats fumbled on the first play from scrimmage. Dyson scooped up the loose ball and raced 25 yards for the game's final points.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2005 NEW YORK 26, PHILADELPHIA 23 (OT) LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67.443

Giants kicker Jay Feely nailed a 36-yard field goal with 3:55 remaining in overtime as the Eagles were officially eliminated from playoff contention at Lincoln Financial Field. The loss spoiled the Eagles fourth quarter comeback attempt as they rallied from a 23-17 deficit with a pair of field goals by David Akers in the final 6:36 of regulation time. The Giants stormed out to a 7-0 lead on their first possession of the game with a 12-play, 73-yard drive that ended with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Tiki Barber. The Eagles responded on the ensuing possession with a 40-yard touchdown scamper by rookie RB Ryan Moats, Moats finished the day with 114 yards on 11 carries and his first two NFL touchdowns. Trailing 17-7 late in the 2nd quarter, the Eagles rallied to tie the contest with an 18-yard touchdown run by Moats and a 42-yard field goal by Akers with 25 seconds remaining. The Eagles had an opportunity to take the lead early in the 3rd quarter, but Akers hit the cross bar on a 49-yard attempt. The Giants responded with a 21-yard field goal by Feely in the 3rd guarter and a 27 yarder early in the 4th quarter. Akers then answered with a 36-yard FG with 6:36 remaining. From there, Sheldon Brown intercepted Manning with 3:35 to go, setting up the game-tying 50yard field goal by Akers with 1:56 left. Michael Lewis intercepted another pass attempt by Manning on the Giants next possession, but the Eagles could not respond with points as the game headed into overtime. The Eagles managed just one first down in two possessions in overtime before McMahon lost a fumble after a sack by Osi Umenyiora at the Eagles 27-yard line. Four plays later, Feely lined up for his game-winning field goal attempt.

NOTES: Moats became the first Eagles rookie to rush for over 100 yards since Correll Buckhalter ran for 134 yards vs. Arizona on October 7, 2001. He also became the first Eagles rookie to post 2 rushing TDs in a single-game since Charlie Garner at SF on October 2, 1994. His 114-yard rushing performance was the 5th-best single-game total by an Eagles rookie ... FS Brian Dawkins recorded at least one sack and one interception in the same game for the 4th time in his career.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 18, 2005 PHILADELPHIA 17, ST. LOUIS 16 EDWARD JONES DOME • 65,382

Trailing by nine points late in the third quarter, the Eagles rallied for a 17-16 win for their first-ever victory over the Rams in St. Louis. Philadelphia's defense stood out during the triumph, including a dominant second half performance in which they allowed just three points and 120 yards of offense. They stuffed Rams RB Marshall Faulk on a key 4th-and-1 situation late in the 4th quarter and also knocked down a 4th down pass attempt by Jamie Martin in the final seconds. For the day, the defensive troops also permitted the Rams to just three first downs in 16 third down opportunities. St. Louis jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on an impressive first possession in which RB Steven lackson scampered for 62 yards before settling for a 26vard field goal by Jeff Wilkins. The Eagles responded on the ensuing possession with a 59-yard touchdown run by rookie RB Ryan Moats to give Philadelphia a 7-3 advantage. Early in the 2nd quarter, Eagles QB Mike McMahon was intercepted by Rams LB Pisa Tinoisamoa, who returned the ball to the Eagles 5-yard line. One play later, Rams starting QB Ryan Fitzpatrick connected with Torry Holt for the go-ahead touchdown. After an Eagles punt, the Rams upped their lead to 13-7 with a 53-yard field goal by Jeff Wilkins. In the third quarter, the Rams took advantage of another Eagles turnover (fumble by Lamar Gordon) that set up a 28-yard field goal by Wilkins to give St. Louis a 16-7 lead. But the Eagles responded later in the third stanza with a 31-yard field goal by David Akers, an interception by Brian Dawkins, and a 3-yard touchdown pass from McMahon to TE Mike Bartrum on the first play of the fourth quarter. The Eagles defense stifled the Rams for the rest of the contest, forcing a change at quarterback from Fitzpatrick to Martin. Martin drove to the Rams to their own 44-yard line in the waning seconds but could not convert a last-ditch 4th-and-7 opportunity.

NOTES: With 40-plus yard TD runs in consecutive games, Moats was one of three NFL rookies to do so since 1970 (Corey Dillon & Antowain Smith both did it in 1997). His 59 yarder was the longest run by an Eagles rookie since Herman Hunter scored on a 74-yard TD at Dallas in 1985. ... Eagles P Sean Landeta became the 8th player in NFL history to play in his 300th NFL game (including playoffs) ... Bartrum's touchdown catch was his 6th in just 11 career receptions ... The Eagles held Rams receivers Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce to just 5 catches for 32 yards ... The Eagles were flagged for 13 penalties for 115 yards, while the Rams were penalized 15 times for 115 yards ... The Eagles won a game in St. Louis for the first time since 11/1/87 when they defeated the Cardinals 28-23.

In the final NFL contest at Sun Devil Stadium, the visiting Eagles were plagued by a rash of penalties (10-103 yards) and a fierce blitz attack (4 sacks and 1 touchdown) by the Cardinals defense, as they fell 27-21. Arizona jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the first half and eventually mounted a 27-7 advantage early in the fourth quarter, before the Eagles rallied for two touchdowns in the final stanza to make the game close. The Cardinals notched two field goals by Neil Rackers and an 11-yard interception return for a touchdown by LB Karlos Dansby before the Philadelphia offense notched a single first down in their 7th possession of the game. On that drive, the Eagles utilized a fake field goal attempt to move the chains as holder Koy Delmer connected with TE Chad Lewis on a 12-yard completion. Two plays later, Eagles QB Mike McMahon scored on a one-yard run. In the 2nd half, Arizona used a pair of touchdown receptions by wide receivers Larry Fitzgerald (25 yards) and Anguan Boldin (20 yards) to build a 27-7 lead with 11:32 to play in the final quarter. The Eagles responded with a 21-yard scoring connection from McMahon to WR Billy McMullen on their next possession and scored on another McMahon one-yard TD run with 28 seconds to play. But the Eagles could not recover an onside kick attempt as the Cardinals won their final game on the campus of Arizona State.

NOTES: Eagles 43-year old punter Sean Landeta had the finest day of his career, booming 10 punts for a careerhigh 501 yards (50.1 gross average), a 44.2 net average and four attempts downed inside the 20-yard line ... McMullen's touchdown was the first of his NFL career ... Eagles RB and Philadelphia native Bruce Perry made his NFL debut and returned 6 kickoffs for an impressive 31.7 average ... The Cardinals will move into their own stadium in Glendale, AZ, starting in the 2006 campaign.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 1, 2006 WASHINGTON 31, PHILADELPHIA 20 LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 67,700

The Eagles closed out the 2005 season with a 31-20 loss to the Redskins. Philadelphia was plagued by six turnovers which resulted directly in 21 points by Washington. Ahead 3-0 in the first quarter, Eagles return man Dexter Wynn fumbled a punt away setting up a Redskins touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to FB Mike Sellers. The Eagles responded with two touchdown catches by rookie WR Reggie Brown (33 and 8 yards) to soar to a 17-7 lead. The Redskins narrowed the gap with a 25yard field goal by John Hall heading into halftime and then tied the game on their first possession of the 2nd half as Brunell connected with Santana Moss on a 54vard pass play which set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Clinton Portis. The Eagles responded with a 35-yard field goal by David Akers to take a 20-17 lead. But they could not hold on in the fourth quarter as an interception by Redskins LB Lemar Marshall set up a 22-yard TD scamper by Portis and a fumble by back-up QB Koy Detmer was returned 39 yards for a score by S Sean Taylor.

NOTES: Brown broke the franchise record for receptions by a rookie wide receiver (43) set by Victor Bailey (41) in 1993. Brown also became the first Eagle rookie to post two touchdown catches in a game since Fred Barnett did so at Phoenix on December 29, 1990 ... Eagles RB Bruce Perry made his first NFL start and rushed for 70 yards on 15 carries.

1943 STEAGLES

With the shortage of manpower due to World War II, the Eagles and Steelers merged for the 1943 football season to become the Steagles. The Steagles, who finished their only season 5-4-1, split their home games between Philadelphia's Shibe Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

WHAT WAS THE PLAYOFF BOWL?

Following the 1961 and 1966 seasons, the Eagles participated in the Playoff Bowl. If case you never heard of the Playoff Bowl, here's the scoop. From 1960-1969, the National Football League took each conference's runner-up and matched them up in a consolation game at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Eagles, by the way, lost both of their Playoff Bowl appearances (38-10 to Detroit in 1962 and 20-14 to Baltimore in 1967).

1948 AND 1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Honor Roll Inductee: 1999

No NFL team before or since ever posted consecutive shutouts in championship play. No NFL team can claim to be more dominant over a two-year period. The Eagles won back-to-back NFL Championships in 1948 and 1949, first shutting out the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, and then blanking the Los Angeles Rams, 14-0. The foundation of this team began in 1947, when the Eagles lost to the Cardinals, 28-21, in the championship game. Under legendary head coach Greasy Neale, Philadelphia finished the 1948 regular season with a 9-2-1 record and took on the Cardinals in the championship game with a foot of snow covering Shibe Park.

Superstar running back Steve Van Buren scored the game's only touchdown on a 5-yard TD run, while the defense limited the Cards to just 6 total first downs. The Eagles continued their dominance in 1949 with an 11-1 record in the regular season and a victory over the Rams in the championship game on a rain-soaked Los Angeles Coliseum field. Van Buren again led the Eagles' offensive charge as he rumbled for 196 yards on 31 carries. In those two seasons, the Eagles outscored their opposition 761-290. They were lovingly called "the duffel-bag dynasty." Many players were young men who had served their country in World War II and returned home trying again to settle into a regular life. Said Hall of Fame LB Chuck Bednarik, a rookie on the 1949 team, "I think we belong with the best teams ever. Look at what we accomplished."

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-o, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers." Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania

All-America C/LB Chuck Bednarik is a 1st round draft choice. The Eagles win their 3rd straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 win over the Los Angeles Rams.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. Endplacekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 - Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich is named head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and selfmade millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 166th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the 1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 60 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 - Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16. Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-inlaw Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to presidentchief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game. 1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes o-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in nonstrike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 - The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY Jets' OB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles, Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl, Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' singleseason passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 - The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense - which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in headto-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on Dec. 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from playing. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8. 1990 - In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. RB Keith Byars tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes.

1991 - On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. They opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost QB Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. After coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a fourgame skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. But a loss at home to Dallas in game 15. ended Philadelphia's playoff hopes. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl - DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. They finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 - In January, the NFL and the Players Association signed a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a 7-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-o record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, seasonending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since '83). Nonetheless, backup QB Bubby Brister led them to wins in 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

1994 - A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the team's owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Jeffrey Lurie, a Boston native and president of a Hollywood-based movie production company, Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the opener, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed, RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. Only one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 - On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In his first season, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and led them to 9 wins in their final 12 games. RB Ricky Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Charlie Garner to give Philadelphia the league's 4th best rushing attack. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, a week later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region.

1996 - For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas. Ty Detmer led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a teamrecord 88) and also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters a Pro Bowl berth with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (a league-leading 1,855). DE William Fuller again led the team with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a big win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return. The Eagles were one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in free agency. The signing of Vincent along with that of Watters the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '06.

1997 — After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoying. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought them back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Injuries plagued the club as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoying). WR Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards and RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive years. The defense's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay as they held the Pack without a TD, snapping a string of 85 games (incl. playoffs) in which they had scored a TD.

1998 – A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. In Rhodes' fourth season at the helm, the Eagles started o-5 before posting their first win. RB Duce Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) as he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery (1981). On defense, the Eagles procured one of the DE Hugh Douglas in a trade with the Jets. Douglas led the Eagles and finished 7th in the NFL with a careerhigh 12.5 sacks, including a club-tying record of 4.5 at San Diego.

1999 - Former Green Bay quarterback coach Andy Reid was named head coach on January 11th. Three months later, the club used the 2nd overall draft choice to select QB Donovan McNabb, one of the most accomplished athletes to ever come out of Syracuse. Their 2-7 start prompted Reid to insert McNabb into the starting lineup for six of the final seven contests. In his first start on Nov. 14th vs. Washington, McNabb sparked the Eagles to a 35-28 win over the Redskins. RB Duce Staley garnered his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and accounted for a NFL-best 41% of his team's offense. New defensive coordinator lim Johnson turned up the heat as his troops accounted for a league-best 46 take-aways, including 28 interceptions (3rd in NFL), five of which were returned for TDs (a team record). FS Brian Dawkins and CB Troy Vincent earned their first Pro Bowl selections. Vincent's 7

INTs tied for the league lead and became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since 1972 (Bill Bradley). Although the Eagles finished 5-11, Reid implemented a positive attitude in his young group of players that included 14 true rookies on the season-ending roster.

2000 - Andy Reid, the NFL's coach of the year, led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history. finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5. The season started with a perfectly executed onsides kick by David Akers to kickoff the season opener at Dallas, leading to a 41-14 win. The Eagles won 10 of their next 13 contests and earned the top Wild Card spot in the NFC. In the playoffs, the Eagles overwhelmed Tampa Bay, 21-3, before losing to the eventual NFC Champion NY Giants in the Divisional Playoffs. After RB Duce Staley went down for the season with a foot injury in game 5, Donovan McNabb became a legitimate MVP candidate (he finished and in AP voting to Rams RB Marshall Faulk). McNabb accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards. TE Chad Lewis led all NFC tight ends in receptions (69) and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. The defense featured 3 Pro Bowlers in CB Troy Vincent, DE Hugh Douglas (15 sacks, 2 in playoffs). and MLB Jeremiah Trotter. First round draft choice DT Corey Simon recorded a rookie team-record 9.5 sacks.

2001 - The Eagles captured their first NFC Eastern Division Championship since 1988 and their first appointment in the NFC title game since 1980. Adversity hit this club early and often. The first preseason game was cancelled due to problems with the Veterans Stadium NeXturf, Starting C Bubba Miller was lost to a seasonending foot injury. And they dropped their season opener in overtime to the Rams before true adversity devastated the entire world on September 11th when terrorist attacks struck the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, As a result, a week's worth of NFL games were postponed. The Eagles were 2-2 before beating the Giants, 10-9, on Monday Night Football for the first time since 1996 (a span of nine games). The Eagles won 8 of their last 10 games, including a dramatic 24-21 win over the Giants on December 30 to clinch the NFC East title. In the playoffs, the Eagles defeated the Bucs again, 31-9, and in the Divisional playoffs, Donovan McNabb made his homecoming to Chicago a sweet one, winning 33-19 at Soldier Field. The Pro Bowlers on defense were DE Hugh Douglas, MLB Jeremiah Trotter, CB Troy Vincent, and FS Brian Dawkins. The unit allowed the 2nd fewest point total in the NFL (208), including a league low 64 points permitted in 8 road games. In fact, their 7-1 road record was the best in franchise history. David Akers earned his first Pro Bowl berth and set a club record with 17 consecutive FGs made.

2002 - In the 31st and final season at Veterans Stadium. the Eagles set a team record for points scored (415) and sent a league-high 10 players to the Pro Bowl. However, they fell in the NFC Championship game for the second consecutive season. Andy Reid, the consensus coach of the year, proved the Eagles were not a one-man show. winning five of six games without Donovan McNabb (broken ankle). McNabb returned for the playoffs and directed a win in the Divisional playoff after 3rd QB A.J. Feeley started the final five games, winning his first four. Although the Eagles lost their season finale to the Giants. they were still able to clinch home field after the lets trounced the Packers in the same stadium one day later. The defense finished in the top five in numerous categories and sent four players to the Pro Bowl: CB Troy Vincent, CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and DE Hugh Douglas. The offensive line also featured multiple Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1980 with Tra Thomas, Jon Runyan and Jermane Mayberry. David Akers set a team record with 133 points to a Pro Bowl berth.

2003 - In a season marred with injuries, controversy. and a slow start, the Eagles captured their third consecutive NFC East division title and third straight trip to the NFC title game, a loss to Carolina, Lincoln Financial Field officially became the Eagles new nest with a seasonopening Monday night contest vs. Tampa Bay, But the Eagles not only lost their first two contests, they were left without the services of Pro Bowl defensive backs Brian Dawkins and Bobby Taylor for a large chunk of the regular season (foot injuries). After various other injuries, two key players, LB Carlos Emmons (ankle) and RB Brian Westbrook (triceps), were felled by season-ending ailments in December. After a 2-3 start, the Eagles rattled off nine straight wins, tying a team record previously set in 1960. That win streak was propelled by an improbable win at NYG on October 19. Trailing the Giants 10-7 with 1:34 remaining, no timeouts and a sputtering offense, Westbrook fielded a bouncing punt and raced 84 yards for the dramatic, game-winning score. During that win streak, the Eagles toughed out a crucial win at Green Bay with a last-minute, game-winning drive directed by Donovan McNabb and ended up earning home-field advantage in the playoffs for the 2nd straight season. After suffering through a paltry QB rating of 51.1 in the first six games, a nagging thumb injury in his throwing hand, and disgraceful, racial commentary by former ESPN analyst Rush Limbaugh following the o-2 start, McNabb thrived. He garnered NFC offensive player of the month honors in November, leading Philadelphia to a 5-0 month. He engineered a come-from-behind playoff win vs. Green Bay before suffering a rib injury a week later vs.

Carolina that sidelined him in the 4th quarter. The Eagles employed a unique running back trio (Westbrook, Correll Buckhalter, and Duce Staley), dubbed the "three-headed monster," that racked up 1,618 rushing yards, 2,465 total yards from scrimmage, and 29 total TDs. Despite giving up the ball 8 times during their o-2 start, the team established a club record for fewest turnovers in a season with 22. They also turned in a franchise-record 6 games without a give-away.

2004 - One of the most eventful off-seasons in team history helped propel the Eagles to their first NFC Championship and subsequent Super Bowl appearance in 24 years. Although they lost a hard-fought battle to the Patriots, 24-21, in Jacksonville, the Eagles milestones were plentiful as they captured their 4th consecutive NFC East division title and won a franchise record 13 regular season games, while Andy Reid became the all-time winningest coach in franchise history surpassing Greasy Neale. The season started on the first day of the free agent signing period as they inked DE Jevon Kearse and later acquired WR Terrell Owens in a trade. Owens ended up with 77 catches for 1,200 yards and 14 scores. Donovan McNabb also turned in a stellar campaign, completing 64% of his passes for 3,875 yards (both franchise records), 31 TDs and just 8 INTs for a career-high 104.7 QB rating. He became the first player in NFL history to finish a season with 30+ TD passes and fewer than 10 INTs and his 24 consecutive completions over a span of two games set an NFL record previously held by Joe Montana (22) in 1987. McNabb, Owens, Brian Westbrook (1,515 total vards from scrimmage and 9 TDs) and LT Tra Thomas earned Pro Bowl berths on the offensive side of the ball. The defense meanwhile, was led by Kearse (7.5 sacks), a trio of Pro Bowl defensive backs (FS Brian Dawkins, SS Michael Lewis, and CB Lito Sheppard), and MLB Jeremiah Trotter, who earned a Pro Bowl berth despite not being inserted into the starting lineup until game 9. Trotter returned to the Eagles in July after being released by the Redskins. The defense finished and in the league in points allowed (16.3 per game) and sacks (47). K David Akers, who set a NFL record with 17 FGs of 40-yards-ormore, and LB Ike Reese both earned Pro Bowl berths from the special teams. In all, a league-best 10 Eagles earned trips to Hawaii. The Eagles stormed out to a 7-o record and after a win at NYG on November 28, clinched the NFC East title with 5 games remaining. They went on to clinch home field advantage in the NFC after compiling a 13-1 record. In the playoffs, the Eagles topped Minnesota in the Divisional playoff round and Atlanta in the NFC Championship game.

2005 - Stymied by injuries and a plethora of off-thefield distractions, the Eagles finished with a 6-10 record and out of the playoffs for the first time since 1999. The defending NFC champions began the season with a 4-2 record, including a dramatic come-from-behind win at Kansas City in which they overcame a 27-6 first half deficit to win, 37-31, and an equally heart-stopping victory vs. San Diego in which Matt Ware returned a blocked field goal 65 yards for the game-winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter. But injuries suffered by many key players led to a string of 8 losses in the final 10 contests as starters Donovan McNabb (sports hernia), Brian Westbrook (foot), Hank Fraley (rotator cuff), Todd Pinkston (Achilles), Lito Sheppard (ankle), and Tra Thomas (back) all missed significant game action. In addition. WR Terrell Owens was suspended for four games for conduct detrimental to the team and ended up not playing in the final nine games of the season. Despite the injury-riddled season, McNabb became the first quarterback in team history to top the 300-yard passing mark in three consecutive games and earned NFC Offensive player of the month honors in September. He also set the franchise record with 35 completions vs. San Diego. MLB Jeremiah Trotter earned his fourth Pro Bowl berth with a team-high 169 tackles. With all the injuries, many young players took advantage of their opportunities, including WR Reggie Brown, who set the club rookie wide receiver record with 43 receptions. Reggie White's #92 was officially retired in an emotional halftime ceremony of a Monday night contest vs. Seattle on December 5. The ceremony included Reggie's wife, Sara, and their two children, as well as more than 20 of his former teammates and coaches. The Eagles also negotiated long-term contracts with two of their most productive players in Westbrook and David Akers.

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

This year the Philadelphia Eagles in-house production unit, The Eagles Television Network (ETN) has reached a milestone in 2006. ETN is celebrating 10 years of excellence in the broadcast world!

ETN combines state of the art programming with exclusive access to the field, locker room and the personal lives of our players and coaches. To date ETN has earned nearly 90 regional Emmy nominations and has taken home 26 awards. Other accolades include over 30 national Telly Awards over the past seven years as well as multiple local awards in the Philadelphia region.

ETN production facility and edit suites are housed within Lincoln Financial Field and the outfit is headed by Director of Broadcasting and Executive Producer, Rob Alberino. Along with Alberino, ETN is host to 7 full time employees that execute the Network's productions not only for broadcast but within the stadium as well. They are recognized league wide and throughout the sporting world as one of the leaders in regional sports production.

In 2006, ETN will produce the following programs:

Eagles Preseason Games - The Eagles Television Network will broadcast three preseason games in 2006. WPVI, ABC-6 will carry the games in Philadelphia while WPMT airs the games to the fans in Harrisburg, York and Lancaster, and WOLF airs the games in Scranton-Wilkes Barre. Each game is reaired after the live broadcast on the previously mentioned ETN affiliate stations.

ETN programming will include the newly revamped Donovan McNabb Show. This program will not only bring viewers closer to one of the League's biggest stars, it will also go inside the locker room as well as go on location with Eagles players and coaches. Included this year is a top ten segment showcasing the greatest moments in the past 10 years as well as a two new vignettes, "Passed Greats" which will be a historical look at great quarterbacks as well as great receivers from the Eagles past and present and finally Donovan's intimate thoughts on many aspects of his life. "Donovan's Déjà vu's" will cover everything from Donovan's family to his tremendous ability on the field. This half hour show will air every Saturday evening at 11:35 pm on WPVI, and is a showcase of some of the best ETN has to offer.

The Eagles will also have a weekly highlight based show airing on WPVI on gamenights at 11:35 (or TBD on non-Sunday gamedays.) Eagles Football Frenzy presented by Sovereign Bank will be the fastest half-hour on television and viewers will be able to see all of the highlights from the game, one on one interviews with players and exclusive locker room access that only ETN cameras can provide.

Along with the talented crew at Comcast SportsNet, ETN brings a joint production titled, "Inside the Eagles" back for another season. With a special guest each week, this studio show will be packed with off the field features, a retrospective on past matchups and insight on previous and upcoming opponents. Hosted by Derrick Gunn, the show will air Friday evenings at 8:30pm.

A magazine format show, The Andy Reid Show, will also showcase ETN's exciting style. The show will take viewers into the players' lives as well as the coaches' offices. Off the field features, historical segments, insightful analysis and an in depth look at the Eagles will be only a few things offered by this award winning show. Hosted by Eagles Insider, Dave Spadaro, The Andy Reid Show will air on FOX 29 at 10:30am Sunday mornings.

Lastly, in its second year will be The Eagles Kids Club. This half hour program, which debuted in 2005 and was acclaimed for its animation, writing and production will feature animated characters, instruction on the rules and fundamentals of the game from the players themselves and a host of other exciting segments for younger viewers. Created just for kids, this program will also offer question and answer segments with the players and a chance to learn about the guys on the team in a way that no other program can offer! It's the Eagles Kids Club where Kids become part of the team and it airs on FOX 29 at 10:00am every Sunday for the duration of the year.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

Eagles' Philosophy of Community Involvement Starts at the Top

In addition to being responsible for the founding and operation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the club's non-profit, charitable wing, Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie, and team President Joe Banner, are both personally committed to improving the lives of children.

Foremost among Lurie's passions is the fight against autism, a biological disorder of the brain that impairs communication and social skills, basically rendering children, and later adults, unable to communicate their feelings and emotions. It is a fight he takes personally since he has a brother who is autistic. A director of both the NLM Family Foundation and the Autism Research Foundation, Lurie's involvement has been lifelong. In 2003, Lurie and his wife Christina chaired The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Daisy Day Luncheon benefiting autism. In 2000, the Lurie family donated $1,000,000 to autism research.

Similarly, Banner's passion revolves around City Year, a non-profit community service organization that brings together young adults from diverse backgrounds for a challenging and rewarding year of community service. Throughout the country, over 1,500 corps members, from all races, economic and social backgrounds, tutor, mentor and support children of all ages. They help them develop their potential and play a more active role in their schools, homes and neighborhoods. Banner serves as Co-Chair of City Year Greater Philadelphia.

Tackling Breast Cancer

In 2004, the Eagles organization embarked on a mission to raise awareness and funds to help the fight against breast cancer. The Tackling Breast Cancer campaign kicked off when the team hung a 30x40 foot pink ribbon banner on the south face of Lincoln Financial Field. Through October '04 and '05, an estimated 5 million people saw the ribbon. The Eagles also donated money from the sale of pink Eagles hats and ties towards the cause. Fan support from across the country helped the team raise almost $400,000 for breast cancer care and research in Philadelphia; with most of the money benefiting the Jefferson Breast Care Center at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital. Eagles owner and president of Eagles Youth Partnership Christina Weiss Lurie also led a group of fans, team staff, SWOOP, and Cheerleaders for the 2005 Race for the Cure.

Eagles and our Players in the Community

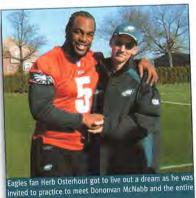

In addition to taking part in various events on behalf of EYP, the Eagles and our players participate in community events. Here's a brief list of some of those activities:

- Gun Task Force Eagles Ambassador Hugh Douglas joined officials from the City of Philadelphia as they announced the formation of a new Gun Task Force to help keep illegal guns off the street. There, Douglas met Kevin Johnson, a victim of gun violence, and congratulated him on his strength in the face of adversity.
- Katrina Collection In September, the Eagles hosted the American Red Cross at Lincoln Financial Field to collect donations thenefiting the victims of Huricane Katrina.
- Eagles Pop Warner Reading Challenge The Eagles teamed up with the Pop Warner Little League football to highlight the importance of reading and education, and how it relates to football. The Northwest Raiders, the team whose players read the most books in the league, were invited to a special event with RB Ryan Moats who spoke to the kids about the importance of reading. Each child received a photo with Moats, a certificate of achievement and an autographed football.
- Get Well Visit · Children from the Devereux's Beneto Center visited the NovaCare Complex to present injured C Hank Fraley with hand-made get well cards. Fraley, who was placed on injured reserve at the beginning of November, was the Honorary Chair of the 2005 Devereux Golf Classic. The children wanted to send their thoughts to him when they heard of his injury.
- TreeVitalize Eagles RB Reno Mahe, joined Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) Secretary Michael DiBerardinis, 6th grade students planting trees at the Bregy School and Eagles Cheerleaders. Following a

United Way

As part of the NFL's partnership with the United Way, the Eagles work closely with the Southeastern PA chapter of this nationwide charity. The Eagles participate annually in the Hometown Huddle event. On this day, each NFL team partners with local United Way agencies to positively influence their community. In 2005 the Eagles worked with Thomas Jefferson University Hospital to host a free breast cancer informational session for women. In cooperation with Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation, this year's Hometown Huddle will include on-site health professionals who will distribute literature and answer questions in a fun, interactive environment. Women who qualify will also be able to sign up on site for a free mammogram.

Additionally, All-Pro safety Brian Dawkins continues to represent the club in the NFL's series of PSA's. In Dawkins' PSA, the safety is drafted by the parks department, "fulfilling his lifelong dream" of giving the kids of Philadelphia a safe, clean place to play.

BEING GREEN REALLY IS A WAY OF LIFE

Upon our move into Lincoln Financial Field, the Eagles launched the "Go Green" initiative; a commitment on the part of the entire organization to become a more environmentally responsible company.

Our mission? "To create and sustain championship performance on the field and in the community through programs that promote the quality of life in our region, green the environment and improve our impact on the planet."

As we enter our fourth season, pursuit of our mission is evidenced throughout our organization. Greener procurement practices, cleaner energy purchases from a variety of sources, daily and publication printing using recycled paper, and active recycling around our stadium, headquarters and training facilities are just some of the ways we're moving towards our goal. We have also donated more than $125,000 towards the TreeVitalize program, resulting in hundreds of trees being planted at 24 schools in Philadelphia.

Another outcome... Green has become more than just the color of our jerseys. GO GREEN has become a rallying cry for our team and a good citizenship message for our entire community.

We invite you to join us.

WHEN WE RECYCLE, EVERYBODY WINS.
